LONDON POLICE AGAIN STRIKE

Labor Organ Reports That 65,000 Policemen and Prison Officials Quit

Other Papers, However, Deny This, Saying That Only a Few Hundred Left Posts

LONDON, Aug. 1.—About 65,000 policemen and prison officials throughout the country have gone on strike, according to the Daily Herald, a labor organ. It declares that the whole London force responded to the call. This is contrary to all other newspaper reports which concur, whatever the future holds, that the call was generally ignored.

General Sir Nevill Macready, chief commissioner of police, said that less than 250 men had struck and that these

ANOTHER CASE OF WATCHFUL WAITING

Lowell service men, eligible to receive the $100 gratuity to be paid by the state, need not expect their cheques before the week of August 11 at the earliest and it is more than probable that it will be on an even later date before the first batch is put in the mails at the state house.

State Treasurer Charles L. Burrill estimates that cheques will be mailed at the rate of approximately 15,000 a week once the mailing gets under way and as there are in the neighborhood of 200,000 applicants, at least 13 weeks will elapse before the entire job is finished.

The bonus distribution is one of the biggest undertakings ever to come to the treasury department and although a force of more than 100 clerks are working long daily hours verifying records and application statements, it is slow progress at best. The fact that Treasurer Burrill will be obliged to personally sign each cheque is a task in itself and the multitude of other checking requisites all help in making the job a stinging one.

TO CUT HIGH COST OF LIVING

Special Committee to Consider Means Appointed at Meeting of Cabinet

Will Report Monday—Plan to Sell Wheat at Market Price

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—A special committee to consider means of reducing the high cost of living was appointed at the meeting yesterday of members of President Wilson's cabinet with Attorney General Palmer. The committee will compile suggestions thus far made and report to the cabinet Monday when further steps will be taken.

One suggestion made, Mr. Palmer said, was that the government sell this year's wheat crop at the market price, to be determined by the law of supply and demand, and make up the guarantee to the farmers out of the billion dollar fund appropriated by congress.

RETURNS TO BENCH

Judge Enright Fully Recovered From Long Illness—Man Held for Grand Jury

Judge Thomas J. Enright resumed his place on the bench in the Lowell police court today, after an absence of nearly four months, caused by illness. His Honor found a handsome bouquet of flowers on his desk, placed there by the police department, and he expressed his appreciation of the thoughtfulness of the men.

Charged with robbing Joseph M. Meilo of $70 in cash and a gold watch on the night of June 25, James E. Ball, called on continuance, was held in $500 for the grand jury after probable cause to believe him guilty had been found. The case of Martin Brady, another Lowell youth, who has confessed having a hand in the transaction, was continued for one week.

According to Brady's story, Ball, another young man whom the police say has left town, and himself met Meilo on the evening in question and held him up in Grand St. Ball grappled with the victim and threw him to the ground, stuffed a handkerchief in his mouth to prevent an outcry, while the third member of the trio went through Meilo's pockets. This youth secured the cash, Brady testified, while he, himself, got the watch. After making their getaway the other youth said that he had only secured about $3, and this was split between the three. Patrolman John Clark was the arresting officer.

Several minor cases were called and continued, and James F. Falls, charged with neglect, was ordered to contribute $10 a week via the probation officer for the future support of his family.

Protocol to German Peace Treaty Laid Before Senate Poles Ratify Treaty

Lodge Submits Copy of Treaty Between "Big Five" and Poland—Text of Agreement, Received From Private Source by Lodge, Also Presented—New Commercial Treaty Between U. S. and Britain

PARIS, Aug. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Polish parliament yesterday ratified the German treaty and also the treaty for the protection of minorities by a vote of 245 to 41.

New Commercial Treaty
LONDON, Aug. 1.—The British foreign office has completed negotiations with the United States, according to the Evening News for a new commercial treaty between the United States and the United Kingdom. The text will be laid before parliament soon, it is said.

Protocol to German Treaty
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The protocol to the German peace treaty defining explanations of the treaty agreed to in memorandums exchanged between the German and allied plenipotentiaries, was laid before the senate today by Vice President Marshall. The documents were transmitted yesterday by President Wilson, but too late for submission before today.

The protocol was accompanied by explanatory letters from President Wilson and Secretary Lansing. The protocol and the correspondence were referred to the foreign relations committee.

Among the provisions in the protocol is one requiring the German government to transmit to the allied and associated governments within one month after the treaty becomes effective a list of persons who are accused of having committed acts in violation of the laws and customs of war.

Another paragraph provides for the appointment of a commission to supervise the destruction of the German fortifications on Heligoland in accordance with the German treaty.

Provision is also made that "proceedings be taken against persons who committed punishable offenses in the liquidation of German property" in the allied countries and the protocol says the allied and associated powers will welcome information or evidence the German government can furnish on this subject.

Lodge Presents Treaty
WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—A copy of a treaty between the "big five" powers and Poland, said to have been signed at Versailles on June 25, was put into the senate record today by Chairman Lodge of the foreign relations committee, who said it had been submitted to the British parliament two weeks ago.

The text of the agreement between President Wilson and the representatives of the other big powers for government of the Rhine district also was presented by Senator Lodge who said he had received a copy privately after the document had been presented to the British parliament.

BIDS FOR THE MOREY SCHOOL ANNEX
The public property department will make another attempt to get satisfactory bids for the erection of an annex to the Charles W. Morey school tomorrow when bids will be received for a 14-room addition. Contractors will have just one week in which to submit estimates as the bids will be opened Saturday, Aug. 9.

Bids will be received for eight separate contracts. There will be the general contract, carpenter work, plumbing, heating, plastering, electrical work, painting and sheet metal. All bids must be accompanied by a check for five per cent. of the estimate.

Bids were received by the public property department several months ago for an 18-room addition to the Morey school, but the estimates were nearly three times the amount originally estimated for the project, $150,000.

Since then, the architect has revised the plans and the number of rooms have been reduced from 18 to 14 at the request of Commissioner George E. Marchand. The new plans have yet to be approved by the school board. Chairman Richard Brabrook Walsh of the latter body stated today that the plans have been gone over informally and sent to the public property department for an estimate of the cost of the building.

BIG VICTORY FOR ANTI-BOLSHEVIKI

Volunteer Army of Gen. Denekine Has Captured City of Poltava

Success Indicates an Extensive Northwestward Sweep by Denekine

LONDON, Aug. 1.—News was received today that the volunteer army of General Denekine, commanding one of the anti-Bolshevik forces, had captured the city of Poltava.

Within the city, large quantities of supplies and war material were taken. Denekine had previously captured Kamishin on the Volga with 5000 prisoners, nine guns and great quantities of material.

The city of Poltava is in the province of that name, about 80 miles southwest of Kharkov. Its capture indicates an extensive northwestward sweep by Denekine.

MORE LIQUOR DEALERS SELL 2.75 P. C. BEER

Fully two score liquor establishments were open today for the sale of 2.75 per cent. beer, the license commission having granted first class liquor licenses this morning to 21 saloons, four hotels and one club, in addition to the 18 licenses granted Wednesday.

All the dealers reported a brisk business throughout the day and last evening the 18 places open were jammed to the doors in many instances. Practically no 2.75 drunks have appeared at the police station as yet, which would seem to show that whatever "kick" this beverage may contain is of a very mild character.

The licenses issued by the commission this morning were as follows: E. F. Brady & Co., 45-51 Fletcher street; Thomas P. Lane & Co., 133 Crosby st.; Brady & Co., 219 Dutton st.; J. McGlinchey & Co., 84-86 Gorham st.; J. A. Cayouette & Co., 515 Middlesex st.; C. E. Dugan & Co., 34 Gorham st.; Callahan & Co., 405 Lawrence st.; Frank E. Harris, Harrisona hotel, Central st.; T. R. The commission was still granting licenses at 3 o'clock.

THREE LOST WITH BRITISH VESSEL

Rescuers Saw Steamer Turn Over in Calm Sea—No Explanation of Accident

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The steamship Abangarez, owned by the United Fruit Co., arrived here today with 58 members of the crew of the British steamer, Clan Gordon, which capsized at sea Wednesday, 140 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras with the loss of three men, one of whom was the wireless operator.

The Clan Gordon, a freighter of the Clan line, left New York for Dairi, China, last Monday. Late Wednesday afternoon the crew of the Abangarez saw her capsized in a comparatively calm sea. The captain refused upon his arrival here to explain the accident until he had reported to his agents.

The last seen of the Clan Gordon was at 7 o'clock Wednesday, when she was floating bottomside up. She was a vessel of 2232 tons.

WEDDED BY RADIO UP AMONG THE CLOUDS

BROOKLYN, N.Y., July 29.—Married in the air, by radio telephone, with the guests on the ground hearing the service through amplifiers, this couple chose about the latest thing in the way of a wedding. The bride and groom went up in one plane, while the minister was sent aloft in another and the best man and bridesmaid in a third. After the ceremony it was arranged for 30 planes to join the wedding procession in the air. Lieut. George H. Burgess, U. S. Air Service, and Miss Milly K. Schafer, of Brooklyn, the up-to-the-minute principals in the wedding in the clouds, over Sheepshead Bay Speedway, are here pictured in their wedding garments.

SAYS SOLDIERS ARE INTERESTED IN FARMS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Inquiries conducted throughout the army have developed that there is a wide general interest in Secretary Lane's project to furnish farms to discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, according to a report just submitted by the secretary to both houses of congress.

Accompanying the report, which was addressed to the speaker of the house and the president of the senate, were 150 extracts from letters received from army officers outlining investigations made among their men, which indicated in many instances that from 20 to 40 per cent of various commands are anxious to take advantage of an opportunity to become the owners of farm homes. In one division alone more the 4000 men expressed their personal interest in the plan.

Secretary Lane had been asked by committees of congress what evidence there was that the soldiers, sailors and marines were interested in the plan before congress for providing them with farms.

TO FIGHT FARE CHANGE

Mayor of New York Calls

2-cent Transfer Charge

"Disgraceful Grab"

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Characterizing the 2-cent transfer charge on the New York railways and the surface lines of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, effective today, as a "disgraceful grab by the greedy transit corporation," Mayor Hylan yesterday issued a statement in which he said that the law department of the city "will fight to the last ditch to 'upset it' and 'carry the case to the highest courts, if necessary.'" Municipal ownership and operation of transit lines was the remedy suggested by Mayor Hylan to prevent increased fares.

"The audacity of the grasping trusts," he said, "in dragging this additional 2 cents from the pockets of the people who gave them the rich privilege of occupying the public highways is one of the most brazen acts that has ever come under my notice. I wonder how long the people will tolerate such amazing impudence."

BELIEVE ENGINEER ASLEEP AT POST

GREENWICH, Conn., Aug. 1.—Testimony tending to show that Henry Brickley of New London, engineer of the New York, New Haven & Hartford westbound freight train which collided with another freight near East Portchester, N. The wreck cost two lives, Brickley and Charles E. Rust of New Haven, an instructor engineer, being burned to death when the wreckage caught fire from the fallen wires. Eight cars were smashed and traffic both east and west was tied up more than six hours.

BIG SHIP DEAL

Shipping Board Sells 100
Vessels for $80,000,000

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—One hundred steamships built on the Great Lakes during the war have been sold to the Anderson Overseas Corp. of New York for approximately $80,000,000. This is probably the largest ship sale in record, the board said in announcing the deal last night. The vessels will eventually pass to French and Italian ownership. Mr. Hurley made the announcement.

concerning the sale a few minutes before he left his office as chairman of the shipping board for the last time. Tomorrow he returns to private life, leaving for his farm in Illinois. During the afternoon Mr. Hurley shook hands with and said good bye to nearly 2000 men and women employees of the board. Earlier in the day the retiring chairman called at the White House and bade good bye to President Wilson. He was closeted with the president for about an hour. The president thanked Mr. Hurley for the aid he had given during the past years and said he would miss his counsel. Mr. Hurley last night was given a dinner by newspapermen.

Today Telephone Properties are Returned

After a year of Federal control, the telephone property, which makes up the Bell Telephone System, is today returned to its owners by the United States Government.

While the property has been properly maintained, it is not the same property which the Government took over on August 1, 1918. It is not as adequate for its job; that it is not, is in no way the fault of Federal control, which was eminently fair. It is due to causes for which neither the Government nor the companies are to blame.

A year ago today we were at war. Labor and materials needed for both telephone operation and construction were turned to military uses. Some materials were so vital to the carrying on of the war that even the work of providing telephone facilities for the Government was retarded, and no part of them could be spared for commercial telephone purposes.

No less vital was the Government need for those skilled to create, maintain and operate the vast intercommunication systems necessary in modern warfare and in the conduct of the vastly increased Government services.

Thousands of telephone men were already at the battle front. Thousands more were under arms, and still telephone experts and skilled operators went into the service of the Government and contributory industries by the tens of thousands.

The reserves of plant and equipment were drawn upon until they were entirely used up, and the experienced staff was gradually depleted.

During the year came victory and the armistice; and instantly the business world sprang into intense activity. The demands for telephone service passed all former records.

To replace the exhausted reserves which had been carried for just such purposes, to meet this unprecedented emergency, there began a rush for construction, for readjustment, for high-pressure repairs, for feverish extensions. All these must be continued with increasing effort.

The return of the property comes in the very midst of this race between an overpowering demand and an upbuilding of a system whose growth was held back by the vital needs of war.

Much progress has been made in the upbuilding of this system, but far more is still required to meet the swift growth of business; and also to give "first aid" to every other business and every other service struggling against an unprecedented demand.

Under such conditions it is beyond human power to immediately overcome the handicap which the situation imposes. There are no people in any public or private endeavor who are working more tirelessly or strenuously for the common good than those of the Telephone Companies. More service must be given and it must be even more efficient. That improvement in some cases will take months. Eventually service must win the race with demand.

Have Been Raised to the Rank of Field Marshal

LONDON, Aug. 1.—General E. H. H. Allenby, formerly commander of the British forces in Palestine, who captured Jerusalem and at present is special high commissioner for Egypt and Sudan, and Lieut. General Sir Herbert Plumber, commander of the second British army, have been raised to the rank of field marshal.

CULTIVATE YOUR CHILD'S CONFIDENCE

BY MARTHA GALAUDET WARING.
A little child begins by "telling mother" everything. Bumps or bruises, joys or sorrows, all are brought to her as naturally as the child draws breath, and this continues as long as he is totally unconscious of himself as an individual.

The time for special care is when he becomes aware of himself as a separate entity. From this time on, a cold look, an indifferent air, an uninterested attitude, a word of ridicule or sarcasm may wound the child's sense of confidence or justice so deeply that he will shrink within himself and never again show his innocent thoughts or most sacred feelings to his mother or to anyone else. Incalculable harm is done through thoughtlessness, even by the most devoted parents, in failing to recognize this stage of the child's development and to reverence his individuality and his right to it. The mother loses the greatest power for good she possesses, and misses the greatest joy and recompense she can have by not sharing her child's hopes and fears, his troubles and triumphs. The bitter experience will come to her sooner or later of realizing that her child is sharing these with another person who must, therefore, be spiritually nearer to him than she is.

There are a few absolutely certain ways of avoiding this catastrophe which have been used over and over again by wise and devoted mothers. One is, never fail to listen attentively and sympathetically, no matter at what inconvenience, giving your best wisdom to help your child see his problem clearly for himself.

Another is, respect your child as a spiritual being, an individual as different from all other individuals as God meant him to be. Meet him on his own ground, and do not try to make him conform to a pattern of your own. Respect your child's confidence absolutely. Once betrayed, it may never be given again.

A young lad of 12 I once knew, told his mother something that greatly interested him, and asked her not to tell anyone about it. Later in the day he passed under the bay window in which she and a friend were sitting with their sewing, and he heard her telling what he had told her in confidence. He was a rather quiet lad but very determined, and after the visitor left he went to his mother and said: "Mother, I passed under the window and heard you telling Mrs. Blank what I asked you not to mention to anyone. I just want to let you know that as long as I live I will never again tell you anything that concerns myself until I am ready for everybody to know it." And he kept his word, although he was always a most devoted and dutiful son.

Never meet a situation which appears absurd to you with ridicule or sarcasm; this is fatal.

Perhaps the most important rule of all is, do not be afraid to discuss any subject, to meet truth with truth, frankness with frankness, confidence with confidence. Long ago I told my children I would always give honest answers to their questions in as far as they could understand them, and could explain more as they grew older. Give them scientific truths when they ask for them, reverently and simply, and know the joy of seeing their minds open to the facts of life with appreciation of their beauty and holiness, and of watching their love and respect grow for their father and mother and for all life!

Never be afraid of confessing ignorance. A child thoroughly respects the answer: "I don't know accurately enough to tell you correctly; let us look it up together." This is where father can be brought in with effect, even if he is much away and very busy, for a child can soon learn in confidential talks with mother that father would be just as much interested, just as anxious to help, and just as good or perhaps a better adviser, if only he were there. Then whenever his advice is especially needed, the matter can be referred to him at a convenient time.

To be a parent is a vocation, not a pastime. God has given into our keeping an individual not a replica of ourselves for a plaything, and it is not enough to give only our love, which is a natural gift; we must give spiritual insight and understanding, for in the child's growing and developing powers and true companionship.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Adv.

BELA KUN DICTATOR

Will Remain in Control Unless Allies Forcibly Expel Him, Say Americans

VIENNA, Wednesday, July 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Unless the allies assume the definite policy of forcibly expelling Bela Kun, the communist leader, it is believed by Americans here that he will continue as dictator for days, weeks or months, according to his own will.

The allied representatives here have done all in their power in an attempt to reason with him and to persuade him on patriotic grounds to deliver the government into the hands of the socialists, rather than those of a few minority communists. But so far Bela Kun continues to parley without accepting.

He is said to feel that his position is stronger because of the new harvest, which gives the soviet more food, especially as thousands of Hungarians continue to flee, thus making fewer mouths to feed.

President Felix of Austria, said today that his country would not be quiet so long as Bela Kun was permitted to disturb her politics. He said that Hungarian soldiers were inclining to disorder and that requisitions of private houses in cities and villages were going on near Vienna.

The Hungarian soldiers are obeying orders so long as they get food and money and because of this fact, it is not thought probable that Bela Kun will be overthrown by forces inside Hungary. The power of Bela Kun is also due to the inertia of the educated classes and others who are worn out by the war and have no strength to struggle against the rule of terror.

MAY AUCTION MAINE INTERURBAN CAR LINE

AUBURN, Me., Aug. 1.—Justice Morrill filed yesterday afternoon his decree on the bill in equity of the Old Colony Trust company of Boston against the Lewiston, Augusta & Waterville Electric railroad, in which the petitioner, trustee under the mortgages securing the first and refunding bonds of the railroad, asked for permission to foreclose the mortgages and sell the property and franchise.

The decree is very voluminous. It states that the amount of the first and refunding bonds secured by the mortgages to the Old Colony Trust company is $2,537,000, on which there is overdue interest to the amount of $151,133.13. It orders the railroad company to pay this latter sum with interest within 10 days from today.

In the event of default in this payment, Wallace H. White of Lewiston, special master, is ordered to sell the whole property on the courthouse steps in Auburn. Bids are to be called for the whole property, also for the property exclusive of the Turner branch, for the Turner branch including its franchise, and for the physical property of the Turner branch alone. If the bid for the whole property is greater than the combined bids for the different items mentioned, then it is to be sold as a whole, otherwise each piece is to be sold separately.

A deposit of $10,000 cash or $50,000 of the bonds of the road is required from the highest bidder at the sale for the whole property, and one of $1000 or $5000 of bonds for the Turner branch. The proceeds of the sale are to be devoted to the payment, first of the expenses of sale, second the costs and expenses of the Old Colony Trust company and its attorneys, as allowed by the court, the expenses of the Cumberland County Power and Light company in connection with the receivership, the expenses of the receivership, and finally to the payment of the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds.

RUSSIAN CITIES NOW FACING RUIN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The miserable condition of affairs in Bolshevik Russia, where the population of great cities has been greatly reduced by disease, execution and exodus, where industry has been throttled to the point of decay, and the cost of existence greatly raised, is pictured in a statement issued by Assistant Secretary of State Breckinridge Long yesterday, as coming from the pen of Gregor Alexinsky.

Alexinsky was formerly a member of the Russian duma for Petrograd and of the central committee for the social democratic organization "Edinstvo." His statement, which has reached the state department, tells of the miserable plight into which many of the industries in Bolshevik territory had been placed when he left Petrograd on May 17. Alexinsky is well known in Russia and is an historian. Interviewed by the Copenhagen Social Democrat, a copy of which has just been forwarded to the state department from Copenhagen, he gave this picture of the situation in Bolshevik Russia: "The condition of affairs in Bolshevik Russia is very distressing. The majority of the industrial enterprises are not operating. In the Moscow district 63 textile factories, stopped working last fall, and the same picture appears with respect to the textile industry in the vicinity of Ivanovo-Voznesensk, near Petrograd, etc. The chemical industry, the paper industry and many others are likewise in a miserable condition. "The Bolshevik government has done everything to keep the work going in the plants that produce ammunition, but, nevertheless, many of them are shut down. Owing to the lack of rolling stock, transportation is not good. Locomotives and cars needing repairs are unable to cope with the repairs. "In order to increase production in Russia, the Bolsheviks have already introduced the forms which existed prior to the socialization, particularly payment for the piece work, the premium system, etc. In short, parity of wages does not exist. "This lamentable picture of our industry's decay has led to terrible complications for the workmen on account of the great shortage of provisions and an enormous increase in prices. Bread (black bread), rye, bread, because there is no wheat left, costs 35 to 40 roubles per pound in Petrograd; sugar, 180 to 200 roubles per pound; butter, 140 to 150 roubles; tea, 200 roubles; men's footwear, 1200 to 1500 roubles per pair, etc. Horse meat costs 30 roubles per pound. In Moscow prices are about on the same scale. On the big market in Moscow dog meat is being sold openly, and the official Financial Gazette publishes statistics showing fluctuations in the price of such meat (5 to 7 roubles per pound). Even a box of matches costs between 3 1/2 and 4 roubles.

"On account of the shortage of provisions, fuel, soap and other commodities that are absolutely indispensable for the public health and welfare, contagious diseases are spreading everywhere. In Moscow, the official statistical bureau calculates 10,000 cases of contagious diseases per week; of that number 3000 cases are typhoid fever. In Petrograd 30 per cent of the patients in the communal hospitals die of ordinary consumption which is the result of famine.

"In Petrograd there are only 700,000 inhabitants left out of 2,500,000."

GOLD AND FRIENDSHIP FOR "CHARLIE" PAIGE

The prettily situated and well appointed grounds of the Martin Luther club in Tyngsboro were the scene yesterday afternoon of a happy and joyous gathering, the occasion being a reception and testimonial to Charles D. Paige, who relinquished his duties as auditor at city hall today.

It was the second reception to Mr. Paige within a few days, the municipal council and city hall employees having honored him on Tuesday by presenting him a purse of gold and adopting resolutions in which the council members expressed their appreciation of the auditor's long and faithful service. There were no resolutions adopted yesterday, but words were spoken that must have filled Charlie's big heart with that peculiarly delicious feeling called happiness. All of the 60 or 70 men present were his personal friends and while they presented him a purse of gold as a token of their friendship, it was their presence there that appealed to the man in whose honor the affair was planned.

But it was all a great big surprise to Mr. Paige and in unveiling him out there, his friend, Milo Hale, did a very fine job. He invited Mr. Paige out for a ride and Charlie suspected nothing until Milo turned his machine for the club grounds. When the club house came in view and Charlie saw the crowd, he realized that there was something doing and, in his quiet way, said to Milo: "I think I'm on." He didn't have long to think for he had no sooner ascended the steps to the club house than he was grabbed by uncountable hands and he said afterwards that he would soon be an adept at handshaking. And let it be said that Charlie, noted for his golden silence, is developing the art of speech-making. He made a very pretty little speech yesterday in reply to J. Joseph Hennessy, Mr. Paige's successor as city auditor, who presented the purse of gold in behalf of those present. The speakers included William H. Wilson, Esq., Robert W. Thompson, Judge Parker of Nashua and others.

The weather was ideal and the outing, promoted in the beginning by D. J. MacDougall and M. J. Markham, was a big success. The Lydon Catering company did the catering and there was the best of everything to eat and plenty of it. The trip to the grounds was made in automobiles, and it was what might very appropriately be termed "a splendid party."

Hot Tea and Frozen Cream Very Constipating

THERE is little inclination for solid food on a hot day. Cold drinks and ices, salads and pastry form much of the diet, especially among women. This lack of wholesome variety, however, interferes with proper digestion.

The result is biliousness, listlessness, dizzy spells. The cause is constipation. The stomach could not digest nor the bowels pass the day's strange mixture of food and drink.

A simple way of overcoming the trouble is this: If you have not already got Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house, go to a drug store and buy a 50c or $1 bottle. Take a teaspoonful tonight before you go to bed. It will act in the morning, and immediately thereafter your head will be clear and that feeling of oppression will be gone.

Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts on the stomach-muscles training them to do their work naturally so that medicines can be dispensed with. It is the most widely used laxative compound in the world. That means merit.

A free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 430 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

DR. CALDWELL'S Syrup Pepsin The Perfect Laxative

SEEKS $100,000,000 FOR BOSTON NAVY YARD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt told a committee representing the employees of the Boston Navy Yard yesterday that he would recommend an additional appropriation of $100,000,000 for the navy yards of the country when the house comes into session again in September.

The committee was accompanied by Congressman Fitzgerald who urged that all work done now by private contract should in the future be turned over to the navy yards. Mr. Roosevelt said that he hoped

"Of course Jack scolds, but he pays the bills, so what does it matter? American women are famous for their casual attitude toward money.—Mrs. Thetta Quay Franks.
(Specially Posed to Illustrate this Article by Dorothy Green, World Film Star.)

MRS. FRANKS, AMERICA'S BEST HOUSEKEEPER, WANTS BUSINESS METHODS IN THE HOME (Especially Written for The Sun)
BY MRS. T. Q. FRANKS,
Winner of Medal as America's Best Home Maker

Many a man has had occasion to say to his wife, "My dear, if I ran my business as you run your home, we should be bankrupt."
American men are noted for their business intelligence. The aim of what is called "American business methods" is to do things in the shortest time, for the least money and to the greatest practical perfection.

American women, on the other hand, are famous for their casual attitude toward money. "Of course, Jack scolds—men always do. But he pays the bills, so what does it matter?" they all too frequently say.

Just as there are essentials of good management in the man's world of business, so the woman's world, the home, has certain standards for efficient administration. These essentials are, in fact, practically the same, and the woman who applies them to the conduct of her home will have done her share in solving the national problems of the high cost of living and the conservation of health and human life.
A simple working analysis of "American business methods" would include the following points:
A successful business man knows the amount of his capital, whether it is invested with reasonable security, and what his prospects of advancement may be.

He handles his money through a reliable bank, using an accounting system by which he can conveniently tell his expenditures, surplus and outlook

Inside his own office, he maintains similar standards of system and integrity.

He has a personal knowledge of the details of his business, to check waste and to use possible labor saving device. He buys material in sufficient quantities, in the most economical manner possible, and at stated intervals "takes stock" to determine his needs for the future.

He guards the health and adequate fire protection, safety of his employees by heating, ventilating and lighting systems. He adjusts labor fairly, and sees that each employee knows what to do, how to do it, and is personally responsible for results.

He keeps informed of the working methods of others in his business and is willing to admit and adopt improvements.

The modern woman who adopts these methods will find it no easy task to learn the value of money, time and labor. Yet many ignore simple as well as economical ways of administering their own homes.

They pay little attention to the time saving and comfort of workers in their homes.

Finally, although eager to discuss isolated problems of "help," they do not thoroughly canvass the experiences of other women to aid in solving the fundamental problems of management and economy.

In my next talk, I shall discuss what is perhaps the most important business method to be adopted in the home—the budget—and suggest how to plan the family income to get the most health, pleasure and leisure from it.

RESCUES GIRL THEN DROPS DEAD

NORTH EASTON, Aug. 1.—Miss Grace Harlow, 23 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harlow, Main street, this town, after rescuing 12-year-old Grace McMullin in Long's pond yesterday, suffered a stroke of heart failure and sank before any one of the score of people on shore could go to her assistance.

Frank Mallin, hearing the cries from the people on shore while passing by, recovered the body in 15 feet of water.

Miss Harlow was a graduate of the Easton high school, Sargent's school of physical culture, Cambridge, and was spending her vacation from her duties as physical instructor at Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., with her parents. Miss McMullin became hysterical after going beyond her depth when she was rescued. Miss Harlow, after being stricken, sank in less than six feet of water, but her body rolled toward the middle of the pond.

shore while her sister drowned. Doctors, on examining the body, stated that the victim had died from heart failure and even though brought from the water before being suffocated, would have died. Besides her parents and sister she leaves a brother, former Representative Leo Harlow, one of Bristol county's best known barristers. General hospital. A severed spinal

REPORT ALLIED TROOPS MUTINY

Successes on Archangel Front Announced—Japanese Detachment Annihilated

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Success for the Bolsheviks in the Onega sector of the Archangel front, are reported in a Soviet wireless statement sent by Moscow.

This portion of the communique reads: "We have advanced 14 miles northward on the Onega. The advance was preceded by a rising of white regiment, who arrested resisting officers and handed them over to our side."

The statement bears date of July 31, and the rising reported appears to have been subsequent to the recent mutiny among the Russian troops on the Archangel front, reported by the British army authorities.

The Moscow message also reports unrest in Siberia. It claims that there is an insurgent front extending from Tashkent in Turkestan to Nikolayevsk, on the Amur. In the Amur region it is declared the insurgents annihilated a large detachment of Japanese recently. In addition, it is asserted, an important Bolshevik detachment is advancing from northern Siberia towards Tomsk.

SEES NO RELIEF FROM PRESENT HIGH PRICES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—No relief from present high prices is forecast in the federal reserve board's monthly review of business conditions issued today, which notes that July saw increases in many lines.

"In general," the review said, "there is a disposition to accept present price levels and to expect a continuation of the prevailing level for some time to come."

In many districts high prices have not served to check demand, but the possibility of obtaining goods is found to be of greater moment to the buyer than the price fixed. On the other hand, the board says, the "very great" price increases which have taken place in certain lines have made buyers more cautious, care being taken not to increase unduly stocks acquired at the present price level for fear a decline might occur.

Continued high prices, along with constant growth in trade, both wholesale and retail, and increased activity in some of the basic industries sustained confidence in the industrial situation and led to expansion in many lines. Almost the only complaints heard concern shortage of raw materials and, in a few districts, labor troubles, although a majority of the districts report normal labor conditions.

"Instead of a fear of unemployment, which had been expected during the early part of the year," the board said, "the reports received manifest the fear of an impending shortage of labor." The exodus of alien workers, was blamed in part.

The agricultural outlook, on the whole, was reported favorable, with indications that the cotton crop would be much shorter than previously indicated. Manufacturing continues active, marked advances in prices having occurred in cotton goods, with many mills oversold. Export orders are large. Raw wool still is in heavy demand and revival in building has continued.

Turning to the financial situation, the board declared that while speculation continued at an unprecedentedly high level, an investment demand for stocks has revealed itself, leading to the withdrawal of an unusual amount of shares from the market. The banking situation is reported sound, credit and collection conditions good and failures small and few.

BOOKKEEPER DISCHARGED AND CARMEN STRIKE

FALL RIVER, Aug. 1.—The management of the Swansea & Seaboard Street Railway Co., operating between this city and the Rhode Island line at East Providence, announced today that the strike of the employees of the road would become effective at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and that the last car from this city would be at 3.35 in the afternoon, running as far as the car house at Swansea Centre. The management also announced that service on the road would then be discontinued. The strike is the result of the refusal of the directors of the road to comply with the request of the employees to reinstate Mrs. Cath Bliss as bookkeeper at the headquarters office of the company in Swansea, the directors having combined the duties of bookkeeper and treasurer of the company in the appointment of a new official, to which the employees objected.

So urgent is the necessity of some British and American business men in England to reach America that they are now frequently offering from $250 to $500 for holders of early steamship sailings to give up their berths.

TAHANA'S DAUGHTER

Tells Little Girls About Indian Girls' Clothes

To Readers: Princess Nacomee is the daughter of Chief Tahana whose Indian stories have been such a hit with Sun boy readers. Her stories are authentic accounts of woman and child life among the Indians written especially for Lowell girls and published in The Sun only.

EDITOR.

BY PRINCESS NACOMEE

Of the Kiowa Indian Tribe

I want to tell you girls something about the beautiful things the Indian girls were taught to make. Every girl learned to make her own clothing. She was never troubled about fashions, for these never changed, neither did the material. She helped her mother tan the skins of the deer so that they were soft as cloth. One dress would last for many years. When a girl grew too big for the dress, a sister or a friend felt her to it. Then she made another for herself.

But she never thought that she had to squeeze her body out of shape to make herself look beautiful. Her clothes were so made that her limbs and body were left perfectly free for her out-of-door work. No doubt that is one of the reasons the girls and women were so healthy. My own buckskin dress is an exact pattern of my aunt's.

of the dress, they always made it look as beautiful as possible. The girl had but few tools to work with. A small pointed bone for a needle, sinew from the leg of a deer or buffalo for thread, and a knife were all that she needed. With the knife she cut out the dress. With the bone needle and the sinew she sewed it, and worked her bead pattern upon it; and the patterns always stood for something. For instance, if she worked a bead cross, it was a prayer to the powers of the four ways—the east, the west, the north and the south. The circle was usually a prayer to the sun. The colors of the beads, too, meant much to her, in fact everything she did was a prayer. But that was before the old ways of the Indian were destroyed by the new ways of the white man.

The girl, herself, of course, always tried to look beautiful. Those of different tribes had their own way of dressing the hair. The girls of our own prairie tribe plaited theirs in two braids, one on each side of the head.

They tried, too, to make their faces look nice, and the way they put the paint on had a deep meaning. For instead of trying to conceal the paint they wore, they wanted everyone to see it.

When a girl became old enough to think about getting married, she wore a circle of red in the centre of her forehead. This was to show that she was an "unspoken-for blessing." So, you see, instead of wearing a ring on her finger after she was engaged, she wore it on her forehead before that important event.

THRIVES ON "NOT SUFFICIENT FUNDS"

BY JUDGE THOS. P. GRAHAM

(San Francisco Divorce Judge known as "Great Reconciler," and America's Leading "Heart" Specialist.)

We now come to one of the most difficult problems of the divorce court—the pay envelope. In practically every case I have heard during the past decade—and I'd hate to tell you how many there were—husb's income and what he did with it figured more or less prominently.

It doesn't always appear in the complaint, answer or testimony—but one will usually find, upon close investigation, that money is the root of the divorce evil.

"Not sufficient funds." All too frequently have these three words sounded the death knell of a romance. Not sufficient funds for what? For the husband to earn and spend with, at the same time trying to keep his family going at the rate his normal income would permit and deceiving the wife as to the actual state of his finances?

For the wife to buy expensive millinery, wearing apparel and "pretties" to which her husband's earnings in no way entitle her?

For husband, again, to "lend" judiciously and never get it back; or to "invest" in wildcat enterprises and watch it disappear?

For wife, once more, to waste at the butcher's and baker's and grocery store by extravagant purchases of fancy delicacies or misadventures and misconceptions of the needs of her household?

For husband and wife, attempting to dissipate in a vain endeavor to buy social prestige, or business success, by keeping pace with a "set" or "gang" who have dollars where they have dimes?

To fritter away, in other words, with no thought save that of "having a good time," or "being a good fellow," or "putting up a front?" Are those, in your household, some of the things for which there are "not sufficient funds?"

If so, I cannot advise you too urgently to quit! Either quit the foolish expenditures or quit the marriage game—dissolve the partnership—go your separate ways.

You are never going to make a go of it if you play it with that kind of cards. You are not even going to give your children, or your friends, or the world, a square deal!

Don't you see what a fearful mistake you are making?

In this world you simply get "so much for so much"—and the only way to get more, is to earn more, and save more.

Who is going to think better of you, your husband, because you gamble away your income and stay out late of nights? Nobody but the "good fellows" who live on the proceeds of your folly.

Who is going to admire your friend wife, when you are decked out in finery which every one knows—oh, yes, they do!—that you cannot afford? Nobody—not even the merchants who sell them to you. If you don't pay your bills promptly.

Who is going to thank you, friend husband, for those "loans" and "investments" you made so impudently—the man who profited by your rashness? Nobody! They will merely laugh at you and brand you as a "sucker"—an "easy mark."

Does the butcher, or the baker, or the grocer, "prosper" you, friend wife, when you over-buy, or spend your surplus on luxuries? Not they! Their respect is reserved for the woman who chooses her means to suit her purse—when she can afford and does not quarrel with anything more expensive.

As for this joint idea of "keeping up with Lizzie"—the sooner you drop that, the better. Let your friends know just how far you can go and still remain solvent—and sane. If they are real friends they will respect your limitations and your courage and frankness in announcing them.

Best of all, you'll never land in the divorce courts on a charge of "Not Sufficient Funds," nor of extravagance. Instead, you will have the laugh on hundreds who do, every day in the year.

SECOND GAME OF SERIES TOMORROW

Manager Jimmy Reynolds of the D. & M. car shops team says tomorrow's game with the C.M.A.C. at Spalding park will wind up the series and the railroad boys may tug out in a bunch of new duds on Sunday. It's the second game of the big series for a purse of $100, not to mention a flock of side bets and it's a cinch that an overbowed crowd will be on hand when the rival clubs take the field.

Reynolds will trot out Wheeler and White as his battery, while the C.M.A.C. is expected to use Hubert on the peak, with Mitchell catching him. The first game of the series, played a couple of weeks ago, slipped into the 10-0, but bags by the score of 3 to 0, but the C.M.A.C. has dark designs on prolonging the series to three games and it will be a tight contest no matter how you look at it. The umpire will call time at 3 o'clock sharp and between 2 and 3 o'clock special cars will run to the park from Merrimack square.

POSTAL CO. CUTS RATES

Government Returns Wires to Private Owners—No Change in Rates by W. U.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—With control of the telegraph systems of the country formally relinquished by the government at midnight, a reduction of 20 per cent. in rates has been made immediately on the lines of the Postal company, but the Western Union will retain the schedule put into effect after Postmaster General Burleson took control, on April 1.

GIRL BALL PLAYERS IN THE LIMELIGHT

Local amateur baseball teams may well view with alarm the increasing amount of interest centering about the newly organized girls' baseball league at the Community Service club. Not that the girls are going to step in and usurp all of the public acclaim, but they are going to demand and receive their share, you may tell the world that.

taken in connection with the relinquishment today of federal control of the telephone and telegraph systems. practice games staged on the school campus. Co. G, the Goat-Getters, hooked up with Co. B, the Battling Beauties, and before the six innings had gone into history the G-G's had the Beauties' goat all tied up and won out by the score of 2 to 1. Persons expecting to see any football or cricket scores hung up in these games are going to get knocked for a row of eggs.

thereafter, elimination and consolation games will be played until the club championship is decided. Miss Cronin and Miss Jentelson, recreational directors, will umpire the games and official scorers will be appointed later. A meeting of the team captains will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock for a serious discussion of the league rules and regulations.

Miss Violet Guerrieri

REQUESTS COURT TO HELP COLLECT "LOVE CHECK," DOES VIOLET GUERRIERI

Just prior to his death from influenza the fiancé of Miss Violet Guerrieri of San Francisco gave her a check for $1000 as "a present of love."

Payment on the check, Miss Guerrieri says, was stopped by the dead man's brother-in-law, executor of the estate. The young woman has appealed to the courts for an order which will nullify the alleged action of the executor.

NOT THEIR FAULT THAT THEY'RE LIVING TODAY

Here's a British father and son who lived through the war, but it isn't their fault. Sir Henry B. Rowell, the father, head of the Hawthorn Shipbuilding Co. at Newcastle-on-Tyne, built 32 battleships for England's navy, and was a member of the ministry of munitions and advisory council on British shipping. Twelve of his closest associates, all middle-aged men, dropped dead under the strain. He kept on working. The son, Capt. B. Rowell, had the riskiest job in England—senior experimental pilot for the air ministry. It was his task personally to try out all new types of airplane and see if they would work. If they didn't—but Capt. Rowell never thought of that.

STRIKE IN GERMANY

Trouble Results From Refusal to Release Radical
Hunger Strikers

BERLIN, (British Associated Press).—Since the recent defeat of the revolution of the independent socialists in the national assembly at Weimar, efforts for the release of radical hunger strikers, the Spartans and communist leaders in the coal area have taken matters into their own hands. The employees at the Biersdorf mine struck today. Dodgers are in circulation calling for a strike in the entire Ruhr district.

The Spartans now demand, in addition to the release of the hunger strikers, the removal of martial law. The situation is critical, because coal is Germany's greatest need.

CHICAGO RIOTS AT END

6000 Troops in Full Control
—Death List 32—Whites Barred From Black Belt

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—With state troops in full control in the black belt of Chicago, the rioting that terrorized that section for four nights was pronounced by state and city officials at an end today. Deaths since the night at the 29th street bathing beach on Sunday, total 18 negroes and 11 whites. Officers of the 6000 troops in the riot zone were under orders not to relax their vigilance and to act promptly and decisively at the first renewal of outbreaks. During the night, several calls were made for troops at points within the zone and in some instances shots were fired. The night, however, developed no serious disorders. A circular issued by leading negroes is being distributed by thousands. It reads:

Advice Negroes to Obey Orders.
"Attention, law-abiding citizens: The rioting is over, so go back to work and help the police keep the situation in hand by not congregating on the streets. Avoid all inflammatory remarks. Obey police orders."

Supplies were taken into the riot area today. No fresh meat or vegetables have been on sale there for five days. In order that the babies might not suffer, City Controller Harding sent 2000 bottles of milk into the district. The negroes began preparations to return to their jobs at the stockyards and other points.

"White Folk Barred"
Numbers of curious persons sought to visit the scenes of the outbreaks, some afoot and others in automobiles. In every instance the soldiers directed them to depart forthwith. "White folk barred," was the greeting curious persons met.

SODA SHOP MEN BEHIND IN TAXES

Despite the warning published in this paper last Thursday, informing proprietors of ice cream parlors and soda fountains that they are liable to a severe penalty if delinquent in making federal tax returns for the month of May at the deputy collector's office in the local postoffice building, many soda men have failed to "come across," according to Deputy Collector Russell Harrington.

The delinquents are now 10 days behind on the returns for May, and Harrington states that there are also many soda men who are now delinquent for the months of both May and June, as the returns for the latter month were due yesterday.

That the delinquency is due to a misunderstanding is Mr. Harrington's belief. Many local soda men have turned in their returns at the Boston office, and others have made good with the local collector, but there are many who evidently have failed to realize that the time is up. Revenue officials are soon to conduct a campaign through the state to collect these and other "luxury" taxes if the delinquents do not come to life in the near future.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. John Chodorowsky and Miss Mary Kokolska were married July 25 by Rev. G. B. Marston, the ceremony being performed at his home, 9 May street. The couple will make their home in this city.

MANY MEN GET SERVICE BUTTONS

The local army recruiting station is doing a rushing business in the distribution of buttons to Lowell men who served in the army in the world war and have been honorably discharged. In the past two days no less than 100 men have received the coveted emblems.

Private Franz, a member of the local station's recruiting staff, who held the rank of Lieutenant in the war but whose rank was demoted owing to the return of the army personnel to its peace time basis, has learned that he will be entitled to wear a stripe of forest-green on his sleeve as a designation that he held a commission during the war.

For U. S. Mandate

Butaria in this region, because of uncertainty as to the disposition of the mandates for the government of territories in the near east. The reports of the commission entrusted with the delineation of the Bulgarian boundaries are conditioned upon what disposition is to be made of Turkey and consequently the general disposition is to await decisions on this point, which are regarded as resting chiefly with the attitude of the American public towards the acceptance by the United States of a mandate in Asia Minor.

The proposed withdrawal of British troops from Asiatic Turkey renders the unsettled conditions recently reported there more alarming, in the opinion of members of the peace conference, who regard the danger of serious military movements and general anarchy in Asia Minor as not at all remote and as constituting probably the most disquieting situation in the present world crisis.

Expressions by conferees have made it apparent that desire for acceptance by the United States of the mandate over Armenia is becoming keener every day among the delegates of the principal powers, but the American delegation is making no promises whatever, as President Wilson made it clear before leaving Paris that the action of the United States would depend upon the senate. It is known that the British and French delegates feel that America's decision to undertake a mandate in Asia Minor would immediately quiet the Turks, who are bitterly opposed to the European powers.

In some circles it has been rumored that the Persians are assisting the Turks in carrying up disorders in Asia Minor, but there is no proof of this in Paris, and many of the conference members feel that the Persians are having sufficient troubles of their own and that they would be unable to lend a hand to a general Mohammedan movement against the western powers even if they desired to do so.

Virtually all other controversies in the peace conference have been overshadowed for the moment by the Turkish situation, as many of the delegates will mean that neglect of it indefinitely will mean that Turkey may again overrun the Balkans and continue as a trouble maker in the near east.

THE PASSING OF THE WAVERLY HOTEL

Auctioneer John Farrell and scores of bargain hunters invaded the Waverly hotel today and began the task of stripping that well known hostelry of every vestige of its former glory. The sale was begun at 10 o'clock and was still in session at the time of going to press.

Second hand dealers, hotel men, lodging house keepers and others swarmed in and actually took the place by storm, but there were not as many "bargains" perhaps as they expected. The big drive seemed to be for mattresses and the springs that supported them. The sale was started upstairs and the auctioneer gradually worked his way down to the street floor.

There are men in Lowell and elsewhere who like to go to funerals. There are men in Lowell and elsewhere who never miss an auction. About all of Lowell's auction fans were present at the Waverly hotel sale, not because they wanted to buy anything, but just to be counted "among those present."

There was some fairly good stuff disposed of, likewise a miscellaneous collection of rather dilapidated and nondescript articles, that have been part and parcel of the Waverly since the days of Jack Derby.

There was a similar auction at the

PRETTY CHICAGO MERMAIDS

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Of course, everybody rooted for the two prettiest girls in the race, and of course, with such support they won. And here they are with the smile of victory. It was an unofficial preliminary to the Eleventh Annual Chicago River Marathon. Four girls who wanted to enter the big swim were barred out but permitted to cover the course a half hour earlier. Flo Gaither, at the left, and Helen Miller, right, were first and second in this contest.

WAITING PRICE LISTS FOR FOODSTUFFS

The price lists covering the 341,000,000 pounds of foodstuffs valued at $125,000,000—which are to be placed on sale during the next few days by the war department through the post-offices of the country had not been received by Postmaster Meehan of the local office at the time of going to press today. The postmaster believes that the list will arrive either late tonight or early tomorrow, and will be made public upon its receipt. The carriers will then each be given copies, and will be ready to take orders from Lowell housewives who wish to order a supply of food at rock bottom prices from Uncle Sam.

Among the goods to be sold in this manner are staple groceries and canned goods, such as corned beef, roast beef, bacon, peas, beans, tomatoes, corn and other necessities of a well-stocked pantry. Now is the time for municipal food committees, city purchasing agents and co-operative buying clubs of citizens to take advantage of the opportunity to buy large supplies of foodstuffs at the lowest possible price, says the postmaster.

Housewives upon receipt of the lists which every mailman in the city will be supplied with as soon as they are issued may make her selection of a dozen cans of this or that commodity and by sending a government money order to cover the purchase and the cost of delivery via parcel post—she will receive her allotment.

The postoffice department's special money order blank will be redeemable at any postoffice or substitution if the would-be purchaser's order reaches the supply base nearest his or her home later after the last case of goods is sold. There will be no distinction in the selling, and everybody will have a chance to buy—that is, everyone to whom the mailman delivers the order-blank and price lists.

RESIGNATION OF CHAIRMAN OF TARIFF COMMISSION ACCEPTED BY PRESIDENT

MORE TROOPS ARRIVE

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Five generals and 5795 men of the Fourth Division arrived from Brest today on the M.V. Vernon. The generals were Maj. Gen. Mark L. Hersey, commanding the division and Brig. Gens. Francis C. Marshall, Benjamin A. Moore, Marcelinus G. Spinks and Maline Craig.

REVERE HOUSE, BOSTON, A FEW DAYS AGO

when auctioneers and prospective buyers invaded the famous "Royal suite," which has sheltered in its day such personages as the Prince of Wales (later King Edward), Daniel Webster, Patti, Christine Nilson, Grand Duke Alexis, King Kalakaua and the Hungarian Don Pedro.

The Waverly hotel could not boast of such famous personages, but once upon a time a man stopped there who registered as "Lord Duke Mullaackeack." That was years ago and the "Lord Duke" went away owing his hotel bill and a lot of other bills. He was a crook of the first water, and Lowell people whom he swindled with an old-fashioned film-flam game never got any return for their money. He succeeded in evading the police, too.

But while the nobility, artists and others of renown never slept beneath the hospitable roof of the Waverly hotel, it was a well known hostelry and it was known throughout the country especially because of the quality of the food served there. No public house in the country served better steaks and chops, and that was its reputation to the end.

THE OLD TIME GUESTS

Many of the men who patronized the hotel for years occupied seats in the office today and one could almost experience a feeling of sadness as they spun yarns of former days. It was plain to be seen that they felt the passing of the hotel and the blotting out forever of memories that were more or less interesting because of incidents and conditions; the banquets, the political rallies, the New Year's eve and other parties, and last but not least, the many interesting and enlightening arguments peacefully indulged in when the bloom was on the clover and prohibition in the cradle.

In one of the chairs sat a fellow who had made the Waverly his home for 15 years; his home to the extent that he took his meals and spent considerable of his leisure time there. He smoked a cigar and tried to look unconcerned, but it wasn't hard to detect a bid of sadness in his voice and when somebody asked the names of the men in a group picture hanging on the wall he recited off the names with an ease born of familiarity and good fellowship. Some of those whose names he called have passed on. Business men and legislators were included in the group and the man who knew them all said to a friend a little later: "Bld that picture in for me. I must go now, but be sure and get me the picture." And this particular picture was not the only one that sold on sentiment.

The Waverly was always very popular with tourists and two automobile parties called today while the sale was on. They were grieved and disappointed to learn that the hotel and its famous steaks, chops and lobsters were no more.

TO END PENNY GRAFTING

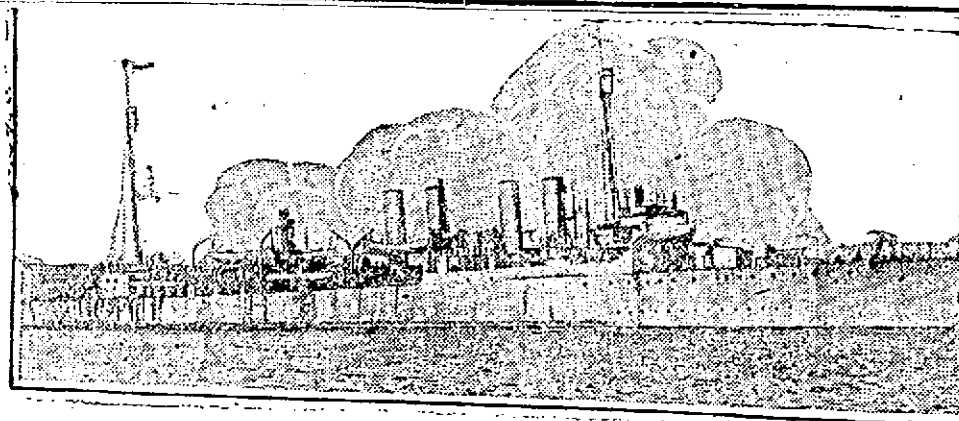

H. C. L. Probers to Make Dishonest Merchants Come to Hub and Explain

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 1.—Penny profiteering is apt to prove expensive for many small business men, particularly grocers and small wages dealers, if the plans of the state commission to investigate high prices is carried out.

Bakers and grocers who add a single penny to the cost of a loaf of bread are the chief offenders being sought and many of them—hundreds of them, in fact, all over Massachusetts—are apt to be summoned to appear before the commission. They will be obliged to pay their carfare to Boston from their home and also the expenses of the return trip, not to speak of the money it will cost to pass the day in the capital and the loss of their day's work. Some of them are apt to be asked to appear a number of times, so that explaining the penny extra profit they graft off their customers is likely to require an outlay of from $5 to $25. That is one of the plans the commission has in mind for putting an end to the petty graft involved in those transactions, and in numbers of instances it has come to the attention of the inquiry board that the penny profit is not levied impartially on all customers, but that some few are selected as visitors. Generally these are the "outlanders" while the townspeople get away at a cheaper rate.

Another form of petty graft that will require explanation is the charge of the luxury tax on soft drinks up to the customer. It so happens that milk shakers, eggs drinks and many other drinks sold over the soda fountains are not subject to the tax. The proprietors, however, have charged the tax indiscriminately on all drinks, reaping a veritable harvest in some of the stores. Some of the largest dealers in the state are likely to be caught up on that charge and it is apt to be a serious matter for them, since the law of this year provides that the attorney general may act in case of "unreasonable" price fixing. Charging up a federal tax on articles that are not taxable, simply because others sold at the same counter are, constitutes the misdemeanor of obtaining money under false pretences and is very apt to result in criminal action.

NEW FLUSH DECK DESTROYER

NEW YORK, Aug.—Here is the new flush deck destroyer, the latest type to be added to the American navy. It's considerably more formidable than the little flat-bottoms that chased torpedo-boat destroyers at the beginning of the war. This one is the Sprotson, and it's to be a unit of the Pacific fleet.

The rent profiteers everywhere are on the list of those to be given the once-over, although it is admitted that there is small chance of doing more than "show them up" unless it so happens that they were foolish enough to act in concert with other really operators to boost rents. Then men who used tax increases as the excuse for rent-raises are to be put on the rack for explanations. Those who have suffered an $18 or $20 tax-increase and proceeded to raise rents $30 to $40 a year are very likely in consequence of the inquiry to secure a lot of free advertising which may interfere with their future popularity.

These are only a few of the things that are to be investigated, but assurance is given that there will be plenty of others. It is the penny profiteer, however, who is in for the worst grilling, and, from the number of complaints that are coming in, the commissioners are being encouraged to "go as far as they like" and then some more.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

THE STRAND

"My Little Sister," the photoplay made from a novel which has accomplished real reforms, and with Evelyn Nesbit in the principal part, was shown for the first time yesterday at The Strand, and proved a most convincing argument against the toleration of white slavery in any of its forms. It is a production that goes straight to the heart. Its argument cannot be impeached. It is one of the greatest pictures of the day. Jimmy Wehlen, in most attractive star, is also seen in "Fools and Their Money," a satire on the newly rich and their penchant for climbing the social ladder. This combination of pictures proves unbeatable. But in addition there is shown The Strand weekly and a comedy. Mildred Edford, the talented singer, gives several songs and the organ recital is a deservedly popular feature.

"OPEN YOUR EYES," STORY OF UNFORTUNATE GIRL, AT HER-RODACK SQUARE THEATRE

The luscious cocktail plays an important part in "Open Your Eyes," the sensational photoplay prepared under the supervision of the United States public health service.

The luscious cocktail has played an important part in the life of many a young girl, whose curiosity had been aroused by hearing the drink spoken of more or less familiarly. And in the foolish desire to be thought one of the "cool" girls she tries one.

Now, it is quite doubtful if any person really liked their first cocktail, especially those of the heavier sort, the taste is an acquired one, in most instances, and lucky the frivolous young lady whose stomach will not permit her to indulge in more than one. But the strange taste of the drink, which ordinarily causes a shiver to follow the first one, leads to the substitution of something else on the next round, and in many cases the substitute is champagne. After that moderation is sent flying.

The particular young girl whose case is illustrated in "Open Your Eyes" has been brought up wrong from the start. Her mother, a butterfly of fashion, has practically neglected the girl, who, left to her own resources for amusement, has fallen into the company of a rather fast crowd of young people. Then comes the foolish, wealthy aunt, who supplies him with money for his dissipation. His personality appeals to the young girl and, unknown to her mother, she accepts an invitation to a roof garden where dancing is followed by an elaborate lunch, which starts with the cocktail and winds up with wine. In the gilded cage in which the young rake installs her, she has ample time to reflect upon her folly and, being a sensible girl, is wise enough to reform.

READING ADS IS THRIFT

Is it worth while to save money and time? Money in many cases is the product of time and labor. The average working man has three things to sell, his skill, his industry, and his time. If he is not industrious for his employer his skill won't amount to anything and he will not be wanted. The stores that advertise keep busy in a quick turnover of stock. They believe in quick sales and small profits.

It is a good conclusion to follow, that the stores enterprising enough to advertise are also making an asset of good service at their counters. The mere fact that they advertise is an assertion that they have quality goods worth advertising. Here, then, is the proposition. If you patronize a store that is an enterprising advertiser, you will be doing business with a firm selling a good quality of merchandise and you will probably save time, money and trouble. It certainly pays to follow the ads in

THE R. R. BROTHERHOODS

That is rather an alarming statement made by William G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen when he predicts that something in the nature of a revolution is imminent in this country, if radical steps be not taken to reduce the high cost of living. Let us hope it is not a threat. It is perhaps to his credit to say that "all of us are to blame because we are exerting every effort to get more money for ourselves and better conditions."

In spite of this admission, he charges the high cost of living to profiteers which is not entirely true. Everybody knows that the inflation due to the war and to our great loans help to put up prices, or in other words, to depreciate the currency. There is no doubt but that profiteers are in part responsible for the high prices of some commodities, but when it comes to profiteering and stern demands upon employers, there is no trust in the country that is more responsible for present conditions than the several Brotherhoods of Railroad Trainmen.

In the past they have enforced their demands for higher wages by threatening to tie up the transportation business of the country; and now they come forward with another proposition which amounts to the same, which is that unless the cost of living is pushed downward by government intervention, the railroad trainmen must get a radical increase in wages.

The high cost of living is not pressing nearly so hard upon the Brotherhoods as upon other crafts and even upon many manufacturing concerns and employers who find their profits taken away in high taxes, leaving perhaps less than some laborers earn or receive in wages.

The race riots at Washington and Chicago have stirred up racial strife in other sections, a thing which is most regrettable but this has nothing to do with the high cost of living. It is an element of disturbance, however, that must be taken care of and strictly held in check. The high cost of living has made people restive and if the government can do anything to reduce the high prices or to stop the upward tendency it should lose no time in attending to that business.

SHANTUNG CLEARING

The Japanese explanation of the Shantung affair seems to remove much of its terror as an international bogey. Japan states that she has not yet received all the papers from Germany transferring her former claims to a portion of China, and that until she does, she cannot say with certainty whether there is any leased territory in addition to the Kiaochow concession. Japan has already promised to return this territory to China but it seems that she has imposed conditions with which China may not be willing to comply; but China did not dictate terms to Germany. Japan is pledged to return Kiaochow to China if not within six months, certainly within a year. That promise was made in 1915 in the treaty with China and the Japanese authorities do not feel that they are under any obligation to make a special declaration to the United States. China is refusing to sign the peace treaty, has complicated the matter, and should the United States also refuse, this country would then seem to be the champion of China as against

Japan and would thereby incur the displeasure of Japan.

In this connection it must be remembered that Mexico is ready to call in the aid of Japan in case the United States should decide to restore order or stable government in that disturbed country.

Thus the Shantung affair is not an American question, and if we get involved in it we are needlessly laying up future strife.

Those who oppose the treaty on account of the Shantung affair seem to be seeking trouble in a quarter in which President Wilson tried to avoid it.

It seems the treaty of 1915 between Japan and China stands in the same relation to the treaty and to the United States as the treaty of London, both of which were negotiated before we entered the war.

AN ABJECT COWARD

It is sometimes hard to explain the apparent inconsistency of official action even in the sentences meted out by military courts. Here we have a young man known as Lieut. Stone, sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment for having on four separate occasions deserted his men under fire and run to the rear in the most abject and cowardly manner. So flagrant and so outrageous was his conduct on these occasions that when some of the men whom he deserted, met him in Paris after the armistice, they fell upon him and gave him a severe beating. Desertion at a time when by so doing he exposed his company to danger and that actually resulted in several deaths, deserves the severest punishment. Yet it seems that we remember some boys who left Camp Devens without permission and remained absent a few days, getting a heavier sentence than was given to this coward who disgraced the Yankee Division when called into action on the battlefield. Had Lieut. Stone received the treatment that he deserved, he would have been set up in front of a firing squad and riddled.

THE MOONEY CASE

It would be a great relief to the people of this country if the Mooney case were finally disposed of. Repeated investigations have shown that there were some irregularities in the trial and some trumped up evidence that seemed to be unjust and upon which no man should be sent to the electric chair. Now comes John B. Densmore, director general of the United States employment service, with fresh evidence of unfair methods in the Mooney trial. Yet instead of asking that these be submitted to a judicial body, Senator Sherman of Illinois, the chief fire eater of the senate, makes a bitter attack upon Densmore. It seems to us that this case should be disposed of in the regular course of judicial procedure rather than by haphazard discussion in the United States senate or even in the newspapers.

HAYWARD OUT AGAIN

The announcement that William D. Hayward, the I. W. W. leader, convicted of disloyal utterances and sentenced to 20 years in a federal prison, is out on bail, will surprise those who know his proclivities. Just why he should be set at liberty at this time has not yet been explained. People in this vicinity know Hayward and they know his methods of leading to violence and organizing industrial disturbances. Hayward it appears is now starting on a speaking tour of the country, possibly intending to pursue his old tactics, but the government will be held responsible for permitting him or anybody else to preach Bolshevism in any form in this country. We have already tolerated too much of that stuff.

POLITICS FIRST

While the work of reconstruction demands attention throughout the country, congress, and particularly the senate, is devoting its time chiefly to muckraking in search of political issues for the campaign of 1920. Instead of grappling with the problems of reconstruction, the senators are delving into the records of the war, trying to find evidence of extravagance and mismanagement. Thus far, they have not been able to discover anything of importance, nor do we believe they will find what they want should they continue their crusade to the end of the year.

TRYING THE EX-KAISER

Most people are of the opinion that it would be poor policy to try the ex-kaiser in London or any other British city. It would save too much of the old Roman custom of having vanquished kings and princes paraded as captives and forced to pass under the yoke amid the jeers and jubilation of the populace. Moreover, if the ex-kaiser is to be tried for causing an unjust war, there are several ruling sovereigns of great prominence who might, with equal justice, be proceeded against on similar grounds.

The war has been fought and won. The expenses were enormous, but the nation demanded quick and decisive action. That was what brought speedy victory and promptly terminated the terrific struggle. If the red tape methods of doing business were departed from in some instances, it was not without good reason; and whether the republicans can show extravagance or blunders the people care but little now. They are not interested in what is beyond recall. If mistakes were made in the conduct of the war, they cannot now be remedied any more than can the blunders and mismanagement of the Spanish-American war, which was but a mere skirmish compared with the struggle overseas.

When the good ship Tulsa, named for one of Oklahoma's thriving boom cities, was launched the other day at Hog Island, the delegation of christeners from Oklahoma announced that the baptismal liquid instead of the customary champagne, would be the state's proudest product, crude oil. So crude oil it was. But it is not recorded that the thousands of persons whose names are on the lists of promoters selling fake oil stock to get-rich-quick "suckers," worked up any great amount of enthusiasm over Tulsa's renunciation of high browed booze in christening.

When some birds leave their native environment they take on different habits and many times "put on airs." Former Congressman Joe Bailey of Texas, departing for his duties at Washington for the first time, is reported to have told the boys back at home that he would never wear a dress suit. He wanted 'em to know he was a Plebeian. Well, in the course of time the Texans "swapped bosses" and let someone else have Joe's Washington job. Joe now, however, lives in a young palace in Washington, wears full dress suits on the slightest provocation and rides about in a limousine.

Loving hearts in Massachusetts learn while former Governor Foss was pined for money during the past year and many rumors that he was insolvent spread about, the Boston News Bureau has officially announced "Gene was never actually insolvent. Dean Archer of Suffolk law school will be glad to learn this good news, too."

There is a question as to whether or not we can view Europe's future with enthusiasm. Europe now owes the United States $10,000,000,000 and says if we would lend her $10,000,000,000 she thinks she could get on her feet. We are a humane people all right over here but how long are we going to be able to stay in this business of advancing cripples?

If you take a trip to the Argentine this fall, you will be glad to find that the American dollar has reached par. In other words, you can buy as much with an American dollar down there as you can with the Argentine dollar or the equivalent, and we wouldn't be surprised if an American dollar would buy more in the Argentine than it would in the United States.

Ironically enough up to date there doesn't seem to be any law that reaches the case of that Wisconsin brewer who, sending out his pamphlets for patrons, has a printed label posted on the bottle which reads, "Don't mix yeast with this beer or it will be intoxicating."

SEEN AND HEARD

Pensions and bonuses are the silver linings of war clouds.

"If people didn't have hobbies the world would cease to revolve."

Spies are the silver plated knives. They look bright but are usually dull.

Mrs. George Volker of San Francisco, Cal., wants a divorce because George is too obedient. Quarrels always ended by her ordering him to leave home, she said. One day he obeyed orders.

Living wouldn't have been so uncomfortable if nature had fixed it so one could shovel snow off his sidewalk in summer, and mow the lawn in winter.

A western Kansas farmer appeared in Kansas City and when somebody mentioned the League of Nations, asking him where folks in his neck of the woods stood on the question replied:

"Oh, we ain't got no time to pay 'tension to them baseball leagues."

And a New York east-sider, applying for citizenship after a ten-year residence, gave the leading nations of the world as—

New York, Wilson, Europe, Germany, Jersey and Long Island."

Yes, indeed, "life is a curious mixture of things."

"Yes, it was a funny note in those days," remarked Mr. What'll B. Hiss-nome, August 16 1919: Why I just read in a history about the race riot they used to indulge in on days when there were no bull fights or prize fights. And they used to hang people and they used to let some men pull down a million dollars a year and keep others in what they called the 'poorhouse.'"

Turning the Tables

Much has been said about the alleged ability of a doctor to relieve the heavy feeling in a patient's purse, but it isn't often that a patient reciprocates, so to speak. It is because of the scarcity of such incidents that we print the following:

ST LOUIS, Mo.—Robert Warren, 21 was arrested here on complaint of Dr. Edward F. Studer, charged with stealing $17 and a check for $25 from the doctor's pocket as he was taking Warren's temperature at City hospital.

The Old Hay Hat

At this point of the calendar, the straw hats are beginning to limp. After actually since launching day as a garage for showers, hitching post for dust, and parking space for sun slants, the hay helmets are now as limber looking as a picnic salad plate. The next day. The alfalfa awnings have taken a couple of trips to the lid laundry, but their original snappy complexion is curled up like cabbage saw. You can't bring it back to its original state on the head. Draping a new band on the bleached bonnet to smack its appearance is like playing a fresh needle on a cracked record. All the sparrows have a nimble eye aimed at the timothy tents as futura bungalows for the winter.

Down There Somewhere

It was evening at the edge of a little French village—the only thing visible above the mud. The men, deeply disgusted, had been called out for "retreat." At the command "right dress!" there was much floundering about before the line slowly oscillated into a semblance of straightness. The company commander, suspicious of A. W.O.L.'s watched closely as the corporals reported their squads. Suddenly he interrupted: "Report your squad again, corporal!" he commanded.

"Twenty-fourth squad—present!"

"What do you mean by reporting all present, Judson?" shouted the captain. "You've only the men in the front rank."

"No sir,"

"No sir," retorted the corporal, in tones of extreme weariness. "That vacancy is 'Shorty' Maggs. He's in a mud hole."—Corp. Earl M. Rush, in Judge.

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B. BUTTINGHAM, 603 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

My friend, John F. Golden, speaks optimistically of the prospects for the erection of a permanent chapel at Lakeview and says that the preliminary arrangements are surely an augury of ultimate success. With the exception of Rev. Michael C. Gilbride, no one has exerted more personal effort or spent more time in the interest of the movement than Mr. Golden. He is never at the full tide of happiness unless he is engaged in some praiseworthy endeavor helping a meritorious cause. He has a style of organizing and seeing an idea through to its final analysis that is all his own and if there is not a lot of enthusiasm raised among a big crowd of hustlers for the chapel project it will not be the fault or the unselfish work of Mr. Golden.

The first of the checks due Lowell service men for the $100 gratuity granted by the state to every man who took part in the world war are due to arrive in this city from the office of State Treasurer Burrill, early next week. Preceding the checks themselves will come the discharge papers of the service men which had to be sent to Boston for purposes of verification of the statements made by the men on their application blanks. Many of these have already been sent back from Boston with the notice that the $100 check would follow in a few days. Lack of help and the overwhelming task before them proved a double disadvantage to the employees of the treasury office, but the task has been accomplished.

I notice that there is a proposition to repeal the tax on soft drinks, but I haven't seen any to lift the tax on medicines. Perhaps medicines are more "luxurious" than soft drinks. Or is it that the manufacturers and dealers in soft drinks can get this tax off while no one is interested in the removal of the tax on medicine, which the poorest citizen must have at times and which is even now abnormally high?

It is a very interesting sight to witness the boys and girls picking up wood at the building of the Lowell City Institution for Savings in Shattuck street, which is being demolished for the erection of a modern banking structure. A couple of mornings ago while going through Shattuck street I noticed no less than nine boys and seven girls gathering up the pieces of lumber that had been discarded and placing them in their little carts. Some were equipped with two-wheel carts, while others had small express wagons. In some instances the children had no conveyances of any kind, but carried the wood in their arms. I questioned one of the youngsters

AN INTERNAL TREATMENT FOR PILES (HEMORRHOIDS)

Gives absolute relief from all pain and suffering. Has never failed. Guaranteed.

Many people have become disappointed because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was no remedy for their case.

Go to your druggist and get an original bottle of Miro Pile Remedy, the discovery of a clever Ohio chemist, that taken internally, passes unchanged through the stomach and intestines, and thus reaches the source of the trouble where, by its soothing, healing, antiseptic action, it first allays and then by direct contact with the piles and piles causes them to heal and disappear forever.

It's positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Utter relief often comes in two or three days. Even in cases that have resisted all previously known treatments really wonderful results have been accomplished. It is one of the wonderful necessities of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

Just read what Mr. F. M. Smith of 2212 Broadway, Lorain, Ohio, says: "I gladly recommend Miro Pile Remedy for Piles. There is no equal to it. I suffered for 15 years and tried everything that was recommended. I doctor for 10 years and was a constant sufferer with bleeding piles. I took Miro Pile Remedy and was entirely cured. Any sufferer using it will need no regret it."

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it is worth the little expense to obtain a bottle of Piles forever.

IMPORTANT!—What is known as "Miro Pile Remedy" is not a true cure of Piles. It may accompany a true cure of Piles. For this condition Miro Pile Remedy has been prepared as in such cases it is necessary to take the internal prescription.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send a check or order to the Miro Pile Remedy Co., 1101 N. 1st St., St. Paul, Minn. Internal Treatment, $1.00. War Tax, 5c. Guarantee, Remedies Co., Elgin, Ill.—Adv.

OUTDOOR MOVIES AND COMMUNITY SING

Outdoor movies and singing attracted a large crowd to the South common last night, where an excellent program was put on under the direction of the city. The community singing which preceded the pictures was led by a member of the United States Cartridge Co. band, and he had no difficulty in bringing out a big volume of sound with a thousand kids for a nucleus. The picture show lasted an hour and a half, from 8.45 until about 10.15 o'clock.

INCOME TAX FRAUDS FARE INCREASE ALLOWED

English and O'Brien Get 18 Months and Fined $10,000 Each

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—After a battle of more than a year's duration to keep out of jail, the feature of which was an order to pay $150,000 to satisfy the claim of the internal revenue department against them, William A. English and John H. O'Brien, members of the firm of English & O'Brien, wool merchants, were each sentenced to 18 months in the Greenfield jail and to pay a fine of $10,000 by Judge George W. Anderson in the federal district court yesterday afternoon for conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the payment of income taxes.

Both defendants pleaded to the indictment early in June. The legal battle was in progress long before that time and had been pronounced, when Charles F. Choate, chief counsel for the defendants, moved for a stay of execution of the sentence, which was denied by Judge Anderson.

The only point which counsel for the defendants was able to gain in the case was the designation of the place of imprisonment, and even then it was only a partial victory. United States Attorney Thomas J. Boynton suggested the federal penitentiary at Atlanta in view of the importance of the case, which he declared was the biggest tax fraud case in the country, and because he desired the community and the defendants, too, to be impressed adequately.

Atty. Choate expressed surprise at the wish of the district attorney to send the defendants to Atlanta and pleaded for Plymouth so that the families of the two men might be near them and that they might also keep in closer touch with their business affairs. Because of the children of the defendants Judge Anderson decided against Atlanta, but favored Greenfield, which was Mr. Boynton's second choice.

English and O'Brien went to Greenfield last night in the custody of United States Deputy Marshals James A. Tighe and Bernard E. Bradley, leaving the federal building by the freight elevator to escape photographers.

Commission Consents to Three Months' Trial on Middlesex & Boston

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—The public service commission is of the opinion that the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway company should be allowed to put into effect, with some modifications, its proposed 10 cent fare schedule for a trial period of three months when it may be called upon to prove that the increase should continue.

The commission expresses the opinion that a readjustment of fare zones with a 5-cent fare "would seem to offer possibilities that would justify a trial." The company, according to the finding, expressed its willingness to try "any well considered plan which seemed preferable to the commission," but pending the consideration of such plan asked that the fares as filed be allowed to become effective. The company's inability to meet current expenses and taxes and the fact the employees are negotiating for a further increase of wages makes the demand for additional revenue "immediate and urgent," says the commission.

The commission says it is not optimistic in regard to the revenue that a 10-cent fare will produce, but does not feel justified in overruling the judgment of the company's officials.

The commission, in its finding made public early last evening at the state house, advises the company that the revenue received within the two fare zones on the main line between Newton Lower Falls and Framingham depot does not justify an increase of the 3 cents. It orders that tickets at the rate of six for 50 cents without transfer privileges should be made available on the two zones mentioned. The commission finds that any plan for readjustment on the Lexington and Boston division would involve a detailed study and probably could not be worked out in less than two or three months.

The new tariff, the commission says, subject to the modifications mentioned, will be allowed to become effective on two days' notice to the commission and the public with the understanding that the whole question be opened for review at the end of a three months' trial period. "With the burden of proof on the company I show at that time that the new fares should be permitted to remain in force."

TO TAKE CONTROL OUT OF HANDS OF GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Thursday, July 31 (By the Associated Press).—The international trades union congress resuming its sessions today, discussed rules for the new international. An endeavor to take control out of the hands of Germany, which hitherto dominated the international, is in the making.

The draft of the new rules contains a proviso giving one vote for every quarter million workers represented as against one for each million, as heretofore. The smaller nations would have a representative for any fraction of a quarter million workers.

A regular conference of the international federation will be held, every two years, the bureau to decide upon the place for holding the meeting.

FOSS MAY RUN FOR GOVERNOR

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Close political friends of former Governor Eugene N. Foss positively declared last night that the "Old Boy" would announce his candidacy for governor of the state today, on an independent ticket, with a brand new platform, advocating complete government ownership of railroads and railways.

When seen by a reporter early last evening at Rowe's wharf where he was boarding a Nantasket boat for his summer home in Cohasset, the governor denied that he was going to file papers today, but he declared that he would have a "big story for the paper tomorrow."

The former governor then issued a statement positively denying the previously printed report of his candidacy for attorney-general of the state. "Why, it's absurd to think that I would run for attorney-general," he declared. "That job is a lawyer's position and I am no lawyer. Please say for me that I never entertained an idea of running for attorney-general."

"I can say no more regarding my candidacy for governor tonight. I have been so busy with my mail from all over the state from big and little politicians urging me to run for a fourth time, that really I have no statement prepared."

"All I can say tonight is that I shall not file papers tomorrow, but I will have a most important story to give out tomorrow afternoon." The governor then waxed warm over the issue of government ownership of public utilities, especially the railroads and railways.

WAR DEPARTMENT HAS ANOTHER SERIOUS FIRE
THINGS TO SELL
AT MANCHESTER, N. H.
MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 1.—Another serious tenement house fire broke out here yesterday morning, driving 17 families from their homes.
The fire started in the house at Chestnut and Penacook streets shortly after 5 a. m. Miss Agnes McKenna, who lives in one of the tenements, aroused the other six members of her family and then aroused the other tenants. There were no casualties.
The loss is $3500. Although the fire was in another section of the city from that which was swept by the disastrous fire last week, the blaze yesterday morning caused considerable excitement, owing to the great number of wooden tenements in the district.

BOX MAKER CAME BACK
Mr. Frank P. Hoyt of 1 Coffee Ave., Haverhill, Mass., the well known box maker, suffered for quite a while with stomach trouble and catarrh. He was operated upon several years ago and since then has not felt entirely well. A short time ago, he heard of Goldine and went to the drug store for some. After taking the first bottle, he came back, saying he could eat better, and was having less trouble with gas. He believed it was helping him and said he was going to stick to it. A short time later he returned and said: "I am convinced that Goldine is a great medicine and it has surely helped me. I am telling the fellows in the shop about it."
Remember, GOLDINE is sold in Lowell by Carter & Sherburne, E. H. Butler & Co., W. P. Caluso, Jr., Fred Howard, Wm. B. Kiernan, Frank E. McNabb, Wm. H. Noonan, R. F. Webster, Frye & Crawford Co. COMMUNICATION
Lowell, July 31, '19.
Editor Sun:
I see on your editorial page of this date a quotation from the Daily News Record concerning the price of wheat. If I read correctly I saw it stated some months ago that congress had made an appropriation of one billion dollars to supply on the 1919 wheat crop which was estimated to be one billion bushels. Now if this is correct it would mean a reduction of five dollars per barrel for flour as it is estimated that it takes five bushels of wheat for a barrel of flour. During the war Canada was sending every energy in men and resources to assist the mother country, but at no time were the people of Canada paying anything like the prices we were paying for the necessities of life. They had a man by the name of Borden at the head of their food or sanitation who apparently did his whole duty. When we were paying one dollar a neck for potatoes they were being sold for less than that over bushels in Canada. You state that was selling in open market in Canada for 15 cents we paid 40 cents for here and butter and eggs in like proportion. It seems that we need a Borden in this country that will spend his time in this country looking after the interests of Americans and the labor. There is much said about the labor-

YANKEES INDIGNANT ON SUSPENSION OF MAYS

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Jacob Ruppert and T. L. Houston, owners of the New York American League club, expressed indignation yesterday when informed by Ban Johnson that he had indefinitely suspended Carl Mays, the pitcher New York procured yesterday from the Boston club for three players and a cost sum estimated at $40,000. Ruppert immediately telegraphed Johnson, asking him to revoke the suspension.

Johnson had two weeks to suspend Mays if he cared to," said Ruppert. "Why does he wait until we get him? Why does he make us suffer for a difference between Mays and the Boston club, when Boston was willing to discontinue the player to us, Johnson certainly must have heard of the negotiations as the players have been full of them, especially in Chicago."

Johnson did wire us on July 29 to the effect that six clubs protest to your director. We told him that we were for Mays. Knowing that both the Chicago and New York clubs were negotiating for Mays and that Boston was the party making the move, we were suspicious that several other clubs also had put in a bid for this valuable player, we wired back for him to name the six clubs protesting. We never got a reply to that telegram."

"The New York club was willing to invest quite a lot of money for Mays, because we felt he could put the New York club back in the race, and we bought Mays for the help we hoped he would give us immediately as the present is a crucial time for our club."

"The next two weeks, everything to the Yankees and if Mays is suspended during this period it will be a terrible blow to us. It was our intention to use him in the game against Detroit tomorrow."

In his telegram sent Johnson asking that Mays' suspension order be revoked, Ruppert said that, while the request was made in the friendliest spirit, "New York does not waive its legal right." He refused to explain this passage.

Ruppert denied a report from Boston that Derrill Pratt, second baseman of the New York Yankees, would be the third player to be sent to Boston in the Mays deal.

BIG REGATTA AT LAKE QUINSIGAMOND

WORCESTER, Aug. 1.—The 45th regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen was held over a mile and one-quarter course at Lake Quinsigamond today. The events will be completed tomorrow.

Weather conditions were heavy early in the day but the regatta committee announced that the races would be rowed regardless of terms. The water was choppy when a number of scullers and crews warmed up in practice sprints and starts before the noon hour.

The annual meeting of the eastern division of the American Canoe association was held this morning on the south regatta course with a large entry list from New England clubs. There were 11 races. Nine events were on the national regatta program with the first race scheduled to start at 2 o'clock.

NO BOUTS HERE TONIGHT

Clinton Injured and Show is Called Off—Bouts in Lawrence Tomorrow

There will be no boxing bouts at the Crescent A.A. tonight.

Late yesterday afternoon Matchmaker McDermott received word from New York that Johnny Clinton had strained a ligament in training and hence could not come here for his bout with Paul Boyle. He asked for a postponement for a few weeks as he was anxious to meet the Allantown brawler, Moy was in Boston, where he joined his manager preparatory to coming here. Matchmaker McDermott got in touch with Moy's manager and told him of the news from New York. He asked if Moy would be willing to meet Paul Boyle, but he declined claiming that Boyle was too heavy. No other capable man could be secured so McDermott called off the entire show.

Bouts at Lawrence
There is considerable interest in the bout to be put at the Lawrence ball park tomorrow afternoon, with Young Kloby, the K.O. king of the famous Yankee Division and Johnny Donovan of South Boston, as the leading performers. Kloby is a Lawrence boy but the home folks have only seen him in action once since his return from the military service. He won from Phiney Boyle in one round—hence the fans got very little idea of his abilities. Since that time he has fought three bouts, all in Boston and they resulted in three victories for the soldier-boxer. One of his victims was Donovan, but he gave Kloby a hard battle up until the eighth when the Lawrence lad hopped over his famous haymaker. Donovan has taken on some weight since that meeting and avers that the additional poundage and the experience he acquired will stand him in good stead tomorrow. There will also be three other bouts. Many Lowell fans are planning to go down the river to see the bout, as special cars will run to accommodate the local sports. Tickets are available at "Bob" Carr's, Central street.

Introducing Mr. Hoyt
The work of young Willie Hoyt yesterday placed the star of approval on the recent purchase of the 15-year-old hurler from a Baltimore shipyard team. Harrow could not have picked a meaner team for the boy in his maiden start than the seafaring Tigers, but he went through 12 grueling innings like a seasoned campaigner, fanned five and issued only two free passes to first, paralleled the debut of Ray Collins for the Sox some years ago, although in the Vermonter's first game, also against Detroit, he scored a 3-0 shutout.

In Former Company
Fierotti, former Lowell pitcher of excess weight, who drifted out of the N.E.L. when the league went through the condensing process, has been working regularly for Providence in the Eastern League since that time, and going fairly well. He beat Hartford yesterday, 3 to 1, allowing but four hits and fanning five batters.

MANAGER JENNINGS OF TIGERS SUSPENDED

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Notice of indefinite suspension was received by Manager Hugh Jennings of the Detroit Americans before the Tigers left this city for New York last night. This action by President Johnson of the American League was a result of an argument between Jennings and Umpire Egan during the double header here Wednesday.

The Boston club announced the transfer of Outfielder Lamar, recently purchased from New York, to the Rochester International League club. He will return to the Red Sox at the close of the international season.

The Call-'em

Ban Johnson says: "Nothing doing. Mr. Mays has been suspended indefinitely" and Mr. Prazee affirms: "Rasberries, I should worry." All of which makes very spicy reading. The Boston club evidently is so tickled to have Mays off its hands that any statement made by the league head batters not a whit.

All of Kid Gleason's optimistic assertions that his pitching staff is O.K. and that the White Sox are above early worries give a staggering blow when the loss of the Chicago club gobble up Don Carlos "Pat" Hagan the second the Giants turned him adrift. Gleason drew the thundering of mere words.

If by any chance the Mays deal does go through and the Red Sox get Kloby and young McGraw and take their pick of one of six Yankees to be lined up for inspection and selection, and then take Derrill Pratt and then swap him to Connie Mack for Scott Perry, George Stallings will make 39 round trips of the Braves dugout in nothing flat and turn around hauling springs over the left field wall. He never could stand the irony of it.

It appears that the much discussed and protested Cincinnati-Pittsburgh game which was completed at Cincinnati last Sunday with a victory for the Reds has foundered. A large flock of protests. The Pirates now kick in with a protest against the first game played that day which was won by the Reds, 5 to 2, and say that a run scored for the victors was gained when a thrown ball went into the crowd and that according to the ground rules established the runner was entitled to third base only. If the game is played over Cincinnati probably will win by twice the former margin.

The salaried man can make enough in a week to hire a poor down-trodden laboring man to work for him one day—a six hour day.

BIG BAIT NEEDED TO HOOK HERZOG

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Manager Mitchell of the Cubs had Herzog of the Braves hooked so far as the Boston and Chicago teams were concerned, but "Hook" was off the hook by trying to hold the north side official up for a bit of extra change. As soon as he did this Manager Mitchell cancelled the negotiations.

The two teams had agreed to a trade. What players were involved cannot be told at this time, as it would not help the club to let the players know they were to figure in the exchange.

The game tomorrow afternoon will start promptly at 3 o'clock. The playing field will be roped off as usual.

BOXERS DISQUALIFIED.

LYNN, Aug. 1.—In the sixth round of a 12-round bout between Walter Butler of Revere and Paddy Flynn of Everett at the Casino A.C. last night, a mixup occurred between the two boxers which created considerable excitement and resulted in the disqualification of both boxers: Flynn for butting and Butler for kicking.

Butler had demonstrated his superiority over Flynn, who, after he had been warned several times for rough work, butted Butler with his head. Butler lost his temper and began kicking Flynn. A policeman finally pacified him.

The excitement among the spectators was intense. After it was all over Flynn and Butler shook hands and declared they were as good friends as ever.

The majority of the strikers are coal teamsters. The drivers of ice wagons did not go out because of the hardship it would cause the consumers.

The Factory Boys Call it
Barnyard Golf—Great Sport, Just the Same

BY FRED TURBYVILLE
N.E.A. Sports Writer

There are three kinds of golf—golf, African golf and barnyard golf. It is of the latter we write. The factory boys of the American industrial athletic group have taken up the "hick" sport and like it. Maybe it is because so many country boys have deserted the plow for the bench the last few years.

Golf is a great game, but for some it is too expensive, or it requires too much time. African golf is also a game of great favor with some, mostly those of bronette skin to whom the clicking of the bones are the jazziest of jazz music. But barnyard golf, oh, boy—it's a game that anyone can play. It doesn't cost anything at all—just a little space and some old equine footgear.

It has found much favor with the noon-hour crowds. Young and old take to it like ducks to water. It has been adopted by the city fellows as enthusiastically as hard older supplanted old John Barleycorn in many sectors since July 1.

Hughes Palmer, Ohio champion, is 72 years old. He is an employee of one of the big Akron rubber companies. Hughes started the game three years ago when he decided he was at the age when he might start taking on fat and becoming short of wind and stiff of joint without exercise.

Someone jokingly entered his name in a horseshoe pitching contest under the auspices of the Akron press. He liked it and became a star. He's so good that he has to leave the factory every now and then to match his prowess with other state champs and stars of the barnyard course.

Equipment—a little ground space, two stakes, a set of retired horseshoes and ten minutes' time.

The players—one on a side or two on a side.

The object—throwing the shoe around the stake, or nearest to it.

How—place the forefinger on outside edge with first joint just over the end of right thumb, and with thumb flat on top. The other fingers will grip the shoe naturally. Keep feet together alongside stake. Keep your eye on other stake and take step forward when you throw. As shoe leaves hand give it a little twist so it will revolve through air and "ring" opposite stake.

ENLISTED MEN IN THE REGULAR ARMY

CAMP DEVENS, Aug. 1.—Reports that pay of enlisted men in the regular army will revert after present emergency to pre-war scale are incorrect, announced Major General H. P. McCain in a bulletin issued from headquarters yesterday. The army appropriation bill for fiscal year 1920 provides that provisions of act approved May 13, 1917 which increased the pay of enlisted men of the army are continued in force and in effect from and after the date of approval of this appropriation act of 1920.

The news was received with great rejoicing by the regulars here. The officers too on duty here were glad to hear the good news.

Recruiting for the regular army continues brisk at this cantonment and daily men continue to enlist at the recruiting station. The air service, motor transport corps, medical department and ordnance corps the line continue to draw their quotas.

Lieut. Curtis Moffat, aviator, returned from Minnieola, L. I., yesterday. Lieut. Moffat brought a new plane here from the flying field and a few hours after his arrival started his day's work of flying recruits around the cantonment. Occasionally Lieut. Moffat stunted for the entertainment of the camp.

While flying in Townsend last week Lieut. Moffat saved his life by his display of coolness. While 3000 feet in the air the motor of the engine stopped. Within a few seconds Lieut. Moffat realized that the engine was dead. Then he started his flight to earth. Fortunately there was a small vacant lot in the vicinity. The aviator made the field but the plane was slightly damaged when it came in contact with a tree. Aviator Moffat and Mechanic St. Germain were unharmed by the drop.

A minority is always a wicked and blasphemous iconoclast until it grows up to be a majority.

LENINE TO RETIRE

Will First Inaugurate Drastic Change in Policy—Trotzky to Head Reds

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 1.—(By the Associated Press)—The Svenska Dagbladet is informed by persons closely connected with the Russian soviet government that Nikolai Lenine, the premier, intends to begin a drastic change of policy and then retire. One condition of his retirement will be that Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik war minister, be left in command of the red army.

At recently held meetings of the soviet commissaries the newspaper informants say the question of giving power into the hands of other socialist parties was earnestly discussed, but Lenine declared that the best way to check reaction as represented by Admiral Kolchak, head of the All-Russian government at Omsk, would be to drop power for a time in order to prove that no other party was about to reorganize Russia. This, he contended, would strengthen the Bolshevik and enable them to resume power. His views were shared by George Tchitcherin the commissary for foreign affairs, M. Stouthchka, commissary of justice, and Prof. Podvolski, commissary of the interior.

NEW LAW FOR MINORS

According to a recent legislative act, minors between 14 and 16 who wish to work during the summer vacation must have reached at least the sixth grade in the elementary schools. Up to now, if they had passed the fourth grade they were eligible to employment. The act was approved July 2 and Attendance Officer William F. Thorston has been notified of its provisions.

TO ASK MANCHESTER MAYOR TO RESIGN

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 1.—A resolution calling upon the mayor for his resignation as chief executive of Manchester has been prepared by six members of the board of mayor and aldermen and may be presented to the board for action at the regular meeting next Tuesday. Members behind this move to oust Mayor Moise Verrette include both democrats and republicans.

Specific reasons for the request embodied in the resolution have not been divulged by the aldermen who drafted the paper. However, they insist that they have reason for their action.

There has been much dissatisfaction among the aldermen. The final blow is believed to have been struck when the mayor, the aldermen say, completely ignored them in bringing a New York junk firm to this city to collect junk for charity, against the protest of the licensed junkmen of Manchester.

BARS ONE-PIECE BATHING SUIT

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—One-piece bathing suits are under the ban at City Point and other municipal bathing places. There has been complaint that women, and also men, bathers were inclined to wear skimpy one-piece suits at City Point and notice was sent to the police by the park and recreation department yesterday to the effect that the rules and regulations absolutely forbid the wearing of such costumes.

"Bathers who use the beaches under our control must wear two-piece suits," said Secretary Daniel J. Byrne of the park department. "One-piece suits will not be tolerated."

Furthermore, Mr. Byrne said that if any complaint is made against the lifeguards wearing one-piece suits they too, must don the two-piece affair.

"The L street bathhouse is exempt from the rule. Trunks are worn there."

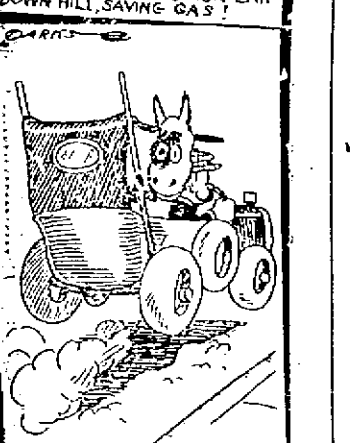

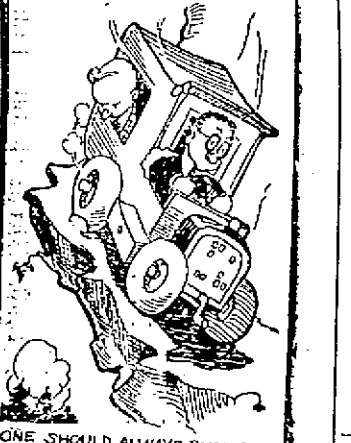

"Must women bathers wear stockings?" Mr. Byrne was asked.

"Not at all—stockings are not necessary," he said.

Referring to the women's bathhouse at L street, where one-piece suits are repented by the city, Mr. Byrne explained that these are large, roomy affairs, and not of the skin-tight variety worn by some women on the open beaches like City Point.

Why city ordinances to regulate flying over cities, and no law to protect the farmer? The city man is a more experienced dodger than the countryman.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR FLIVVER FRIENDS!

THREE FIFTEEN CENT DESSERTS

BY BIDDY BYE.

In endeavoring to economize on food many families have thought it necessary to eliminate desserts as extravagant.

This is a mistaken idea as desserts are as much a part of the meal—may contain as much food value as the main course—and should not be considered an addition to the meal—but merely be planned to furnish their share of the balanced menu.

And desserts are not necessarily expensive. Here, for instance, are three good ones suited to summer menus, each planned to serve five persons at a total cost of about 15 cents.

Dutch Apple Cake

Sift together 2 cupfuls of flour and 3 teaspoonfuls of baking powder, 3 tablespoonfuls of sugar, and 1 teaspoonful of salt—all measurements level. Cut in with a knife 3 tablespoonfuls of butter or oleo, and add gradually 1 egg, well beaten into 2-3 cupfuls of milk. Mix the ingredients with a plated or silver knife. Put the dough on a floured board, roll out as for biscuits, and put in a greased and floured shallow pan. Pare, core and quarter five medium-sized apples, slice thickly, and press the sharper edges of the apples into the soft dough, arranging the slices in parallel rows. Sprinkle all with sugar and bake until cake is done and apples soft. Serve hot with a plain lemon sauce.

Chocolate Cornstarch Pudding

Beat 3 cupfuls of milk in the double boiler. Mix together 4 tablespoonfuls of cornstarch, 2½ tablespoonfuls of cocoa, ½ of a cupful of sugar, and ½ teaspoonful of salt. Rub to a smooth paste with ½ cupful of the hot milk. Add the mixture to the hot milk slowly, stirring constantly to prevent lumps. Cook in the double boiler for 10 minutes. When done add ½ teaspoonful of vanilla, and pour into a chilled, wet mold. Chill and serve with sweetened cream or a thin custard.

Baked Custard

Beat 3 eggs slightly and add ¾ of a cupful of sugar, 3 cupfuls of milk and ½ teaspoonful of salt. Pour into greased pudding dish or individual molds and sprinkle tops with powdered cinnamon or grated nutmeg. Set in a pan of hot water and bake slowly until custard is firm. Do not let the water around the puddings come to a boil during the baking. Serve very cold.

KILLS BRIDE BECAUSE SHE FEARED GUN

Mrs. Frieda Knaesche, two weeks' bride, of Ukiah, California, and her husband, Herman J. Knaesche, naturalized German and ex-soldier, who shot and killed her under the impulse of a "strange feeling that became irresistible when she displayed fear of the gun" he kept in the house.

"I can't explain the feeling that came over me," said the self-confessed murderer. "I just had to kill her. And then I was sorry."

RACES POSTPONED

GOVERNOR GETS OUT AMONG THE FARMER-ETTES

KINGSTON, N. Y.—Every good politician has always made it a rule to get out among the farmers. Governor Smith gets out among the farmerettes as well. Here he is, the guest of the Woman's Land Army of Ulster county, getting a drink from the old chain pump. That he's making a hit is evident from the smiles on the faces of the farmerettes. Oh you, Smithy!

CUMMINGS REITERATES AIR PROBE A "JUNKET"

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Hon. S. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national committee, called before the house subcommittee investigating aircraft expenditures today to testify under oath last night why he had permitted the publicity bureau of his organization to brand a proposed committee trip to the Pacific coast as a "junket," took full responsibility for the statement and declared it was not a circumstance to what would come later.

From the moment he entered the committee room and introduced himself to the members demanding the explanation, until he went away, Mr. Cummings continually was smiling, while Chairman Fearer pounded the table in great heat and stopped the proceedings to have certain replies stricken from the record. With mock courtesy, Mr. Cummings, turning to the chairman and addressing him as "my good fellow," said that he knew before he arrived that he would be unable to satisfy the republicans. There were one or two sharp retorts from Chairman Fearer, to one of which the witness, lighting a cigar from another and still smiling, declared, "My, wasn't that a delicate thrust."

At the outset Mr. Cummings told the committee that while he had not read the particular article to which the republicans took offense he quite approved it, except that it was not rigorous enough. It was during this questioning that Chairman Fearer told the stenographer not to permit certain statements to remain in the record, to which witness replied that in a court of justice he would have more rights. What the chairman wanted to know especially was the basis for the charge that the subcommittee was a "smelling committee" and that it soon was to start on a "junket."

Finally, after a sharp wrangle, Mr. Cummings said that as he understood it, the committee contemplated a western trip to look into spruce conditions relating to aviation, when all of this had been gone over by Charles E. Hughes.

"There have been other inquiries," the witness continued, "and this whole subject has been canvassed until it is threadbare. Moreover, the taking up of a subject of this character by a committee which I submit is not friendly to the administration, and not in a position to give an unbiased report, is a waste of time and public money and in ordinary political parlance, a 'junket.'"

"Is it fair to this committee when it is ordered to make the trip to call it a 'junket'?" Chairman Fearer asked.

"I think so," Mr. Cummings replied. "It is perfectly fair to spend money on a trip of this character, when you ought really to send public accountants and when there are so many other problems, including the high cost of living, demanding consideration."

"The republican organization," the witness went on, "has indulged in plenty of slander directed at the president of the United States and you should be sportsmen enough to stand mild criticism. This isn't a marker to what's coming."

"If you do there will be an investigation by the house," the chairman interrupted.

"Fine," the witness replied. "I have quite enjoyed myself this evening."

In commending the public service of Mr. Hughes who conducted the aircraft inquiry, Mr. Cummings said the difference between republican leaders in congress and the president was that the president had selected for the inquiry a man of known impartiality, while the other was a purely political investigation.

Representative Magee, republican of New York asked Mr. Cummings for a yes or no answer bearing on the war investigation and the resultant sale of army food.

"That's a trick question," the witness replied. "It's like asking a man if he has quit beating his wife."

"Strike that out," Mr. Magee shouted, and it was stricken out.

URGE VETS BE GIVEN BACK SCHOOL JOBS

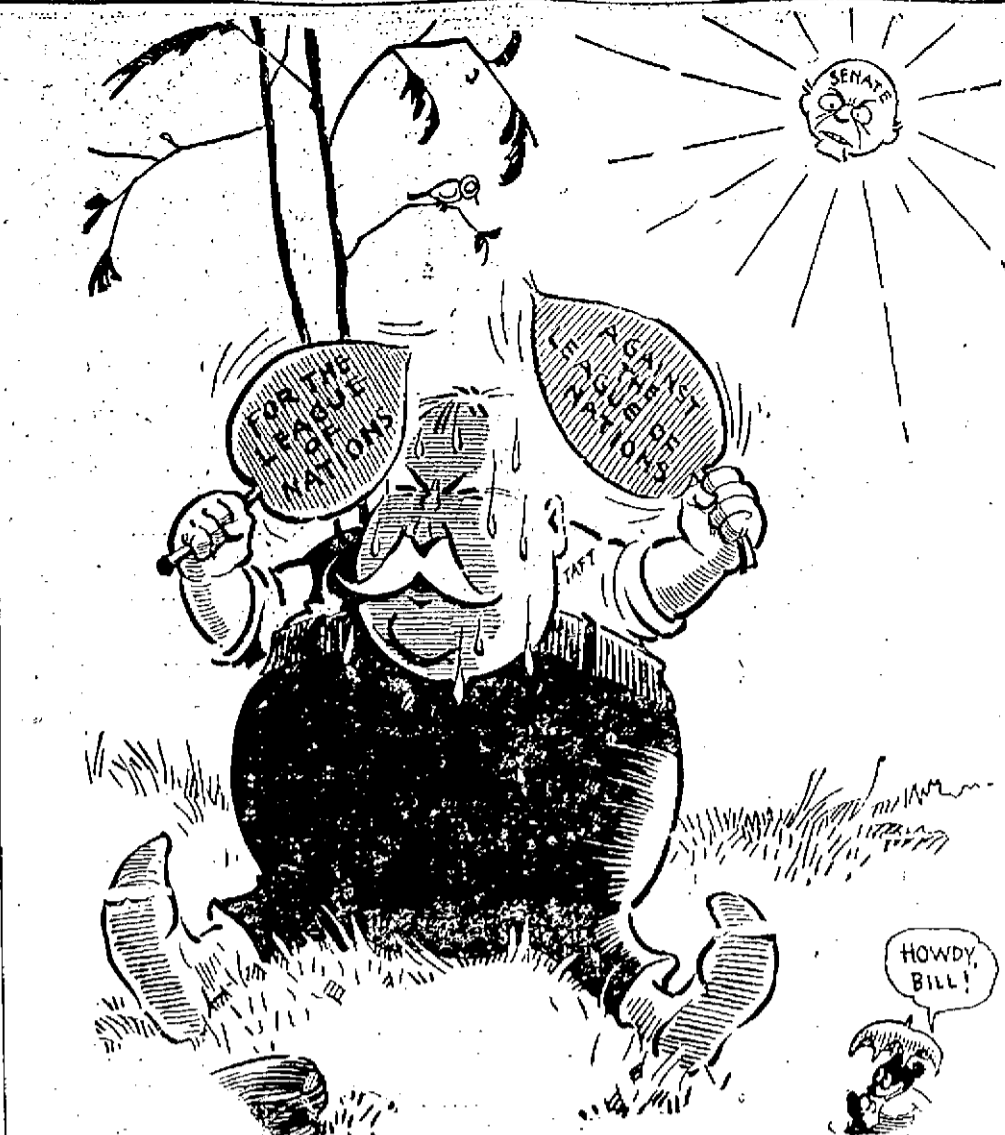

ROCKLAND, Aug. 1.—A petition asking that Sergt. Albert Roberts be reinstated in his former position of high school principal and Priv. Thomas Pickett be reinstated as a submaster in the high school is being circulated throughout the town by Rockland citizens. The petition will be presented to the school board.

Sergt. Roberts is now on his way home from France. Submaster Pickett is back in Rockland, after having been discharged from the army.

Principal Roberts of the high school was among the first men drafted. He himself claimed exemption because of dependents. The claim was not allowed. Then the authorities claimed exemption for him because he was an educator. This claim was not allowed, either, and an appeal to the higher board was vain. The school principal went to Camp Devens and was placed in the 302nd Infantry.

A short time later Submaster Pickett also became a member of the 302nd Infantry through the medium of the draft. Both went overseas with their outfit and remained for a number of months. At the end of the month principal E. C. Strout, who has been principal of the high school during Sergt. Roberts' absence, tendered his resignation to the school board, saying he was about to accept a school position in St. Louis. A few days ago, however, the announcement was made that Principal Strout had withdrawn his resignation and would resume as headmaster when the fall term opened. The petition to have Sergt. Roberts and Submaster Pickett reinstated was then placed in circulation.

The majority of the townspeople apparently are determined that the two teachers who have been in the army shall have their old positions back. They point with pride to Rockland's record of having given every returned service man his job back or placed him in a new one.

Dakota is making arrangements with the local park commission to give a concert either Wednesday or Thursday evening next week in connection with the outdoor movie exhibition on either the South or North common. The exact date has not yet been determined. The members of the band state that they would like to come to Lowell at noon on the day they are to play so that they can pit their baseball team against a strong local nine. Details of both projects have not yet been completed.

EXHIBITION DANCERS AT KASINO
The modern dancing exhibition at the Casino this evening and Saturday evening is attracting no little attention among the dancers of Lowell and vicinity, owing to the popularity of Mr. Duggan and Miss Luce, as New England's premier society dancers. The public will be enabled to witness the real interpretation of the new modern dancing. General dancing will be held before and after the exhibition.

The league will succeed if everybody will be reasonably decent. But if everybody would be reasonably decent, there would be no need of a league.

TO ASK MANCHESTER MAYOR TO RESIGN

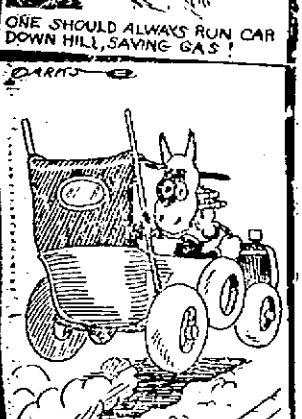

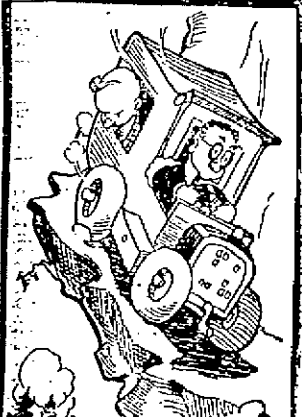

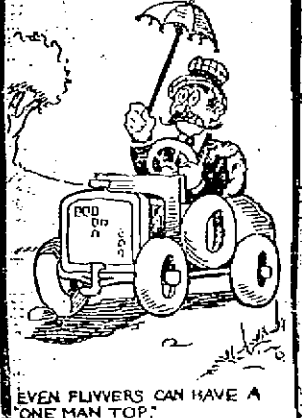

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 1.—A resolution calling upon the mayor for his resignation as chief executive of Manchester has been prepared by six members of the board of mayor and aldermen and may be presented to the board for action at the regular meeting next Tuesday. Members behind this move to oust Mayor Morse Verette include both democrats and republicans. Specific reasons for the request embodied in the resolution have not been divulged by the aldermen who drafted the paper. However, they insist that they have reason for their action. There has been much dissatisfaction among the aldermen. The final blow is believed to have been struck when the mayor, the aldermen say, completely ignored them in bringing a New York junk firm to this city to collect junk for charity, against the protest of the licensed junkmen of Manchester.

BARS ONE-PIECE BATHING SUIT

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—One-piece bathing suits are under the ban at City Point and other municipal bathing places. There has been complaint that women, and also men, bathers were inclined to wear skimpy one-piece suits at City Point and notice was sent to the police by the park and recreation department yesterday to the effect that the rules and regulations absolutely forbid the wearing of such costumes. "Bathers who use the beaches under our control must wear two-piece suits," said Secretary Daniel J. Byrne of the park department. "One-piece suits will not be tolerated." Furthermore, Mr. Byrne said that if any complaint is made against the life-guard wearing one-piece suits they too must don the two-piece affair. "The L street bathhouse is exempt from the rule. Trunks are worn there. "Must women bathers wear stockings?" Mr. Byrne was asked. "Not at all—stockings are not necessary," he said. Referring to the women's bathhouse at L street, where one-piece suits are permitted by the city, Mr. Byrne explained that these are large, roomy affairs, and not of the skin-tight variety worn by some women on the open beaches like City Point.

Why city ordinances to regulate flying over cities, and no law to protect the farmer? The city man is a more experienced dodger than the countryman.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR FLIVVER FRIENDS!

BY BIDDY BYE.
In endeavoring to economize on food many families have thought it necessary to eliminate desserts as extravagant. This is a mistaken idea as desserts are as much a part of the meal—may contain as much food value as the main course—and should not be considered an addition to the meal—but merely be planned to furnish their share of the balanced menu. And desserts are not necessarily expensive. Here, for instance, are three good ones suited to summer menus, each planned to serve five persons at a total cost of about 15 cents.

Dutch Apple Cake
Sift together 2 cupfuls of flour and 3 teaspoonfuls of baking powder, 3 tablespoonfuls of sugar, and 1 teaspoonful of salt—all measurements level. Cut in with a knife 3 tablespoonfuls of butter or oleo, and add gradually 1 egg, well beaten into 2-3 cupfuls of milk. Mix the ingredients with a plaited or silver knife. Put the dough on a floured board, roll out as for biscuit, and put in a greased and floured shallow pan. Pare, core and quarter five medium-sized apples, slice thickly, and press the sharper edges of the apples into the soft dough, arranging the slices in parallel rows. Sprinkle all with sugar and bake until cake is done and apples soft. Serve hot with a plain lemon sauce.

Chocolate Cornstarch Pudding
Heat 3 cupfuls of milk in the double boiler. Mix together 4 tablespoonfuls of cornstarch, 2½ tablespoonfuls of cocoa, ½ of a cupful of sugar, and ½ teaspoonful of salt. Rub to a smooth paste with ½ cupful of cold milk. Add the mixture to the hot milk slowly, stirring constantly to prevent lumping. Cook in the double boiler for 20 minutes. When done add ½ teaspoonful of vanilla, and pour into a chilled wet mold. Chill and serve with sweetened cream or a thin custard.

Baked Custard

KILLS BRIDE BECAUSE SHE FEARED GUN

Mrs. Frieda Knaesche, two weeks' bride, of Ukiah, California, and her husband, Herman J. Knaesche, naturalized German and ex-soldier, who shot and killed her under the impulse of a "strange feeling that became irresistible when she displayed fear of the gun" he kept in the house. "I can't explain the feeling that came over me," said the self-confessed murderer. "I just had to kill her. And then I was sorry."

Knaesche was removed from Ukiah to a neighboring county jail to forestall threats of lynching.

GOVERNOR GETS OUT AMONG THE FARMER-ETTES

KINGSTON, N. Y.—Every good politician has always made it a rule to get out among the farmers. Governor Smith gets out among the farmerettes as well. Here he is, the guest of the Woman's Land Army of Ulster county, getting a drink from the old chain pump. That he's making a hit is evident from the smiles on the faces of the farmerettes. Oh you, Smithy!

GERMAN CITIES CROWDED BIG K. OF C. CONVENTION

Refugees From Lost Territory Pour in—Ordered to Leave—Lack of Buildings

BERLIN, Aug. 1.—(By the Associated Press)—So many refugees are arriving at every German city and village from sections to be disannexed from Germany that the communities in increasing numbers are forbidden their residence because of lack of buildings.

The government has ordered, however, that all communities must accept refugees from foreign countries and returning prisoners of war. When the latter arrive the communities will be furnished with building material and must billet the men. The government will pay for their lodging and furnish food.

TWO BROTHERS ARE TERRIBLY BURNED

FITCHBURG, Aug. 1.—Ell Richard, aged 12, and Wilfred Richard, 11, brothers, were burned by live steam this morning when a pipe in the boiler-room of a laundry establishment burst as they were playing there. At the hospital the older boy is on the dangerous list, while it is believed the younger boy has a good chance of recovery. Both were burned terribly from the thighs up.

Features of The Sunday Supplement Tomorrow

What Does Pres. De Valera Want?
The first signed statement he has authorized since coming to this country is published in The Sun's supplement tomorrow and contains a statement which he has made. It is a vivid, impressive document.

Lady Lookabout
Milady, like many other persons, is out of patience with endless "investigations" that always seem to end up in a line of inquiry. What she says about women with yellow necks and painted faces we predict may make some squint. She thinks men must have designed all the ready-made dresses she sees in the stores. But for all her caustic comments, she ends her talk with a delightful bit of city natural history about the hermit thrush.

$700,000 for Plymouth Project
The joint congressional committee assigned to visit the Bay State and pass on the matter of helping Massachusetts honor the 25th anniversary of the pilgrims' landing returns to Capital enthusiasm and without doubt the national government will liberally chip in towards the cost of making the improvements as planned for Plymouth. Congressman Rogers, member of the house foreign relations committee, is busy considering the bad Mexican situation.

Quarter of Century Ago
"Old Times" notes a red letter day in the life of Michael J. Mahoney, former baseball umpire—several of the strikes in the old carpet mill and two of Lowell's prominent doctors, quarter century ago.

America's Best Home Maker
Mrs. T. Q. Frank is her name and this week for The Sun, she discusses that important part of household management, the table, and she is talking about it not only an art but a science.

What to Do With Peaches
Yes, we confess "peach soup" was a new one to us but its recipe sounds as if it were O.K. Along with the peach soup map Biddy Ewe offers seven other suggestions to palatably utilize this fruit. And her recipes sound mighty good.

Weird Hair Dressing
The Paris expert sent The Sun pictures and descriptions of an enthusiastic nature but we find they are "peeling." However, women will like to see them, if for no other reason than holding them under the face of the man of the house.

Clash of the Planets
We are in for some unusual weather next December, according to the noted astronomer, Professor A. F. Portia. Moreover, between December 11 and December 20, the planets are going to quit minding their own business, according to Portia, and will more themselves into a danger zone. The earth will literally stagger from the carryings on of the planets.

BIG K. OF C. CONVENTION

Important Matters to Come up at Buffalo—Plan Labor Schools

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The steady wave of Bolshevism and social unrest that is sweeping the world and threatening to lay its poisonous tentacles even upon the United States can only be successfully combated by education, in the opinion of leading educators who are conferring here to draw up a curriculum for the Knights of Columbus night schools which are to be started soon all over the country.

The plan of nation-wide education for everybody who wants to take advantage of the offer, and also for the 600,000 members of the order, is to be presented by the educators to the K. of C. peace convention at Buffalo on Aug. 5, 6 and 7. Sixty Boston delegates will attend the convention.

The Rev. John J. Wynne, S. J., editor of the Catholic Encyclopedia, who is one of the leaders of the conference, says there is no ready cure for Bolshevism and all the other fallaciousisms of political and economic philosophy in the mere crying of "Americanism."

Must Show Ideals of Justice
"We've got to do more than cry 'Americanism,'" said Fr. Wynne. "We've got to show in understandable detail just what our ideals of social and industrial justice are; we've got to convince the forming mind of the justice of our ideals of property and law and order. These things have been confined heretofore to college and college extension courses. We want to make them available to every man and woman who wants to think straight about them."

The convention program will run all the way from courses of philosophy in one-syllable words to such practical things as trades, stenography, business methods, languages and physical training. It is aimed to furnish any person struggling in the battle of life with what he needs.

Those in attendance at the conference here include James A. Flaherty of Philadelphia, supreme knight; Dist. Atty. Joseph C. Pelletier of Boston, supreme advocate; William J. McGinley of New York, supreme secretary; Fr. Wynne; Edward D. Devine, president of the Detroit board of education; Michael J. Downey, member of the Massachusetts board of education, director of John Hopkins university, Baltimore; Peter W. Collins, director of construction and re-employment work for the Knights of Columbus; Arthur Somers, former president of the New York board of education, and other educational experts.

Profit Sharing Palliative
The entry of the order into the educational field is a new departure and is the result of its success in welfare work with the armies at home and overseas during the war. While it is planned to exact small fees for the proposed courses, the councils probably will be asked to provide a general fund for supervisory expenses and to provide for the remission of fees in worthy cases.

Fr. Wynne expressed the opinion yesterday that all such expedients as profit-sharing and the like so far attempted are but palliatives and not real solutions of the industrial problems of the day.
"Why," he asked, "should a man be permitted to share in profits when he has not assisted in their making? We believe in a just rate of wages. But the solution of the problem goes deeper than that. Men must have a certain amount of control in the industries in which they work, but there is no reason why they should control capital, which they have not created and do not own."

COAL AVIATION
The price of coal took another jump in Lowell today, according to the pre-announced intention of the local dealers to increase the price 10 cents per ton the first of each month during the summer. The new prices for the commoner grades are as follows: Broken, $12.55; egg, $12.55; stove, $13.05; No. 1 nut, $13.15; No. 2 nut, $13.50; broken, $10.40, and Franklin, $15.60.

tees from the morning roll call, and that conditions were normal throughout London.

At a meeting of the striking policemen here today, Chairman Marston of the union read the following telegram from the Liverpool branch: "Liverpool out solid; stripped docks at midnight, fire brigade as well."

Union officials claim the undivided support of organized labor. The Star says that the electrical workers have threatened, in certain contingencies to cut off London's lighting in support of the police and extreme action is also threatened by the officials of the Locomotive Engineers' union.

The Evening News says that all the strikers were suspended and will be dismissed.

Secretary Hayes of the union, addressing a meeting of the strikers, said that the authorities had sent a telegram to every police station, intimating that if the strikers would return by noon today they would be reinstated.

Laughter greeted the announcement. Hayes made a strong appeal to the men to remain firm, asserting that their number would be increased ten fold by tomorrow. He said arrangements would be made this afternoon for picketing the police stations.

that large numbers of colonists were leaving their European or Asiatic homes because of disrupted conditions due to the world war.

He gave assurances that Mexico would place no barriers against proper immigration, and in fact would extend all possible aid to such prospective colonists. That such material aid is in contemplation is evidenced by the fact that the president recently appointed a commission to investigate all phases of the colonization problem.

feasibility of colonies in the republic and in each instance the answer has been that Mexico welcomes all dependable colonists.

Senor Carranza was asked whether the Mexican government had any policy concerning Latin America which might be construed as indicating that the solidarity of such countries was more to be desired by Mexico than alliances with any foreign nation. He replied that to date the Mexican government was considering no such project of union and until such a proposition presents itself, he refused to define a possible governmental policy.

Touching on the petroleum question, he asserted that the initiative he presented to congress last November, which was in effect an amendment to Article 27 of the constitution, probably would be considered by congress soon. He was emphatic in the declaration that the public press of the United States was being grossly influenced by the petroleum interests, who, he said, were distorting the facts. He continued:

"The petroleum companies have set out to engender all-feeling between Mexico and the United States. They are doing this through the medium of some sections of the American press, which are distorting facts to suit their own ends.

"Mexico is not opposed to the petroleum companies or to any other foreign investors. We merely require that if such companies are to operate in the republic, they abide by our laws. What the new oil law will be I cannot say. The passing of a new oil law is now in the hands of congress."

He refused to venture a prediction as to probable action on his initiative by congress. The attitude of the petroleum commission which will be a determining factor in the settlement of present difficulties, he also declared problematical. The special commission appointed by the Mexican senate to investigate conditions in the Tampico region had completed its work, he said, and would give its information to congress. This report is private and is for informative purposes for congress only.

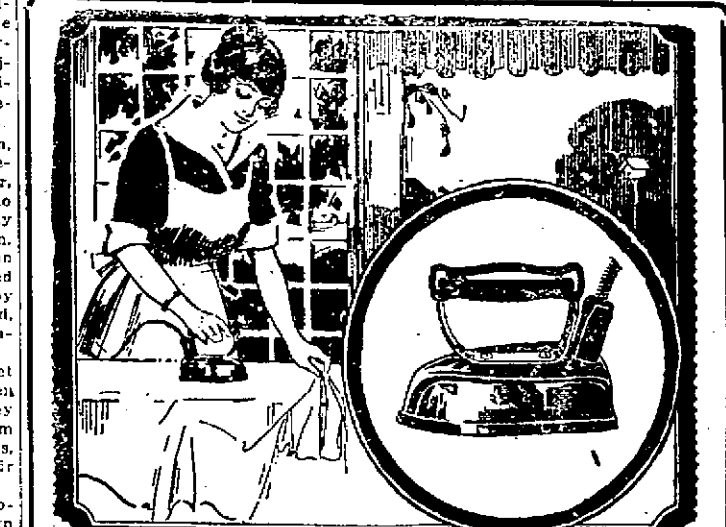

In conclusion Carranza gave renewed assurances of his personal wishes and those of the government that cordial relations between Mexico and the

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The steamship Abangarez, owned by the United Fruit Co., arrived here today with 58 members of the crew of the British steamer Clan Gordon, which capsized at sea Wednesday, 140 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras with the loss of three men, one of whom was the wireless operator.

The Clan Gordon, a freighter of the Clan line, left New York for Dainy, China, last Monday. Late Wednesday afternoon the crew of the Abangarez saw her capsized in a comparatively calm sea. The captain refused until the last seen of the Clan Gordon was at 7 o'clock Wednesday, when she was floating bottomside up. She was a vessel of 2323 tons.

BIDS FOR THE MOREY SCHOOL ANNEX

The public property department will make another attempt to get satisfactory bids for the erection of an annex to the Charles W. Morey school tomorrow when bids will be received for a 14-room addition. Contractors will have just one week in which to submit estimates as the bids will be opened Saturday, Aug. 3.

Bids will be received for eight separate contracts. There will be the general contract, carpenter work, plumbing, heating, plastering, electrical work, painting and sheet metal. All bids must be accompanied by a check for five per cent. of the estimate.

Bids were received by the public property department several months ago for an 18-room addition to the Morey school, but the estimates were nearly three times the amount originally estimated for the project, $180,000.

Since then, the architect has revised the plans and the number of rooms have been reduced from 18 to 14 at the request of Commissioner George E. Marchand. The new plans have yet to be approved by the school board. Chairman Richard Brabrook Walsh of the latter body stated today that the plans have been gone over informally and sent to the public property department for an estimate of the cost of the building.

TO CUT HIGH COST OF LIVING

Special Committee to Consider Means Appointed at Meeting of Cabinet

Will Report Monday—Plan to Sell Wheat at Market Price

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—A special committee to consider means of reducing the high cost of living was appointed at the meeting yesterday of members of President Wilson's cabinet with Attorney General Palmer. The committee will compile suggestions thus far made and report to the cabinet Monday when further steps will be taken.

One suggestion made, Mr. Palmer said, was that the government sell this year's wheat crop at the market price, to be determined by the law of supply and demand, and make up the guarantee to the farmers out of the billion dollar fund appropriated by congress.

Composing the special committee are Director General Hines of the railroad administration; Federal Trade Commissioner Colver and Assistant Secretary Leffingwell of the treasury department.

Mr. Palmer conferred with Secretary Tumulty at the White House today and he said afterwards that the work of the special committee would be to embody all suggestions into "a comprehensive program, attacking the high cost of living all along the line, by way of the law of enforcement and the law of suggestion." He added that natural causes for high living costs were accelerated by other causes commonly known as profiteering.

L. E. Sheppard, chief of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors, accompanied by other officers of the organization, called on President Wilson today.

Judge Enright Fully Recovered From Long Illness—Man Held for Grand Jury

Judge Thomas J. Enright resumed his place on the bench in the Lowell police court today, after an absence of nearly four months, caused by illness. His Honor found a handsome bouquet of flowers on his desk, placed there by the police department, and he expressed his appreciation of the thoughtfulness of the men.

Charged with robbing Joseph M. Mello of $70 in cash and a gold watch on the night of June 25, James E. Ball, called on continuance, was held in $500 for the grand jury after probable cause to believe him guilty had been found. The case of Martin Brady, another Lowell youth, who has confessed having a hand in the transaction, was continued for one week.

According to Brady's story, Ball, another young man whom the police say has left town, and himself met Mello on the evening in question and held him up in Grand St. Ball grappled with the victim and threw him to the ground, stuffed a handkerchief in his mouth to prevent an outcry, while the third member of the trio went through Mello's pockets. This youth secured the cash, Brady testified, while he himself, got the watch. After making their getaway the other youth said that he had only secured about $3, and this was split between the three. Patrolman John Clark was the arresting officer.

Several minor cases were called and continued, and James F. Falls, charged with neglect, was ordered to contribute $10 a week via the probation officer for the future support of his family.

Protocol to German Peace Treaty Laid Before Senate

Poles Ratify Treaty

Lodge Submits Copy of Treaty Between "Big Five" and Poland—Text of Agreement, Received From Private Source by Lodge, Also Presented—New Commercial Treaty Between U. S. and Britain

PARIS, Aug. 1.—(By the Associated Press)—The Polish parliament yesterday ratified the German treaty and also the treaty for the protection of minorities by a vote of 245 to 41.

New Commercial Treaty LONDON, Aug. 1.—The British foreign office has completed negotiations with the United States, according to the Evening News for a new commercial treaty between the United States and the United Kingdom. The text will be laid before parliament soon, it is said.

Protocol to German Treaty

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The protocol to the German peace treaty defining explanations of the treaty agreed to in memorandums exchanged between the German and allied plenipotentiaries, was laid before the senate today by Vice President Marshall. The documents were transmitted yesterday by President Wilson, but too late for submission before today.

The protocol was accompanied by explanatory letters from President Wilson and Secretary Lansing. The protocol and the correspondence were referred to the foreign relations committee.

Among the provisions in the protocol is one requiring the German government to transmit to the allied and associated governments within one month after the treaty becomes effective a list of persons who are accused of having committed acts in violation of the laws and customs of war.

Another paragraph provides for the appointment of a commission to supervise the destruction of the German fortifications on Helgoland in accordance with the German treaty.

Provision is also made that "proceedings be taken against persons who committed punishable offenses in the liquidation of German property" in the allied countries and the protocol says the allied and associated powers will welcome information or evidence the German government can furnish on this subject.

President Wilson's message transmitting the protocol follows:

"To the senate: I have the honor to transmit to the senate herewith, accompanied by a letter from the secretary of state, a brief protocol to the treaty of peace with Germany. The certified copy which I transmit has just been received by the department of state and I am transmitting it without delay.

"The protocol originated in a written interchange of views between representatives of the allied and associated powers and the representatives of Germany as a result of which the representatives of Germany requested that certain explanations of methods and facilities, which it was proposed should be accorded the German government in the execution of the treaty should be reduced to writing and signed by the powers signatory to the treaty so as to form a definite and binding memorandum.

"WOODROW WILSON."

The text of the protocol follows: With a view to indicating precisely the conditions in which certain provisions of the treaty of even date are to be carried out it is agreed by the high contracting parties that:

(1)—A commission will be appointed by the principal allied and associated powers to supervise the destruction of the fortification of Helgoland, in accordance with the treaty. This commission will be authorized to divide what portion of the works protecting the coast from sea invasion are to be maintained and what portion must be destroyed.

(2)—Sums reimbursed by Germany to German nationals to indemnify them in respect of the interests which they may be found to possess in the railways and mines referred to in the second paragraph of article 156 shall be credited to Germany against the sums due by way of reparation. (The paragraph referred to relates to the Tsing Tao Tsinanfu railway and mines in China acquired by Japan under the peace treaty.)

(3)—The list of persons to be handed over to the allied and associated governments by Germany under the second paragraph of article 228 shall be communicated to the German government within a month from the coming into force of the treaty.

(4)—The reparation commission referred to in Article 210 and paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of annex 4 cannot require trade secrets or other confidential information to be divulged.

(5)—From the signature of the treaty and within the ensuing four months Germany will be entitled to submit for examination by the allied and associated powers documents and proposals in order to expedite the work connected with reparation, and thus to shorten the investigation and accelerate the decisions.

(6)—Proceedings will be taken against persons who have committed punishable offenses in the liquidation of German property and the allied and associated powers will welcome any information which the German government can furnish on this subject.

Lodge Presents Treaty

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—A copy of a treaty between the "big five" powers and Poland, said to have been signed at Versailles on June 23, was put into the senate record today by Chairman Lodge of the foreign relations committee, who said it had been submitted to the British parliament two weeks ago.

The text of the agreement between President Wilson and the representatives of the other big powers for government of the Rhine district also was presented by Senator Lodge who said he had received a copy privately after the document had been presented to the British parliament.

Man Who Escaped Jail, Went to War—Now Returns and Surrenders

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 1.—"I'm Englehart, who escaped from here. I am ready to take my medicine."

With this declaration and the announcement that he had served a year overseas in the war since he escaped over the wall of the stoneyard of the county jail here a year ago last February, Frederick W. Englehart presented himself to the turnkey at the jail today.

Sheriff King F. Graham when informed of the return of the prisoner, who had served a month of a six-months' term for non-support said: "Well, it shows a decent spirit in the young fellow, but as far as I am concerned, I can't do anything except have him finish his sentence." No additional charge was made on account of his escape.

An honorable discharge paper, the property of a former corporal in Co. C, 10th Infantry, has been found and the owner can reclaim it by proving his identity at the employment bureau. There are now three discharge papers at the office, which may be had by the owners if they call and prove ownership.

SAYS SOLDIERS ARE INTERESTED IN FARMS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Inquiries conducted throughout the army have developed that there is a wide general interest in Secretary Lane's project to furnish farms to discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, according to a report just submitted by the secretary to both houses of congress.

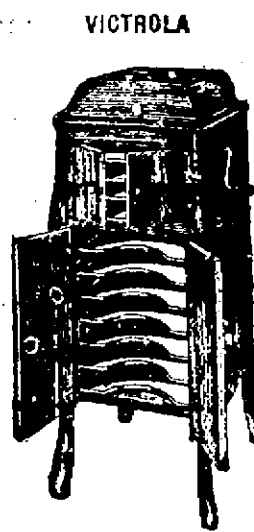

Accompanying the report, which was addressed to the speaker of the house and the president of the senate, were 150 extracts from letters received from army officers outlining investigations made among their men, which indicated in many instances that from 20 to 40 per cent of various commands are anxious to take advantage of an opportunity to become the owners of farm homes. In one division alone more than 4000 men expressed their personal interest in the plan. Secretary Lane had been asked by committees of congress what evidence there was that the soldiers, sailors and marines were interested in the plan before congress for providing them with farms.

TO FIGHT FARE CHANGE

Mayor of New York Calls
2-cent Transfer Charge
"Disgraceful Grab"

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Characterizing the 2-cent transfer charge on the New York railways and the surface lines of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, effective today, as a "disgraceful grab by the greedy transit corporation," Mayor Hylan yesterday issued a statement in which he said that the law department of the city "will fight to the last ditch to upset it" and "carry the case to the highest courts, if necessary." Municipal ownership and operation of transit lines was the remedy suggested by Mayor Hylan to prevent increased fares.

"The audacity of the grasping trusts," he said, "in dragging this additional 2 cents from the pockets of the people who gave them the rich privilege of occupying the public highways is one of the most brazen acts that has ever come under my notice. I wonder how long the people will tolerate such amazing impudence."

BIG SHIP DEAL

Vessels for $80,000,000

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—One hundred steamships built on the Great Lakes during the war have been sold to the Anderson Overseas Corp. of New York for approximately $80,000,000. This is probably the largest ship sale on record, the board said in announcing the deal last night. The vessels will eventually pass to French and Italian ownership.

Mr. Hurley made the announcement

During the afternoon Mr. Hurley shook hands with and said good bye to nearly 2000 men and women employees of the board. Earlier in the day the retiring chairman called at the White House and bade good bye to President Wilson. He was closeted with the president for about an hour. The president thanked Mr. Hurley for the aid he had given during the past years and said he would miss his counsel. Mr. Hurley last night was given a dinner by newspapermen.

Today Telephone Properties are Returned

After a year of Federal control, the telephone property, which makes up the Bell Telephone System, is today returned to its owners by the United States Government.

While the property has been properly maintained, it is not the same property which the Government took over on August 1, 1918. It is not as adequate for its job; that it is not, is in no way the fault of Federal control, which was eminently fair. It is due to causes for which neither the Government nor the companies are to blame.

A year ago today we were at war. Labor and materials needed for both telephone operation and construction were turned to military uses. Some materials were so vital to the carrying on of the war that even the work of providing telephone facilities for the Government was retarded, and no part of them could be spared for commercial telephone purposes.

No less vital was the Government need for those skilled to create, maintain and operate the vast intercommunication systems necessary in modern warfare and in the conduct of the vastly increased Government services.

Thousands of telephone men were already at the battle front. Thousands more were under arms, and still telephone experts and skilled operators went into the service of the Government and contributory industries by the tens of thousands.

The reserves of plant and equipment were drawn upon until they were entirely used up, and the experienced staff was gradually depleted.

During the year came victory and the armistice; and instantly the business world sprang into intense activity. The demands for telephone service passed all former records.

To replace the exhausted reserves which had been carried for just such purposes, to meet this unprecedented emergency, there began a rush for construction, for readjustment, for high-pressure repairs, for feverish extensions. All these must be continued with increasing effort.

The return of the property comes in the very midst of this race between an overpowering demand and an upbuilding of a system whose growth was held back by the vital needs of war.

Much progress has been made in the upbuilding of this system, but far more is still required to meet the swift growth of business; and also to give "first aid" to every other business and every other service struggling against an unprecedented demand.

Under such conditions it is beyond human power to immediately overcome the handicap which the situation imposes. There are no people in any public or private endeavor who are working more tirelessly or strenuously for the common good than those of the Telephone Companies. More service must be given and it must be given more efficient. That improvement in some cases will take months. Eventually service must win the race with demand.

CULTIVATE YOUR CHILD'S CONFIDENCE

BY MARTHA GALAUDET WARING.

A little child begins by "telling mother" everything. Bumps or bruises, joys or sorrows, all are brought to her as naturally as the child draws breath, and this continues as long as he is totally unconscious of himself as an individual.

The time for special care is when he becomes aware of himself as a separate entity. From this time on, a cold look, an indifferent air, an uninterested attitude, a word of ridicule or sarcasm may wound the child's sense of confidence or justice so deeply that he will shrink within himself and never again show his inmost thoughts or most sacred feelings to his mother or to anyone else. Incalculable harm is done through thoughtlessness, even by the most devoted parents, in failing to recognize this stage of the child's development and to reverence his individuality and his right to it. The mother loses the greatest power for good she possesses, and misses the greatest joy and recompense she can have by not sharing her child's hopes and fears, his troubles and triumphs. The bitter experience will come to her sooner or later of realizing that her child is sharing these with another person who must, therefore, be spiritually nearer to him than she is.

Another is, respect your child as a spiritual being, an individual as different from all other individuals as God meant him to be. Meet him on his own ground, and do not try to make him conform to a pattern of your own. Respect your child's confidence absolutely. Once betrayed, it may never be given again.

A young lad of 12 I once knew, told his mother something that greatly interested him, and asked her not to tell anyone about it. Later in the day he passed under the bay window in which she and a friend were sitting with their sewing, and he heard her telling what he had told her in confidence. He was a rather quiet lad but very determined, and after the visitor left he went to his mother and said: "Mother, I passed under the window and heard you telling Mrs. Blank what I asked you not to mention to anyone. I just want to let you know that as long as I live I will never again tell you anything that concerns myself until I am ready for everybody to know it." And he kept his word, although he was always a most devoted and dutiful son.

Never meet a situation which appears absurd to you with ridicule or sarcasm; this is fatal.

Perhaps the most important rule of all is, do not be afraid to discuss any subject, to meet truth with truth, frankness with frankness, confidence with confidence. Long ago I told my children I would always give honest answers to their questions in as far as they could understand them, and could explain more as they grew older. Give them scientific truths when they ask for them, reverently and simply, and know the joy of seeing their minds open to the facts of life with appreciation of their beauty and holiness, and of watching their love and respect grow for their father and mother and for all life!

Never be afraid of confessing ignorance. A child thoroughly respects the answer: "I don't know accurately enough to tell you correctly; let us look it up together." This is where father can be brought in with effect, even if he is much away and very busy, for a child can soon learn in confidential talks with mother that father would be just as much interested, just as anxious to help, and just as good or perhaps a better adviser, if only he were there. Then whenever his advice is especially needed, the matter can be referred to him at a convenient time.

To be a parent is a vocation, not a pastime. God has given into our keeping an individual not a replica of ourselves for a plaything, and it is not enough to give only our love, which is a natural gift; we must give spiritual insight and understanding, for in the child's growing and developing powers and true companionship.

BELA KUN DICTATOR

Will Remain in Control Unless Allies Forcibly Expel Him, Say Americans

VIENNA, Wednesday, July 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Unless the allies assume the definite policy of forcibly expelling Bela Kun, the communist leader, it is believed by Americans here that he will continue as dictator for days, weeks or months, according to his own will.

The allied representatives here have done all in their power in an attempt to reason with him and to persuade him on patriotic grounds to deliver the government into the hands of the socialists, rather than those of a few minority communists. But so far Bela Kun continues to parley without accepting.

He is said to feel that his position is stronger because of the new harvest, which gives the soviet more food, especially as thousands of Hungarians continue to flee, thus making fewer mouths to feed.

President Seltz of Austria, said today that his country would not be quiet so long as Bela Kun was permitted to disturb her politics. He said that Hungarian soldiers were inciting to disorder and that requisitions of private houses in cities and villages were going on near Vienna.

The Hungarian soldiers are obeying orders so long as they get food and money and because of this fact, it is not thought probable that Bela Kun will be overthrown by forces inside Hungary. The power of Bela Kun is also due to the inertia of the educated classes and others who are worn out by the war and have no strength to struggle against the rule of terror.

da to the effect that everything done against it is against the rights of the workman and that facts printed regarding its failure emanate from the capitalist press.

Some results of the work of the soviet factories are that from coins of the value of 20 heller cost 98 heller to make. Workmen's wages are 8 1/2 crowns an hour. The price of one cabbage is 40 crowns; a goose 2000 crowns; a pair of shoes 1200 crowns and an egg eight crowns.

MAY AUCTION MAINE INTERURBAN CAR LINE

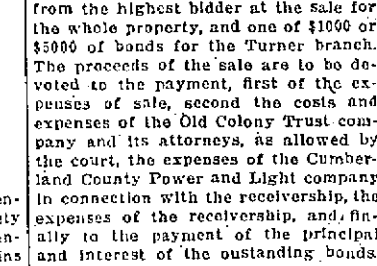

AUBURN, Me., Aug. 1.—Justice Morrill filed yesterday afternoon his decree on the bill in equity of the Old Colony Trust company of Boston against the Lewiston, Augusta & Waterville Electric railroad, in which the petitioner, trustee under the mortgages securing the first and refunding bonds of the railroad, asked for permission to foreclose the mortgages and sell the property and franchise.

The decree is very voluminous. It states that the amount of the first and refunding bonds secured by the mortgages to the Old Colony Trust company is $2,987,000, on which there is overdue interest to the amount of $151,133.13. It orders the railroad company to pay this latter sum with interest within 10 days from today.

In the event of default in this payment, Wallace H. White of Lewiston, special master, is ordered to sell the whole property on the courthouse steps in Auburn. Bids are to be called for the whole property, also for the property exclusive of the Turner branch, for the Turner branch including its franchise, and for the physical property of the Turner branch alone. If the bid for the whole property is greater than the combined bids for the different items mentioned, then it is to be sold as a whole, otherwise each piece is to be sold separately.

A deposit of $10,000 cash or $50,000 of the bonds of the road is required from the highest bidder at the sale for the whole property, and one of $1000 or $5000 of bonds for the Turner branch. The proceeds of the sale are to be devoted to the payment, first of the expenses of sale, second the costs and expenses of the Old Colony Trust company and its attorneys, as allowed by the court, the expenses of the Cumberland County Power and Light company in connection with the receivership, the expenses of the receivership, and finally to the payment of the principal and interest of the outstanding bonds.

RUSSIAN CITIES NOW FACING RUIN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The miserable condition of affairs in Bolshevik Russia, where the population of great cities has been greatly reduced by disease, execution and exodus, where industry has been throttled to the point of decay, and the cost of existence greatly raised, is pictured in a statement issued by Assistant Secretary of State Breckinridge Long yesterday, as coming from the pen of Gregor Alexinsky.

Alexinsky was formerly a member of the Russian duma for Petrograd and of the central committee for the social democratic organization, "Edinstvo." His statement, which has reached the state department, tells of the miserable plight into which many of the industries in Bolshevik territory had been placed when he left Petrograd on May 17. Alexinsky is well known in Russia and is an historian. Interviewed by the Copenhagen Social Democrat, a copy of which has just been forwarded to the state department from Copenhagen, he gave this picture of the situation in Bolshevik Russia:

"The condition of affairs in Bolshevik Russia is very distressing. The majority of the industrial enterprises are not operating. In the Moscow district 63 textile factories stopped working last fall, and the same picture appears with respect to the textile industry in the vicinity of Ivanovo-Voznesensk, near Petrograd, etc. The chemical industry, the paper industry and many others are likewise in a miserable condition.

"The Bolshevik government has done everything to keep the work going in the plants that produce ammunition, but, nevertheless, many of them are shut down. Owing to the lack of rolling stock, transportation is not good. Locomotives and cars needing repairs are so numerous that the workshops are unable to cope with the repairs.

"In order to increase production in Russia, the Bolsheviks have already introduced the forms which existed prior to the socialization, particularly payment for the piece work, the premium system, etc. In short, partly of wages does not exist.

"This lamentable picture of our industry's decay has led to terrible complications for the workmen on account of the great shortage of provisions and an enormous increase in prices. Bread (black bread), rye bread, because there is no wheat left, costs 35 to 40 roubles per pound in Petrograd; sugar, 180 to 200 roubles per pound; butter, 140 to 150 roubles; tea, 200 roubles; men's footwear, 1200 to 1500 roubles per pair, etc. Horse meat costs 30 roubles per pound. In Moscow prices are about on the same scale. On the big market in Moscow dog meat is being sold openly, and the official 'Finland' Gazette publishes statistics showing fluctuations in the price of such meat (5 to 7 roubles per pound). Even a box of matches costs between 3 1/2 and 4 roubles.

"On account of the shortage of provisions, fuel, soap and other commodities that are absolutely indispensable for the public health and welfare, contagious diseases are spreading everywhere. In Moscow the official statistical bureau calculates 10,000 cases of contagious diseases per week; of that number 8000 cases are typhoid fever. In Petrograd 30 per cent of the patients in the communal hospitals die of ordinary consumption which is the result of famine.

"In Petrograd there are only 700,000 inhabitants left out of 2,500,000."

GOLD AND FRIENDSHIP FOR "CHARLIE" PAIGE

The prettily situated and well appointed grounds of the Martin Luther club in Tyngsboro were the scene yesterday afternoon of a happy and joyous gathering, the occasion being a reception and testimonial to Charles D. Paige, who relinquished his duties as auditor at city hall today.

It was the second reception to Mr. Paige within a few days, the municipal council and city hall employees having honored him on Tuesday by presenting him a purse of gold and adopting resolutions in which the council members expressed their appreciation of the auditor's long and faithful service. There were no resolutions adopted yesterday, but words were spoken that must have filled Charlie's big heart with that peculiarly delicious feeling called happiness. All of the 60 or 70 men present were his personal friends and while they presented him a purse of gold as a token of their friendship, it was their presence there that appealed to the man in whose honor the affair was planned.

But it was all a great big surprise to Mr. Paige and in unveiling him out there, his friend, Milo Hale, did a very fine job. He invited Mr. Paige out for a ride and Charlie suspected nothing until Milo turned his machine for the club grounds. When the club house came in view and Charlie saw the crowd, he realized that there was something doing and, in his quiet way, said to Milo: "I think I'm on." He didn't have long to think for he had no sooner ascended the steps to the club house than he was grabbed by uncountable hands and he said afterwards that he would soon be an adept at handshaking. And let it be said that Charlie, noted for his golden silence, is developing the art of speech-making. He made a very pretty little speech yesterday in reply to J. Joseph Hennessy, Mr. Paige's successor as city auditor, who presented the purse of gold in behalf of those present. The speakers included William H. Wilson, Esq., Robert W. Thompson, Judge Parker of Nashua and others.

The weather was ideal and the outing, promoted in the beginning by D. J. MacDougall and M. J. Markham, was a big success. The Lydon Catering company did the catering and there was the best of everything to eat and plenty of it. The trip to the grounds was made in automobiles, and it was what might very appropriately be termed "a splendid party."

The delegation which was headed by William A. McDonald of the metal trades' union of Charlestown also called upon Senator Lodge and Congressman Lusk, members of the committee on naval affairs.

Now that John Barleycorn is an outlaw in public and respectable in the privacy of one's home, he stands up a par with other sins.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt told a committee representing the employees of the Boston Navy Yard yesterday that he would recommend an additional appropriation of $100,000,000 for the navy yards of the country when the house comes into session again in September.

The committee was accompanied by Congressman Fitzgerald who urged that all work done now by private contract should in the future be turned over to the navy yards.

Mr. Roosevelt said that he hoped

BLACK LACE FOR DINNER DRESS

BY BETTY BROWN

The costume for summer dinner parties must somehow achieve dainty coolness without losing entirely the formality demanded by the occasion of its appearance. Such a happy solution of the problem is found in this delectable model of black lace over black pleated net.

There is added the new slender girld effect in black silk picot edged ribbon, and a hat of black lace with airy unveiled ostrich plumes for fringe adds the final touch.

TO KEEP MY SKIN SOFT, CLEAR AND PLIABLE

I Use Howard's Buttermilk Cream

You, too, will be surprised and delighted with its use for while it turns the dull and most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty it does not show the slightest sign of its use. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the slightest shininess or greasiness of the skin. Howard's Buttermilk Cream is guaranteed to satisfy you in every way. Your drug or toilet goods counter can supply you.—Adv.

Hot Tea and Frozen Cream Very Constipating

THERE is little inclination for solid food on a hot day. Cold drinks and ices, salads and pastry form much of the diet, especially among women. This lack of wholesome variety, however, interferes with proper digestion.

The result is biliousness, listlessness, dizziness, and constipation. The stomach could not digest nor the bowels pass off the day's strange mixture of food and drink.

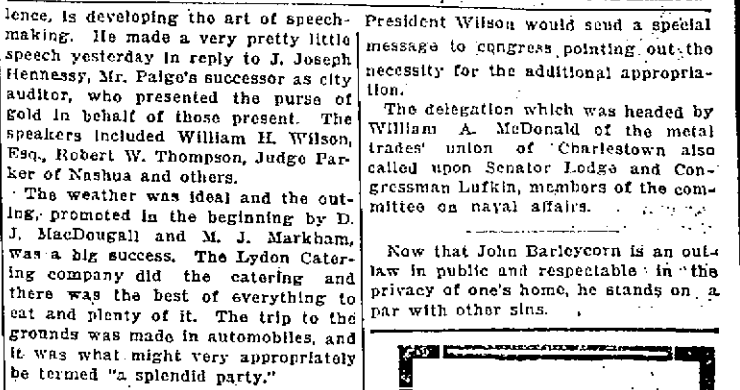

A simple way of overcoming the trouble is this: If you have not already got Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house, go to a drug store and buy a 50c or $1 bottle. Take a teaspoonful tonight before you go to bed. It will act in the morning, and immediately thereafter your head will be clear and that feeling of oppression will be gone.

Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts on the stomach-muscles training them to do their work naturally so that medicines can be dispensed with. It is the most widely used laxative compound in the world. That means merit.

SEEKS $100,000,000 FOR BOSTON NAVY YARD

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt told a committee representing the employees of the Boston Navy Yard yesterday that he would recommend an additional appropriation of $100,000,000 for the navy yards of the country when the house comes into session again in September.

The committee was accompanied by Congressman Fitzgerald who urged that all work done now by private contract should in the future be turned over to the navy yards.

Mr. Roosevelt said that he hoped

"Of course Jack scolds, but he pays the bills, so what does it matter? American women are famous for their casual attitude toward money.—Mrs. Thetta Quay Franks.

MRS. FRANKS, AMERICA'S BEST

(Especially Written for The Sun) BY MRS. T. Q. FRANKS, Winner of Medal as America's Best Home Maker

Many a man has had occasion to say to his wife, "My dear, if I ran my business as you run your home, we should be bankrupt."

American men are noted for their business intelligence. The aim of what is called "American business methods" is to do things in the shortest time, for the least money and to the greatest practical perfection.

American women, on the other hand, are famous for their casual attitude toward money. "Of course, Jack scolds—men always do. But he pays the bills, so what does it matter?" they all too frequently say.

Just as there are essentials of good management in the man's world of business, so the woman's world, the home, has certain standards for efficient administration. These essentials are, in fact, practically the same, and the woman who applies them to the conduct of her home will have done her share in solving the national problems of the high cost of living and the conservation of health and human life.

A simple working analysis of "American business methods" would include the following points:

A successful business man knows the amount of his capital, whether it is invested with reasonable security, and what his prospects of advancement may be.

Special Price ---

This is my twice-a-year event. I always aim to keep my woolen stock spick and span from season to season. Therefore this annual sale. Hundreds of all wool, all year round weight suit patterns, mostly single suitings, some with extra trousers, that were purchased long before the advance in woollens and I am therefore in a position during this annual sale to

Values Up to $35.00

Suit to Order

$22.50

Around 160 suit patterns left in the lot. Materials include Blue Serges, Unfinished Worsteds, Cassimeres, Cheviots and two-tone effects; mostly medium and heavy weight.

NOTICE—Take this warning seriously—not in the memory of the present generation have clothes prices been as high as they will be a month or two hence. No guess work about this—good woollens command prices heretofore unheard of and are becoming more costly almost daily. I don't care to even predict what fall prices will be, but the increases will be of surprising proportions—be assured of that.

If I had to buy the woollens at today's market prices that are being offered in this Annual July Sale, you would have to pay me around $32.50 or $35.00 for a made-to-measure garment that I offer now for $22.50. Don't wait—make your selection now—take it when you are ready.

at any given time. He meets indebtedness promptly, upholding his reputation for honesty and fair-dealing.

Inside his own office, he maintains similar standards of system and integrity.

He has a personal knowledge of the details of his business, to check waste and to use possible labor saving device. He buys material in sufficient quantities, in the most economical manner possible, and at stated intervals "takes stock" to determine his needs for the future.

He guards the health and adequate fire protection, safety of his employees by heating, ventilating and lighting systems. He adjusts labor fairly, and sees that each employee knows what to do, how to do it, and is personally responsible for results.

He keeps informed of the working methods of others in his business and is willing to admit and adopt improvements.

The modern woman who adopts these methods will find it no easy task to learn the value of money, time and labor. Yet many ignore simple as well as economical ways of administering their own home.

They pay little attention to the time saving and comfort of workers in their homes.

Finally, although eager to discuss

isolated problems of "help," they do not thoroughly canvass the experiences of other women to aid in solving the fundamental problems of management and economy.

In my next talk, I shall discuss what is perhaps the most important business method to be adopted in the home—the budget—and suggest how to plan the family income to get the most health, pleasure and leisure from it.

RESCUES GIRL THEN DROPS DEAD

NORTH EASTON, Aug. 1.—Miss Grace Harlow, 23 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harlow, Main street, this town, after rescuing 12-year-old Grace McMullin in Long's pond yesterday, suffered a stroke of heart failure and sank before any one of the score of people on shore could go to her assistance.

Frank Mallor, hearing the cries from the people on shore while passing by, recovered the body in 15 feet of water.

Miss Harlow was a graduate of the Eastern high school, Sargent's school of physical culture, Cambridge, and was spending her vacation from her duties as physical instructor at Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., with her parents. Miss McMullin became hysterical after going beyond her depth when she was rescued. Miss Harlow, after being stricken, sank in less than six feet of water, but her body rolled toward the middle of the pond.

shore while her sister drowned. Doctors, on examining the body, stated that the victim had died from heart failure and even though brought from the water before being suffocated, would have died. Besides her parents and sister she leaves a brother, former Representative Leo Harlow, one of Bristol county's best known barristers.

REPORT ALLIED TROOPS MUTINY

Successes on Archangel Front Announced—Japanese Detachment Annihilated

LONDON, ANG. 1.—Success for the Bolsheviks in the Onega sector of the Archangel front, are reported in a soviet statement sent by wireless from Moscow. It declares the Bolsheviks have advanced 14 miles, aided by a mutiny among the allied troops. This portion of the communique reads: "We have advanced 14 miles northward on the Onega. The advance was preceded by a rising of white regiment, who arrested resisting officers and handed them over to our side." The statement bears date of July 31, and the rising reported appears to have been subsequent to the recent mutiny among the Russian troops on the Archangel front, reported by the British army authorities. The Moscow message also reports arrest in Siberia. It claims that there is an insurgent front extending from Tashkent in Turkestan to Nikolayevsk on the Amur. In the Amur region it is declared the insurgents annihilated a large detachment of Japanese recently. In addition, it is asserted, an important Bolshevik detachment is advancing from northern Siberia towards Tomsk.

SEES NO RELIEF FROM PRESENT HIGH PRICES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—No relief from present high prices is forecast in the federal reserve board's monthly review of business conditions issued today, which notes that July saw increases in many lines.

In many districts high prices have not served to check demand, but the possibility of obtaining goods is found to be of greater moment to the buyer than the price fixed. On the other hand, the board says, the "very great" price increases which have taken place in certain lines have made buyers more cautious, care being taken not to increase unduly stocks acquired at the present price level for fear a decline might occur.

Continued high prices, along with constant growth in trade, both wholesale and retail, and increased activity in some of the basic industries sustained confidence in the industrial situation and led to expansion in many lines. Almost the only complaints heard concern shortage of raw materials and, in a few districts, labor troubles, although a majority of the districts report normal labor conditions.

The exodus of alien workers was blamed in part. The agricultural outlook, on the whole, was reported favorable, with indications that the cotton crop would be much shorter than previously indicated. Manufacturing continues active, marked advances in prices having occurred in cotton goods, with many mills oversold. Export orders are large. Raw wool still is in heavy demand and revival in building has continued.

Turning to the financial situation, the board declared that while speculation continued at an unprecedentedly high level, an investment demand for stocks has revealed itself, leading to the withdrawal of an unusual amount of shares from the market. The banking situation is reported sound, credit and collection conditions good and failures small and few.

BOOKKEEPER DISCHARGED AND CARMEN STRIKE

FALL RIVER, AUG. 1.—The management of the Swansea & Seaboard Street Railway Co., operating between this city and the Rhode Island line at East Providence, announced today that the strike of the employees of the road would become effective at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and that the last car from this city would be at 3.35 in the afternoon, running as far as the car house at Swansea Centre. The management also announced that service on the road would then be discontinued. The strike is the result of the refusal of the directors of the road to comply with the request of the employees to reinstate Mrs. Cath Bliss as bookkeeper at the headquarters office of the company in Swansea. The directors having combined the duties of bookkeeper and treasurer of the company in the appointment of a new official, to which the employees objected.

TAHAM'S DAUGHTER

Tells Little Girls About Indian Girls' Clothes

To Readers: Princess Nacomie is the daughter of Chief Taham whose Indian stories have been such a hit with our young readers. Her stories are authentic accounts of woman and child life among the Indians written especially for Lowell girls and published in The Sun only.

EDITOR.

BY PRINCESS NACOMIE

Of the Kiowa Indian Tribe

I want to tell you girls something about the beautiful things the Indian girls were taught to make. Every girl learned to make her own clothing. She was never troubled about fashions, for these never changed, neither did the material. She helped her mother tan the skins of the deer so that they were soft as cloth. One dress would last for many years. When a girl grew too big for the dress, a sister or a friend fell heir to it. Then she made another for herself.

But she never thought that she had to squeeze her body out of shape to make herself look beautiful. Her clothes were so made that her limbs and body were left perfectly free for her out-of-door work. No doubt that is one of the reasons the girls and women were so healthy. My own brocade dress is an exact pattern of my aunt's.

of the dress, they always made it look as beautiful as possible. The girl had but few tools to work with. A small pointed bone for a needle, sinew from the leg of a deer or buffalo for thread, and a knife were all that she needed. With the knife she cut out the dress. With the bone needle and the sinew she sewed it, and worked her bead pattern upon it; and the patterns always stood for something. For instance, if she worked a bead cross, it was a prayer to the powers of the four ways—of the east, the west, the north and the south. The circle was usually a prayer to the sun. The colors of the beads, too, meant much to her, in fact everything she did was a prayer. But that was before the old ways of the Indian were destroyed by the new ways of the white man. The girl, herself, of course, always tried to look beautiful. Those of different tribes had their own way of dressing the hair. The girls of our own prairie tribe plaited theirs in two braids, one on each side of the head. They tried, too, to make their faces look nice, and the way they put the paint on had a deep meaning. For instead of trying to conceal the paint they wore, they wanted everyone to see it. When a girl became old enough to think about getting married, she wore a circle of red in the centre of her forehead. This was to show that she was an "unspoken-for blessing." So, you see, instead of wearing a ring on her finger after she was engaged, she wore it on her forehead before that important event.

THRIVES ON "NOT SUFFICIENT FUNDS"

BY JUDGE THOS. F. GRAHAM

(San Francisco Divorce Judge known as "Great Reconciler," and America's Leading "Heart" Specialist.)

We now come to one of the most difficult problems of the divorce court—the pay envelope. In practically every suit I have heard during the past decade—and I had to tell you how many there were—about a woman and what he did with it figured more or less prominently.

It doesn't always appear in the complaint, answer or testimony—but one will usually find, upon close investigation, that money is the root of the divorce evil.

"Not sufficient funds." All too frequently have those three words sounded the death knell of a romance. Not sufficient funds for what? For the husband to carouse and gamble with at the same time trying to keep his family going at the rate his normal income would permit and

deceiving the wife as to the actual state of his finances?

For the wife to buy expensive millinery, wearing apparel and "pretties" to which her husband's earnings in no way entitle her?

For husband, again, to "lend" indiscreetly and never get it back; or to "invest" in wildcat enterprises and watch it disappear?

For wife, once more, to waste at the butcher's and baker's and grocery store by extravagant purchases of trifle delicacies or miscalculations and misconceptions of the needs of her household?

For husband and wife, oftentimes, to dissipate in a vain endeavor to buy social prestige, or business success, by keeping pace with a "set" or "gang" who have dollars where they have dimes?

Are those, in your household, some-

If so, I cannot advise you too urgently to quit! Either quit the foolish expenditures or quit the marriage game—dissolved the partnership—go your separate ways.

You are never going to make a dime of it if you play it with that kind of cards! You are not even going to give your children, or your friends, or the world, a square deal!

Don't you see what a fearful mistake you are making?

Who is going to think better of you, friend husband, because you gamble away your income and stay out late at night? Nobody but the "good fellows" who live on the proceeds of your folly!

Who is going to admire you, friend wife, when you are decked out in finery which every one knows—oh, yes! they do—that you cannot afford? Nobody—not even the merchants who sell them to you, if you don't pay your bills promptly.

Who is going to thank you, friend husband, for those "loans" and "investments" you made so impulsively—the men who profited by your rashness? None! They will merely laugh at you, and brand you as a "sucker"—an "easy mark."

Does the butcher, or the baker, or grocer, "respect" you, friend wife, when you over-buy, or spend your surplus on specials? Not they! Their respect is reserved for the woman who chooses her menus to suit her purse—who knows what she can afford and doesn't even flirt with anything more expensive.

As for this joint idea of "keeping up with Lizzie"—the sooner you drop that, the better. Let your friends know just how far you can go and still remain solvent—and sane. If they are real friends they will respect your limitations and your courage and frankness in announcing them.

Best of all, you'll never land in the divorce courts on a charge of "Not Sufficient Funds!" nor of extravagance.

Instead, you will have the laugh on hundreds who do, every day in the year.

Are you overdrawing your account in the bank of wedded bliss? If so, do not fail to read the accompanying article, in which Judge Graham tells of the disasters with which you are flirting. Five minutes reflection on his advice may save you many years of heartache and misery. If you don't need it yourself, show it to some friend who does.

NO POWER TO CONTINUE TELEPHONE RATES

LANSING, Mich., Aug. 1.—In an opinion rendered to the Michigan public utilities commission, Attorney General Grosbeck declares congress had no authority to continue the telephone rates put into effect by Postmaster General Burleson for four months after the government relinquished control of the wire companies. He ruled that rates in effect before government operation began should be declared in effect as of Aug. 1.

SECOND GAME OF SERIES TOMORROW

Manager Jimmy Reynolds of the B. & M. car shops team says tomorrow's game with the C.M.A.C. at Spaulding park will wind up the series and the railroad boys may rag out in a bunch of new duds on Sunday. It's the second game of the big series for a purse of $200, not to mention a stock of side bets and it's a cinch that an overflow crowd will be on hand when the rival clubs take the field. Reynolds will lead out Wheeler and White as his battery, while the C.M.A.C. is expected to use Hubert on the peak, with Mitchell catching him. The first game of the series, played a couple of weeks ago, slipped into the B. & M. bat bags by the score of 3 to 6, but the C.M.A.C. has dark designs on prolonging the series to three games and it will be a ribald contest no matter how you look at it. The umpire will call time at 3 o'clock sharp and between 2 and 3 o'clock special cars will run to the park from Merimack square.

REFUSES $500 SALARY INCREASE

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Representative Renton Whidden of Brookline yesterday returned to the state treasurer a check for $500, the amount of an increase in salary which the legislature voted to its members over the veto of Governor Coolidge. "I cannot accept more than $1000 for my services in the legislature," he wrote. Illustrating the violence of the wind in Nebraska, the Wood River (Neb.) Interests says: "A bunch of cattle belonging to Alfred Lampe got caught along in the field when the blizzard came along last week, and he had a two days' job getting them back in the corral. The wind had whipped the tails of two of them."

ENTERTAINED AT DEVENS K. OF C. HUT

Members of the R.O.T.C. and overseas members of several companies who expect to be discharged Saturday of this week, gave a farewell reception to their friends on Thursday afternoon and evening at the Knights of Columbus hut, Camp Devens. Friends were present from Philadelphia, New York, Worcester and Lowell and the affair proved to be one of the jolliest of the season. Among the talent who gave a concert were Misses Gertrude Ryan, Vera Thissell, Agnes Maher and Jeanette McGrath of Lowell and Mr. Stewart of Braintree. Mrs. Fred C. Wentworth and Mrs. John J. Coughlin of Lowell were among the chaperones. The boys were loud in their praise for the K. of C. and other organizations for many courtesies shown them. In the fall they will return to their studies at the different colleges with pleasant memories of the Ayer camp.

AMERICAN SOCIALISTS

Two new members were initiated and routine business was transacted at the regular meeting of the American socialist branch of the American socialists which was held last evening. It was announced that next Monday night, William E. Sproule will speak at the coper of Central and Jackson sts. Many bootleggers have been arrested in prohibition communities, but the police of Homestead, Pa., have just arrested the first stocklegger—Clara Hobson, who was caught selling liquor on the sly to passersby, and who was found to have 12 half-pints tucked away in her stocking. Some stocking!

POSTAL CO. CUTS RATES

Government Returns Wires to Private Owners—No Change in Rates by W. U.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—With control of the telegraph systems of the country formally relinquished by the government at midnight, a reduction of 20 per cent. in rates has been made immediately on the lines of the Postal company, but the Western Union will retain the schedule put into effect after Postmaster General Burleson took control, on April 1.

Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Postal announced yesterday that the rate reduction would be made "in accordance with its promise to the public." He qualified the announcement, however, by saying that if expenses continued to mount charges might have to go with them. Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union, who also has been in charge of the cable systems controlled by the government since last December, declared on the other hand:

"We cannot see our way clear to do better than we are doing at this time."

Neither would discuss the possibility of a long continued "rate war."

In his announcement Mr. Mackay said that present rates on night letters would not be distributed, but

In a statement on the stand of the Western Union, Mr. Carlton said: "The Western Union wires reach 22,625 separate communities. The only other telegraph system reaches 1700 communities, or less than 8 per cent. of the total number served by the Western Union. The offices in over 20,000 small communities exclusively served by our wires are unprofitable to the company, yet such offices are essential to the country at large and must be maintained."

Needs of Western Union employees of higher wages, he said, were recognized and they represented 56 per cent. of the total cost of providing the service. He declared that the Western Union would strive to pay its employees wages commensurate with the high cost of living and would "ask a very moderate and wholly defensible income" in return "for serving the whole public."

Rates Must Stand

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 1.—The schedule of rates of the Western Union Telegraph Co., put into effect by the postmaster general on April 1, is to continue in effect until revised, altered or changed in accordance with law by an order issued today by the public utilities commission. This action was taken in connection with the relinquishment today of federal control of the telephone and telegraph systems.

GIRL BALL PLAYERS IN THE LIMELIGHT

Local amateur baseball teams may well view with alarm the increasing amount of interest centering about the newly organized girls' baseball league at the Community Service club. Not that the girls are going to step in and usurp all of the public acclaim, but they are going to demand and receive their share, you may tell the world that.

This league of eight clubs, now practicing twice a week on the grounds of the State Normal school, is no out-law organization and although the national commission has not specified its class designation as yet, it's a safe bet it will be too fast for semi-pros and Class C players. The salaries are fixed in one plane, absolute equality to all, and by this method no knock-em-dead pitcher will be pulling down any more than one of her hard working outfielders—and believe it, these outfielders are hard worked. Pay cheques will be received daily in terms of fresh air, good health, competition and fun.

As has been stated before each of the eight teams is representative of the club companies, A, B, C, D, etc., and although all of the clubs have not selected their playing names as yet, several have and they were used last night in two hotly contested practice games staged on the school campus. Co. G, the Goat-Getters, hooked up with Co. B, the Batting Beauties, and before the six innings had gone into history the G-G's had the Beauties' goat all tied up and won out by the score of 2 to 1. Persons expecting to see any football or cricket scores hung up in these games are going to get knocked for a row of obelisks.

The other game was a mixed up affair inasmuch as the two contending teams were recruited from several different camps, but Umpire Catherine Cronin had her hands full calling close plays. Mary Healey and Gladys Ellis made up the battery for the Batting Beauties, while Sadie Melancon and Rose Lepine were in the points for the Goat-Getters. Rose and Mary O'Brien and Anna Foley, all hitting from the starboard side of the plate, swung a trio of mean bats and the rival outfielders were running wild trying to limit their drives to a single base.

Co. A very likely will choose the name of the Angel Athletes, while the Charlie Chaplins has been mentioned by C members. Co. D may be known as the Dandies, Co. H as the Hectic Hilliers, Co. I as the Insistent Invincibles and Cos. E and F combined as the Estatic Frolickers. It's going to be a merry scramble.

The official getaway of the league will be staged on Monday evening, August 11, with the Angel Athletes playing the Batting Beauties and the Charlie Chaplins against the Dandies. On Thursday and Monday evenings thereafter, elimination and consolation games will be played until the club championship is decided.

Miss Cronin and Miss Jennison, recreational directors, will umpire the games and official scorers will be appointed later. A meeting of the team captains will be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock for a serious discussion of the league rules and regulations.

Miss Violet Guerrieri
REQUESTS COURT TO HELP COLLECT "LOVE CHECK," DOES

VIOLET GUERRIERI
Just prior to his death from influenza the fiancé of Miss Violet Guerrieri of San Francisco gave her a check for $1000 as "a present of love."

Payment on the check, Miss Guerrieri says, was stopped by the dead man's brother-in-law, executor of the estate. The young woman has appealed to the courts for an order which will nullify the alleged action of the executor.

NOT THEIR FAULT THAT THEY'RE LIVING TODAY

Here's a British father and son who lived through the war, but it isn't their fault.

Sir Henry B. Rowell, the father, head of the Hawthorn Shipbuilding Co., at Newcastle-on-Tyne, built 32 battleships for England's navy, and was a member of the ministry of munitions and advisory council on British shipping. Twelve of his closest associates, all middle-aged men, dropped dead under the strain. He kept on working.

The son, Capt. B. Rowell, had the riskiest job in England—senior experimental pilot for the air ministry. It was his task personally to try out all new types of airplane and see if they would work. If they didn't—but Capt. Rowell never thought of that.

STRIKE IN GERMANY. CHICAGO RIOTS AT END

Trouble Results From Refusel to Release Radical
Hunger Strikers

BERLIN, Rhinisch Prussia, Thursday, July 31 (By the Associated Press).
—Since the recent defeat of the resolution of the independent socialists in the national assembly at Weimar, calling for the release of radical hunger strikers, the Spartacan and communist leaders in the coal area have taken matters into their own hands. The employees at the Diergardt mine struck today. Dodgers are in circulation calling for a strike in the entire Ruhr district.
The Spartacans now demand, in addition to the release of the hunger workers, the removal of martial law.
The situation is critical, because coal

The local army recruiting station is doing a bustling business in the distribution of buttons to Lowell men who served in the army in the world war and have been honorably discharged. In the past two days no less than 100 men have received the coveted emblems.

Private Franz, a member of the local station's recruiting staff, who held the rank of lieutenant in the war but whose rank was demoted owing to the return of the army personnel to its peace time basis, has learned that he will be entitled to wear a stripe of forest-green on his sleeve as a designation that he held a commission during the war.

certainty as to the disposition of the mandates for the government of territories in the near east. The reports of the commission entrusted with the delineation of the Bulgarian boundaries are conditioned upon what disposition is to be made of Turkey and consequently the general disposition is to await decisions on this point, which are regarded as resting chiefly with the attitude of the American public towards the acceptance by the United States of a mandate in Asia Minor.

The proposed withdrawal of British troops from Asiatic Turkey renders the unsettled conditions recently reported there more alarming, in the opinion of members of the peace conference, who regard the danger of sorious military movements and general anarchy in Asia Minor as not at all remote and as constituting probably the most disquieting situation in the present world crisis.

Expressions by conferees have made it apparent that desire for acceptance by the United States of the mandate over Armenia is becoming keener every day among the delegates of the principal powers, but the American delegation is making no promises whatever, as President Wilson made it clear before leaving Paris that the action of the United States would depend upon the senate. It is known that the British and French delegates feel that America's decision to undertake a mandate in Asia Minor would immediately quiet the Turks, who are bitterly opposed to the European powers.

In some circles it has been rumored that the Persians are assisting the Turks in carrying up disorders in Asia Minor, but there is no proof of this in Paris, and many of the conference members feel that the Persians are having sufficient troubles of their own and that they would be unable to lend a hand to a general Mohammedan movement against the western powers even if they desired to do so.

Virtually all other controversies in the peace conference have been overshadowed for the moment by the Turkish situation, as many of the delegates say that neglect of it indistinguished will mean that Turkey may again overrun the Balkans and continue as a trouble maker in the near east.

Auctioneer John Farrell and scores of bargain hunters invaded the Waverly hotel today and began the task of stripping that well known hostelry of every vestige of its former glory.
The sale was begun at 10 o'clock and was still in session at the time of going to press.

Second hand dealers, hotel men, lodging house keepers and others swarmed in and actually took the place by storm, but there were not as many "bargains" perhaps as they expected.
The big drive seemed to be for mattresses and the springs that supported them. The sale was started upstairs and the auctioneer gradually worked his way down to the street floor.

There are men in Lowell and elsewhere who like to go to funerals.
There are men in Lowell and elsewhere who never miss an auction.
About all of Lowell's auction fans were present at the Waverly hotel sale, not because they wanted to buy anything, but just to be counted
"among these present."

There was some fairly good stuff disposed of, likewise a miscellaneous collection of rather dilapidated and nondescript articles, that have been part and parcel of the Waverly since the days of Jack Derby.

There was a similar auction at the

PRETTY CHICAGO MERMAIDS

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Of course, everybody rooted for the two prettiest girls in the race, and of course, with such support they won. And here they are with the smile of victory. It was an unofficial preliminary to the Eleventh Annual Chicago River Marathon. Four girls who wanted to enter the big swim

Revero house, Boston, a few days ago when auctioneers and prospective buyers invaded the famous "Royal suite," which has sheltered in its day such personages as the Prince of Wales
(later King Edward), Daniel Webster,
Bathurst, Christine Nilsson, Grand Duke
Alexis, King Kalakaua and the Emperor Dom Pedro.

The Waverly hotel could not boast of such famous personages, but once upon a time a man stopped there who registered as "Lord Duke Mpileckeack." That was years ago and the "Lord Duke" went away owing his hotel bill and a lot of other bills. He was a crook of the first water, and Lowell people whom he swindled with an old-fashioned film-fam game never got any return for their money. He succeeded in evading the police, too.

But while the nobility, artists and others of renown never slept beneath the hospitable roof of the Waverly hotel, it was a well known hostelry and it was known throughout the country especially because of the quality of the food served there. No public house in the country served better steaks and chops, and that was its reputation to the end.

The Old Time Guests

Many of the men who patronized the hotel for years occupied seats in the office today and one could almost experience a feeling of sadness as they spun yarns of former days. It was plain to be seen that they felt the passing of the hotel and the blotting out of forever of memories that were more or less interesting because of incidents and conditions; the banquets, the political rallies, the New Year's eve and other parties, and last but not least, the many interesting and enlightening arguments peacefully indulged in when the bloom was on the clover and prohibition in the cradle.

In one of the chairs sat a fellow who had made the Waverly his home for 18 years; his home to the extent that he took his meals and spent considerable of his leisure time there. He smoked a cigar and tried to look unconcerned, but it wasn't hard to detect a bid of sadness in his voice and when somebody asked the names of the men in a group picture hanging on the wall he reeled off the names with an ease born of familiarity and good fellowship. Some of those whose names he called have passed on. Business men and legislators were included in the group and the man who knew them all said to a friend a little later: "Bid that picture in for me. I must go now, but be sure and get me the picture." And this particular picture was not the only one that sold on sentiment.

The Waverly was always very popular with tourists and two automobile parties called today while the sale was on. They were grieved and disappointed to learn that the hotel and its famous steaks, chops and lobsters were no more.

Victory Fund Committee Approves Partition—English Plan Condemned

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—The suggestion by English influences that the aspiration of Ireland to be free be obliterated by the establishment of two states and two state governments in Ireland was condemned last night in a statement issued by the advisory committee of the Irish Victory fund. The committee declares that 85 per cent of the Irish people are opposed to this idea and determinedly in favor of self-determination and independence for Erin.

Attempt to Vail Issue

"The latest attempt to draw attention from the real Irish issue, that of independence, appeared in an article in the London Times, which has been copied by several papers in this country. It purports to offer a solution of the Irish problem within the empire, that is, short of complete independence. It suggests the establishment of two states and two state governments in Ireland, Ulster being one and the rest of Ireland the other. It suggests a future 'possible' all Irish parliament, upon a basis of equal representation of each state, but does not provide for it as an essential.

"This is but another effort to temporize. The principal objection to it is that it is not independence, and Ireland demands independence. It destroys for all time the unity of Ireland. It is not suggested by the government but by the London Times.

Government Not Behind Scheme

"While it recommends a larger element of fiscal autonomy for Ireland than any former scheme, that very fact denotes that the government is not behind it; and that Ulster will not accept it. England refuses to 'coerce' Ulster. Ulster insists that the control of taxation of all kinds must be in the imperial parliament. That this power of taxation is not only the symbol, but the very essence of union. Ulster, therefore, will not consider this plan.

Even if Ulster did, the rest of Ireland would not.

"In effect it partitions Ireland, yet the Lloyd George 'selected' Irish convention, in which no Sinn Féin delegates would sit, and which was therefore not radical, by a vote of 52 to 19, voted against such partition. Sir Horace Plunkett, George Russell, neither a Sinn Féiner, are both opposed to it. At least 85 per cent of Ireland is opposed to it, as was shown by the December, 1918, election.

Partition is Unthinkable

"A series of articles, recently published by the same newspaper syndicate as has published this article, in setting forth Ireland's salvation (author unnamed), stated that partition was unthinkable, that Ulster's own future lay with Ireland, that two states with duplicate governmental expenses were impossible of maintenance and impracticable. No scheme dividing Ulster from Ireland is to be considered for an instant.

"But let us analyze the scheme and see its absurdities. Ulster's nine counties are to be one state because of unionist sentiment demands it. The remaining 23 counties, comprising the provinces of Leinster, Munster and Connaught, are to be the 'other state.' But of Ulster three counties are Sinn Féin, five of the nine have Catholic majorities, and only four have unionist majorities. In no Ulster county, even in Belfast city, is there a solid unionist representation.

Ulster Would Never Consent

"The all-Ireland parliament is not an essential of the scheme. An act of the imperial parliament creating such a parliament under this plan would have to be accepted by both states. Ulster from her present attitude would never consent. Therefore, Ireland would forever be partitioned. If, however, such a parliament were possible, the plan is to give the unionists of the northeast portion of Ulster, not more than 15 per cent of the people of Ireland, a representation in the Irish parliament equal to the remaining 85 per cent of Ireland; 600,000 people to have the same representation as the remaining 3,700,000. The convention offered 40 per cent representation, which was more than fair, and it was refused. Ulster refuses everything save 100 per cent representation, and that a pledged vote in advance for union.

Proportional Representation

"Why drag in the five counties of Cavan with 85 per cent Catholics; Donegal with 79 per cent, Monaghan with 71 per cent, Tyrone with 55 per cent, Fermanagh with 56 per cent? If the theory is that the Catholic county majorities, becoming an Ulster province minority, will be fully protected, the same argument applies as to the Ulster minority in a free and independent Ireland. If there is to be an Irish parliament it must be on a fair proportional representation. In this country to effect the state representation in the United States senate, we have the house of representatives elected on a proportional representation.

"Further, the delegation from Ulster to the Irish parliament is to represent the unionist majority of Ulster. So far as the plan goes this might be a solid unionist delegation, representing but one-seventh of the people, blocking the six-sevenths in their desire for progress and unity.

Education is Controlled

"The power of the Irish parliament is negated by Ulster, having a permanent veto as to all legislation affecting her. The British parliament is to have the supreme power over the Irish parliament and over the states. No power save that expressly delegated is to be possessed by the Irish parliament or by the states. Education is controlled in effect by the imperial parliament.

"In other words, the remedy offered is worse than the disease. It is politically inexpedient, morally unjust and legally wrong. It sacrifices the real Irish of Ireland to the anti-Irish of northeast Ulster. It dishonors Irish patriotism and honors Ulster unionism. The Sinn Féiner is a man with

TO COMMEMORATE AMERICAN VALOR IN THE WAR AGAINST GERMANY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—James L. Wilmet, director of the bureau of engraving, has arranged to commemorate American valor in the war against Germany on securities to be issued by the government. Artists of the bureau are making plates of charging infantrymen, portrayed with historical accuracy in the uniform and equipment in use during the war. Another design inspired by the war is triumphant liberty, soaring in clouds above the capitol dome.

Fatness Kills 31,000 Yearly

Fat is fatal to health and personality. It is estimated that over 31,000 persons have died each year in the past decade long before their allotted span of life, through the effects of excessive fatness. Any overcast man or woman is carrying a deadly liability that is pressing against and injuring vital organs of the body. The heart, that delicate human apparatus, becomes congested. In numerous cases there are dangerous gatherings of packed fat around the throat, stomach, liver and other delicate parts.

Through overindulgence the afflicted person, while apparently well, is liable to nervousness, neuritis, physical or mental collapse and other disorders, for obesity is irritating. Cases of heart failure, apoplexy, sunstroke, etc., are frequent causes of premature death. Fat persons are particularly victims of accidents and are more liable than healthy, slender persons to death from influenza, pneumonia and other severe ailments.

If you are overweight you should know it is truly a case of slow suicide. It is to kill yourself a good many years before actual death. The cause you do not know is your fatness. The burden of unhealthy fatness is heavy. However, your efficiency should be increased by becoming slimmer. Also your appearance should become more attractive. There is a deliciously successful method of weight reduction known as Kora's system. It consists of some simple directions with the use of oil of Kora. This method is so pleasant because it contains no harsh or other drastic ingredients, no strenuous exercises, no starvation. Indeed, you may eat all you desire. The Kora system is guaranteed to bring about permanent results by physicians. A reliable outfit, sent by mail, will give you more information. By reducing your excess weight you get greater contentment, brightness, increased mental and physical efficiency, better health and a longer life. Be fair to yourself and those who are dear to you! Surprise everybody with your renewed vigor, vitality and unparelleled superior personality. Get oil of Kora (the easy Kora system) in each bottle at the drug store without delay, or if more convenient, send $1.00 cash, stamps or money order to Kora Co., N.M. Co., Station 2, New York, N. Y.

REMOVE COFFIN TAX

Because of the decision of the bureau of internal revenue to remove the 5 per cent tax on coffins and burial caskets mounted with silver plate and trimmings, local undertakers are entitled to a rebate of any taxes paid on caskets since April 1, 1919. The tax has been removed as the result of a vigorous fight made by the casket makers.

TO END PENNY GRAFTING

H. C. L. Probers to Make Dishonest Merchants Come to Hub and Explain

STATE HOUSE, Boston, Aug. 1.—Penny profiteering is apt to prove expensive for many small business men, particularly grocers and small wares dealers. If the plans of the state commission to investigate high prices is carried out.

Bakers and grocers who add a single penny to the cost of a loaf of bread are the chief offenders being sought and many of them—hundreds of them, in fact, all over Massachusetts—are apt to be summoned to appear before the commission. They will be obliged to pay their carfare to Boston from their home and also the expenses of the return trip, not to speak of the money it will cost to pass the day in the capital and the loss of their day's work. Some of them are apt to be asked to appear a number of times, so that explaining the penny extra profit

That is one of the plans the commission has in mind for putting an end to the petty graft involved in those transactions, and in numbers of instances it has come to the attention of the inquiry board that the penny profit is not levied impartially on all customers, but that some few are selected as visitors. Generally these are the "outlanders" while the townspeople get away at a cheaper rate.

Another form of petty graft that will require explanation is the charge of the luxury tax on soft drinks up to the customer. It so happens that milk shakes, eggs drinks and many other drinks sold over the soda fountains are not subject to the tax. The proprietors, however, have charged the tax indiscriminately on all drinks, reaping a veritable harvest in some of the stores. Some of the largest dealers in the state are likely to be caught up on that charge and it is apt to be a serious matter for them, since the law of this year provides that the attorney general may act in case of "unreasonable" price fixing. Charging up a federal tax on articles that are not taxable, simply because others sold at the same counter are, constitutes the misdemeanor of obtaining money under false pretences and is very apt to result in criminal action.

The rent profiteers everywhere are on the list of those to be given the once-over, although it is admitted that there is small chance of doing more than "show them up" unless it so happens that they were foolish enough to act in concert with other really operators to boost rents. Then men who use tax increases as the excuse for rent-raises are to be put on the rack for explanations. Those who have suffered an $18 or $20 tax-increase and proceeded to raise rents $30 to $40 a year are very likely in consequence of the inquiry to secure a lot of free advertising which may interfere with their future popularity.

These are only a few of the things that are to be investigated, but assurance is given that there will be plenty of others. It is the penny profiteer, however, who is in for the worst grilling, and, from the number of complaints that are coming in, the com-

AMUSEMENT NOTES

THE STRAND
"My Little Sister," the photoplay made from a novel which has accomplished real reforms, and with Evelyn Nesbit in the principal part, was shown for the first time yesterday at The Strand, and proved a most convincing argument against the toleration of white slavery in any of its forms. It is a production that goes straight to the heart. Its argument cannot be impeached. It is one of the greatest pictures of the day. Emmy Wehlen, a most attractive star, is also seen in "Fools and Their Money," a satire on the newly rich and their penchant for climbing the social ladder. This combination of pictures proves unbeatable. But, in addition there is shown The Strand weekly and a comedy, Mildred Efford, the talented singer, gives several songs and the organ recital is a deservedly popular feature.

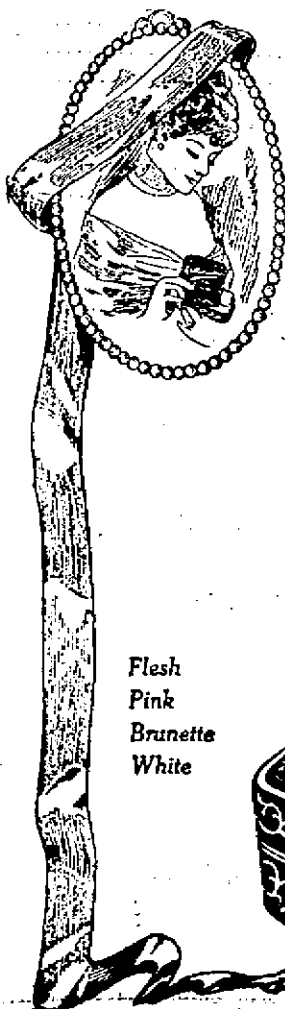

"OPEN YOUR EYES," STORY OF UNFORTUNATE GIRL, AT NEWMARK SQUARE THEATRE

The insidious cocktail plays an important part in "Open Your Eyes," the sensational photoplay prepared under the supervision of the United States public health service. The insidious cocktail has played an important part in the life of many a young girl whose curiosity had been aroused by hearing the drink spoken of more or less familiarly. And in the foolish desire to be thought one of the real girls she tries one. Now, it is quite doubtful if any person really liked their first cocktail, especially those of the heavier sort.

the taste is an acquired one, in most instances, and lucky the frivolous young lady whose stomach will not permit her to indulge in more than one. But the strange taste of the drink, which ordinarily causes a shiver to follow the first one, leads to the substitution of something else on the next round, and in many cases the substitute is champagne. After that moderation is sent flying. The particular young girl whose case is illustrated in "Open Your Eyes" has been brought up wrong from the start. Her mother, a butterfly of fashion, has practically neglected the girl, who, left to her own resources for amusement, has fallen into the company of a rather fast crowd of young people. Then comes the foolish, wealthy aunt, who supplies him with money for his dissipation. His personality appeals to the young girl and, unknown to her mother, she accepts an invitation to a roof garden where dancing is followed by an elaborate lunch, which starts with the cocktail and winds up with wine. In the gilded cage in which the young rake installs her, she has ample time to reflect upon her folly and, being a sensible girl, is wise enough to reform.

READING ADS IS THRIFT
Is it worth while to save money and time? Money in many cases is the product of time and labor. The average working man has three things to sell, his skill, his industry, and his time. If he is not industrious for his employer, his skill won't amount to anything and he will not be wanted. The stores that advertise keep busy in a quick turnover of stock. They believe in quick sales and small profits.
It is a good conclusion to follow, that the stores enterprising enough to advertise are also making an asset of good service at their counters. The mere fact that they advertise is an assertion that they have quality goods worth advertising. Here, then, is the proposition. If you patronize a store that is an enterprising advertiser, you will be doing business with a firm selling a good quality of merchandise and you will probably save time, money and trouble. It certainly pays to follow the ads in

That is rather an alarming statement made by William G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen when he predicts that something in the nature of a revolution is imminent in this country if radical steps be not taken to reduce the high cost of living. Let us hope it is not a threat. It is perhaps to his credit to say that "all of us are to blame because we are exerting every effort to get more money for ourselves and better conditions."

In spite of this admission, he charges the high cost of living to profiteers which is not entirely true. Everybody knows that the inflation due to the war and to our great loans help to put up prices, or in other words, to depreciate the currency. There is no doubt but that profiteers are in part responsible for the high prices of some commodities, but when it comes to profiteering and stern demands upon employers, there is no trust in the country that is more responsible for present conditions than the several Brotherhoods of Railroad Trainmen.

In the past they have enforced their demands for higher wages by threatening to tie up the transportation business of the country; and now they come forward with another proposition which amounts to the same, which is that unless the cost of living is pushed downward by government intervention, the railroad trainmen must get a radical increase in wages.

The high cost of living is not pressing nearly so hard upon the Brotherhoods as upon other crafts and even upon many manufacturing concerns and employers who find their profits taken away in high taxes, leaving perhaps less than some laborers earn or receive in wages.

The race riots at Washington and Chicago have stirred up racial strife in other sections, a thing which is most regrettable but this has nothing to do with the high cost of living. It is an element of disturbance, however, that must be taken care of and strictly held in check. The high cost of living has made people restive and if the government can do anything to reduce the high prices or to stop the upward tendency it should lose no time in attending to that business.

SHANTUNG CLEARING
The Japanese explanation of the Shantung affair seems to remove much of its terror as an international bogey. Japan states that she has not yet received all the papers from Germany transferring her former claims to a portion of China, and that until she does, she cannot say with certainty whether there is any leased territory in addition to the Kiaochow concession.

Japan has already promised to return this territory to China but it seems that she has imposed conditions with which China may not be willing to comply; but China did not dictate terms to Germany. Japan is pledged to return Kiaochow to China if not within six months, certainly within a year. That promise was made in 1915 in the treaty with China and the Japanese authorities do not feel that they are under any obligation to make a special declaration to the United States. China by refusing to sign the peace treaty has complicated the matter, and should the United States also refuse, this country would then seem to be the champion of China as against

While the work of reconstruction demands attention throughout the country, congress, and particularly the senate, is devoting its time chiefly to muckraking in search of political issues for the campaign of 1920. Instead of grappling with the problems of reconstruction, the senators are delving into the records of the war, trying to find evidence of extravagance and mismanagement. Thus far, they have not been able to discover anything of importance, nor do we believe they will find what they want should they continue their crusade to the end of the year.

TRYING THE EX-KAISER
Most people are of the opinion that it would be poor policy to try the ex-kaiser in London or any other British city. It would savor too much of the old Roman custom of having vanquished kings and princes paraded as captives and forced to pass under the yoke amid the jeers and jubilation of the populace. Moreover, if the ex-kaiser is to be tried for causing an unjust war, there are several ruling sovereigns of great prominence who might, with equal justice, be proceeded against on similar grounds.

The war has been fought and won. The expenses were enormous, but the nation demanded quick and decisive action. That was what brought speedy victory and promptly terminated the terrible struggle. If the red tape methods of doing business were departed from in some instances, it was not without good reason; and whether the republicans can show extravagance or blunders the people care but little now. They are not interested in what is beyond recall. If mistakes were made in the conduct of the war, they cannot now be remedied any more than can the blunders and mismanagement of the Spanish-American war, which was but a mere skirmish compared with the struggle overseas.

When the good ship Tulsa, named for one of Oklahoma's thriving boom cities, was launched the other day at Hog Island, the delegation of christeners from Oklahoma announced that the baptismal liquid instead of the customary champagne, would be the state's proudest product, crude oil. So crude oil it was. But it is not recorded that the thousands of persons whose names are on the lists of promoters selling fake oil stock to get-rich-quick "suckers," worked up any great amount of enthusiasm over Tulsa's renunciation of high browed booze in christening.

When some birds leave their native environment they take on different habits and many times "put on airs." Former Congressman Joe Bailey of Texas, departing for his duties at Washington for the first time, is reported to have told the boys back at home that he would never wear a dress suit. He wanted 'em to know he was a plebeian. Well, in the course of time the Texans "swapped hosesses" and let someone else have Joe's Washington job. Joe now, however, lives in a young palace in Washington, wears full dress suits on the slightest provocation and rides about in a limousine.

Loving hearts in Massachusetts learn while former Governor Foss was pinched for money during the past year and many rumors that he was insolvent spread about, the Boston News Bureau has officially announced "Gena was never actually insolvent. Dean Archer of Suffolk law school will be glad to learn this good news, too."

There is a question as to whether or not we can view Europe's future with enthusiasm. Europe now owes the United States $10,000,000,000 and says if we would lend her $10,000,000,000 she thinks she could get on her feet. We are a humane people all right over here but how long are we going to be able to stay in this business of salvaging cripples?

If you take a trip to the Argentine this fall, you will be glad to find that the American dollar has reached par. In other words, you can buy as much with an American dollar down there as you can with the Argentine dollar or the equivalent, and we wouldn't be surprised if an American dollar would buy more in the Argentine than it would in the United States.

Ironically enough up to date there doesn't seem to be any law that reaches the case of that Wisconsin brewer who, sending out his punchless beer for patrons has a printed label pasted on the bottle which reads, "Don't mix with this beer or it will be intoxicating."

Yes, indeed, "life is a curious mixture of things."
"Yes, it was a funny world in those days," remarked Mr. William B. H. name, August 16, 1919: "Why I just read in a history about the race riots they used to indulge in on days when there were no bull fights or prize fights. And they used to hang people and they used to let some men pull down a million dollars a year and keep others in what they called the 'poorhouse.'"

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN
My friend, John F. Golden, speaks optimistically of the prospects for the erection of a permanent chapel at Lakeview and says that the preliminary arrangements are surely an augury of ultimate success. With the exception of Rev. Michael C. Gilbride, no one has exerted more personal effort or spent more time in the interest of the movement than Mr. Golden. He is never at the full tide of happiness unless he is engaged in some praiseworthy endeavor, helping a meritorious cause. He has a healthy, energetic and seeing an idea through to its final analysis is all his own and if there is not a lot of enthusiasm raised among a big crowd of hustlers for the chapel project it will not be the fault or the unselfish work of Mr. Golden.

The first of the checks due Lowell service men for the $100 gratuity granted by the state to every man who took part in the world war are due to arrive in this city from the office of State Treasurer Burrill early next week. Preceding the checks themselves will come the discharge papers of the service men which had to be sent to Boston for purposes of verification of the statements made by the men on their application blanks. Many of these have already been sent back from Boston with the notice that the $100 check would follow in a few days. Lack of help and the overwhelming task before them proved a double disadvantage to the employees of the treasury office, but the task has been accomplished.

I notice that there is a proposition to repeal the tax on soft drinks, but I haven't seen any to lift the tax on medicines. Perhaps medicines are more "luxurious" than soft drinks. Or is it that the manufacturers and dealers in soft drinks can get this tax off while no one is interested in the removal of the tax on medicine, which the poorest citizen must have at times and which is even now abnormally high?

It is a very interesting sight to witness the boys and girls picking up wood at the building of the Lowell City Institution for Savings in Shattuck street, which is being demolished for the erection of a modern banking structure. A couple of mornings ago while going through Shattuck street I noticed no less than nine boys and seven girls gathering up the pieces of lumber that had been discarded and placing them in their little carts. Some were equipped with two-wheel carts, while others had small express wagons. In some instances the children had no conveyances of any kind, but carried the wood in their arms. I questioned one of the youngsters.

AN INTERNAL TREATMENT FOR PILES (HEMORRHOIDS)
Gives absolute relief from all pain and suffering. Has never failed. Many people have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was no remedy for their case.
Go to your druggist and get an original bottle of Miro Pile Remedy, the discovery of a clever Ohio chemist, that taken internally, passes unchanged through the stomach and intestines, and thus reaches the source of the trouble where, by its soothing, healing, antiseptic action, it first allays and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles causes them to heal and disappear forever.
It is positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Pierced relief often comes in two or three days. Even in cases that have resisted all previously known treatments, really wonderful results have been accomplished. It is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed in his use can have their money refunded.
Just read what Mr. F. M. Smith of 2313 Broadway, Lorain, Ohio, says: "For Piles, I recommend Miro Remedy for 15 years and tried everything that was recommended. I do suffer for years and was a constant sufferer with hemorrhoids. I took two bottles of Miro and was entirely cured. Any sufferer using it will never regret it."
All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it is worth the little trouble to obtain the best of piles forever.
"Miro Pile Remedy" is known as "Miro Pile Remedy" because it is a true case of cure. For this condition Miro Pile Remedy has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription.
For your druggist cannot supply you with Miro Pile Remedy, either of the above, mail charges paid, in receipt of $1.00. Internal Treatment $1.50. War Tax 50c. Guarantee Remedies Co., Inc., Ohio. Adv.

OUTDOOR MOVIES AND COMMUNITY SING

Outdoor movies and singing attracted a large crowd to the South common last night, where an excellent program was put on under the direction of the city. The community singing which preceded the pictures was led by a member of the United States Cartridge Co. band, and he had no difficulty in bringing out a big volume of sound with a thousand kids for a hugeous. The picture show lasted an hour and a half, from 8:15 until about 10:15 o'clock.

INCOME TAX FRAUDS FARE INCREASE ALLOWED

English and O'Brien Get 18 Months and Fined $10,000 Each

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—After a battle of more than a year's duration to keep out of jail, the feature of which was an order to pay $1,500,000 to satisfy the claim of the internal revenue department against them, William A. English and John H. O'Brien, members of the firm of English & O'Brien, wool merchants, were each sentenced to 18 months in the Greenfield jail and to pay a fine of $10,000 by Judge George W. Anderson in the federal district court yesterday afternoon for conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the payment of income taxes.

Both defendants pleaded to the indictment early in June. The legal battle was in progress long before that time and continued even after sentence had been pronounced, when Charles F. Choate, chief counsel for the defendants, moved for a stay of execution of the sentence, which was denied by Judge Anderson.

The only point which counsel for the defendants was able to gain in the case was the designation of the place of imprisonment, and even then it was only a partial victory. United States Attorney Thomas J. Boynton suggested the federal penitentiary at Atlanta in view of the importance of the case, which he declared was the biggest tax fraud case in the country, and because he desired the community and the defendants, too, to be impressed adequately.

Atty. Choate expressed surprise at the wish of the district attorney to send the defendants to Atlanta, and pleaded for Plymouth so that the families of the two men might be near them and that they might also keep in closer touch with their business affairs. Because of the children of the defendants Judge Anderson decided against Atlanta, but favored Greenfield, which was Mr. Boynton's second choice.

English and O'Brien went to Greenfield last night in the custody of United States Deputy Marshals James A. Tighe and Bernard E. Bradley, leaving the federal building by the freight elevator to escape photographers.

Commission Consents to Three Months' Trial on Middlesex & Boston

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—The public service commission is of the opinion that the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway company should be allowed to put into effect, with some modifications, its proposed 10 cent fare schedule for a trial period of three months when it may be called upon to prove that the increase should continue.

The commission expresses the opinion that a readjustment of fare zones with a 5-cent fare "would seem to offer possibilities that would justify a trial." The company, according to the finding, expressed its willingness to try "any well considered plan which seemed preferable to the commission," but pending the consideration of such plan asked that the fares as filed be allowed to become effective. The company's inability to meet current expenses and taxes and the fact the employees are negotiating for a further increase of wages makes the demand for additional revenue "immediate and urgent," says the commission. The commission says it is not optimistic in regard to the revenue that a 10-cent fare will produce, but does not feel justified in overruling the judgment of the company's officials.

The commission, in its finding made public early last evening at the state house, advises the company that the revenue received within the two fare zones on the main line between Newton Lower Falls and Framingham depot does not justify an increase of the 3 cents. It orders that tickets at the rate of six for 50 cents without transfer privileges should be made available on the two zones mentioned. The commission finds that any plan for readjustment on the Lexington and Boston division would involve a detailed study and probably could not be worked out in less than two or three months.

The new tariff, the commission says, subject to the modifications mentioned, will be allowed to become effective on two days' notice to the commission and the public with the understanding that the whole question be opened for review at the end of a three months' trial period, "with the burden of proof on the company to show at that time that the new fares should be permitted to remain in force."

COMMUNICATION

Lowell, July 31, '19.
Editor Sun:—I see on your editorial page of this date a quotation from the Daily News Record concerning the price of wheat. If I read correctly I saw it stated some months ago that congress had made an appropriation of one billion dollars to apply on the 1919 wheat crop which was estimated to be one billion bushels. Now if this is correct it would mean a reduction of five dollars per barrel for flour as it is estimated that it takes five bushels of wheat for a barrel of flour. During the war Canada was sending every energy in men and resources to assist the mother country, but at no time were the people of Canada paying anything like the prices we were paying for the necessities of life. They had a man by the name of Borden at the head of their food organization who apparently did his whole duty. When we were paying one dollar a peck for potatoes they were being sold for less than that per bushel in Canada. I feel that there was something in this country that will spend his time in this country looking after the interests of Americans. There is much said about the laboring class not being able to live on their wages which have been increased from one to two hundred per cent. in the last few years. How about that great class who is trying to "eke out an existence on a fixed salary or income. I think it about time that our government, from president down, should get busy and do something to relieve the whole people."

By all means make the appropriation, if it has not already been made, and let the farmers help pay the tax. Why should they at this time get such a price for an article that affects the whole list of prices so materially. Mr. Editor, you cannot render this country any nobler service than to keep this subject at the head of your editorial page as the Frederick Gleason did the "Bogon." Borden kept the strangling hands of the profiteers from the throats of the people. You may with others doubt that some of the statements made in this note are true, but you can easily verify them, as I hope you may do, as it will lead you to see many more glaring comparisons. ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. AMERICAN.

Not legally of course, although British subjects who have been out of the country for years have been known to return to vote in political contests.—Ed.

10 CENTS A BOX

TO TAKE CONTROL OUT OF HANDS OF GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Thursday, July 31 (By the Associated Press).—The international trades union congress resuming its sessions today, discussed rules for the new internationale. An endeavor to take control out of the hands of Germany, which hitherto dominated the internationale, is in the making.

The draft of the new rules contains a proviso giving one vote for every quarter million workers represented as against one for each million, as heretofore. The smaller nations would have a representative for any fraction of a quarter million workers.

Samuel Gompers told the congress he represented the Pan-American federation of 21 republics and that it was advisable, owing to the events of recent years, to group Spain with the Spanish-speaking South American states as the Spanish delegate had proposed.

A regular conference of the international federation will be held every two years, the bureau to decide upon the place for holding the meeting.

FOSS MAY RUN FOR GOVERNOR

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Close political friends of former Governor Eugene N. Foss positively declared last night that the "Old Boy" would announce his candidacy for governor of the state today, on an independent ticket, with a brand new platform, advocating complete government ownership of railroads and railways.

When seen by a reporter early last evening at Rowe's wharf where he was boarding a Nantasket boat for his summer home in Cohasset, the governor denied that he was going to the papers today, but he declared that he would have a "big story for the paper tomorrow."

The former governor then issued a statement positively denying the previously printed report of his candidacy for attorney-general of the state. "Why, it's absurd to think that I would run for attorney-general," he declared. "That job is a lawyer's position and I am no lawyer. Please say for me that I never entertained an idea of running for attorney-general."

"I can say no more regarding my candidacy for governor tonight. I have been so busy with my mail from all over the state from big and little politicians urging me to run for a fourth time, that really I have no statement prepared."

"All I can say tonight is that I shall not file papers tomorrow, but I will have a most important story to give out tomorrow afternoon." The governor then waxed warm over the issue of government ownership of public utilities, especially the railroads and railways.

WAR DEPARTMENT HAS ANOTHER SERIOUS FIRE THINGS TO SELL AT MANCHESTER, N. H.

An excellent opportunity for local dealers or for individuals to secure some materials secured by the war department during the war but no longer needed is presented in a communication received at the mayor's office today from the zone supply office in Boston. One lot specified is the balance of salvaged material taken from the sunken steamship, "Port Huron." The lot includes 43,000 pairs of rubber boots, 41,000 woolen undershirts, 120 reels of wire mesh and 10,000 pairs of woolen stockings. These articles will be placed on sale at the north pier shed of the army supply base in Boston at 10.30 a. m. Aug. 11 and the sale will continue until the goods are all sold.

A cash deposit of 50 per cent. will be required and the rest will be payable when the invoices are received.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 1.—Another serious tenement house fire broke out here yesterday morning, driving 17 families from their homes.

The fire started in the house at Chestnut and Penacook streets shortly after 6 a. m. Miss Agnes McKenna, who lives in one of the tenements aroused the other six members of her family and then aroused the other tenants. There were no casualties.

The loss is $3500. Although the fire was in another section of the city from that which was swept by the disastrous fire last week, the blaze yesterday morning caused considerable excitement, owing to the great number of wooden tenements in the district.

BOX MAKER CAME BACK

Mr. Frank P. Hoyt of 1 Coffee Ave., Haverhill, Mass., the well known box maker, suffered for quite a while with stomach trouble and catarrh. He was operated upon several years ago and since then has not felt entirely well. A short time ago, he heard of Goldine and went to the drug store for some. After taking the first bottle, he came back, saying he could eat better, and was having less trouble with gas. He believed it was helping him, and said he was going to stick to it. A short time later he returned and said: "I am convinced that Goldine is a great medicine and it has surely helped me. I am telling the fellows in the shop about it."

The Call-'em

Mr. Johnson says: "Nothing doing. Mr. Mays has been suspended indefinitely" and Mr. Frazee replies: "Rasberries, I should worry." All of which makes very snaky reading. The Boston club evidently is so tickled to have Mays off its hands that any statement made by the league head bothers not a whit.

All of Kid Gleason's optimistic assertions that his pitching staff is O.K. and that the White Sox are above earthly worries got a staggering blow when the boss of the Chicago club gobbled up Don Carlos "Pat" Ragan the second the Giants turned him adrift. Actions down the thundering of mere words.

If by any chance the Mays deal does go through and the Red Sox get Russell and young McGraw and take their pick of one of six Yanks to be lined up for inspection and selection and then take Derrill Pratt and then swap him to Connie Mack for Scott Perry, George Stallings will make 25 round trips of the Atlantic in nothing flat and turn 54 disgusted handsprings over the left field wall. He never could stand the irony of it.

It appears that the much discussed and protested Cincinnati-Pittsburgh game which was completed at Cincinnati last Sunday with a victory for the Reds has fomented a fine young flock of protests. The Pirates now kick in with a protest against the first game played that day which was won by the Patrons, 3 to 3, and say that a run scored for the victors was gained when a thrown ball went into the crowd and that according to the ground rules established the runner was entitled to third base only. If the game is played, the Pirates probably will win by twice the former margin.

Introducing Mr. Hoyt

The work of young Walter Hoyt yesterday placed the stamp of approval on the recent purchase of this 19-year-old hurler from a Baltimore shipyard team. Hoyt could not have picked a meaner team for the boy in his maiden start than the snarling Tigers, but he went through 12 grueling innings like a seasoned campaigner, fanned five and issued only two free passes to first. It paralleled the debut of Ray Collins for the Sox some years ago, although in the Yankees' first game, also against Detroit, he scored a 3-0 shutout.

In Easter Company

Floriot, former Lowell pitcher of excess weight, who drifted out of the N.E.L. when the league went through the condensing process, has been working irregularly for Providence in the Eastern league since that time and going fairly well. He beat Hartford yesterday, 3 to 1, allowing but four hits and fanning five batters.

The salaried man can make enough in a week to hire a poor down-trodden laboring man to work for him one day—a six hour day.

NO BOUTS HERE TONIGHT

Clinton Injured and Show is Called Off—Bouts in Lawrence Tomorrow

There will be no boxing bouts at the Crescent A.A. tonight.

Late yesterday afternoon Matchmaker McDermott received word from New York that Johnny Clinton had strained a ligament in training and would not come here for his bout with Eddie Moy. He asked for a postponement for a few weeks as he is anxious to meet the Allantown brawler, Moy, who in Boston is the only one he would be willing to meet. His manager preparatory to coming here, Matchmaker McDermott got in touch with Moy's manager and told him of the news from New York. He asked Moy would he willing to meet Paul Doyle, but he declined claiming that Doyle was too heavy. No other capable man could be secured so McDermott called off the entire show.

Bouts at Lawrence

There is considerable interest throughout the Merrimack valley in the bout to be put on at the Lawrence ball park tomorrow afternoon, with Doug Kloby, the home king of the famous Yankee Division and Johnny Donovan of South Boston, as the leading performers. Kloby is a Lawrence boy but the home folks have only seen him in action once since his return from overseas. That night he won from Phinney Boyle in one round—hence the very little idea of his abilities. Since that time he has fought three bouts, all in Boston and they resulted in three victories for the soldier-luxer. One of his victims was Donovan, but he gave Kloby a hard battle up until the eighth when the Lawrence lad happened over his famous hymnbook. Donovan has taken on some weight since that meeting and avers that the additional poundage and the experience he acquired will stand him in good stead tomorrow. There will also be three other bouts. Many Lowell fans are planning to go down the river to see the bout, as special cars will run to accommodate the local sports. Tickets are available at "Bob" Carr's, Central street.

MANAGER JENNINGS OF TIGERS SUSPENDED

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Notice of indefinite suspension was received by Manager Hugh Jennings of the Detroit Americans before the Tigers left this city for New York last night. This action by President Johnson of the Eastern league was a result of an argument between Jennings and Tim Moriarty during the double header here Wednesday.

The Boston club announced the transfer of outfielder Lamar, recently purchased from New York, to the Rochester, International League club. He will return to the Red Sox at the close of the International season.

YANKEES INDIGNANT ON SUSPENSION OF MAYS

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Jacob Ruppert and T. L. Houston, owners of the New York American League club, expressed indignation yesterday when informed by Ban Johnson that he had indefinitely suspended Carl Mays, the pitcher New York procured yesterday from the Boston club for three players and a cost sum estimated at $40,000. Ruppert immediately telegraphed Johnson, asking him to revoke the suspension.

"Johnson had two weeks to suspend Mays if he cared to," said Ruppert. "Why does he wait until we get him? Why does he make us suffer for a difference between Mays and the Boston club, when Boston was willing to dispossess the player to us. Johnson certainly must have heard of the negotiations, as the papers have been full of them, especially in Chicago."

"Johnson did wait until July 29 to the effect that 'Six clubs protest to your dickering with the Boston club for Mays. Knowing that both the Chicago and New York clubs were negotiating for Mays and that Boston was the party negotiating, and strongly suspecting that several other clubs also had put in a bid for this valuable player, we wired back for him to name the six clubs protesting. We never got a reply to that telegram."

"The New York club was willing to invest quite a lot of money for Mays, because we felt he could put the New York club back in the race, and we bought Mays for this reason. We hoped he would give us immediately as the present is a crucial time for our club."

"The next two weeks mean everything to the Yankees and if Mays is suspended during the period it will be a terrible blow to us. It was our intention to use Mays in the game against Detroit tomorrow."

In his telegram sent Johnson asking that Mays' suspension order be revoked, Ruppert said that, while the request was made in the friendliest spirit, "New York does not waive its legal right." He refused to explain this passage.

Ruppert denied a report from Boston that Derrill Pratt, second baseman of the New York Yankees, would be the third player to be sent to Boston in the Mays deal.

BIG REGATTA AT LAKE QUINSIGAMOND

WORCESTER, Aug. 1.—The 45th regatta of the National Association of Amateur Rowmen was held over a mile and one-quarter course at Lake Quinsigamond today. The events will be completed tomorrow.

Weather conditions were heavy early in the day but the regatta committee announced that the races would be rowed regardless of storms. The water was choppy when a number of scullers and crews warmed up in practice sprints and starts before the noon hour.

The annual meeting of the eastern division of the American Canoe association was held this morning on the south regatta course with a large entry list from New England clubs. There were 11 races. Nine events were on the national regatta program with the first race scheduled to start at 2 o'clock.

BIG BAIT NEEDED TO HOOK HERZOG

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Manager Mitchell of the Cubs had Herzog of the Braves hooked so far as the Boston and Chicago teams were concerned, but "Buck" Herzog, the hook by trying to hold the north side official up for a bit of extra change. As soon as he did this, Manager Mitchell cancelled the negotiations.

The two teams had agreed to a trade. West players were involved. Cannot be told at this time, as it would not help the club to let the players know they were to figure in the exchange.

WOOD QUALIFIES

Vesper Golfer in Tournament at Essex Club

Jack Hyland, also of Vesper played through the preliminary round, but his 91 did not qualify. Hyland always can be counted upon to pull new ones, however, and lived up to his reputation yesterday when he said he played on Wednesday for the first time in months he began his round at Essex with a 2.

BOXERS DISQUALIFIED

LYNN, Aug. 1.—In the sixth round of a 12-round bout between Walter Butler of Revere and Paddy Flynn of Everett at the Casino A.C. last night, a mixup occurred between the two boxers which created considerable excitement and resulted in the disqualification of both boxers; Flynn for butting and Butler for kicking.

Butler had demonstrated his superiority over Flynn, who, after he had been warned several times for rough work, butted Butler with his head. Butler lost his temper and kicked Flynn. A policeman finally pacified him.

PITCHING HORSESHOES

The Factory Boys Call it Barnyard Golf—Great Sport, Just the Same

BY FRED TURRYVILLE
N.E.A. Sports Writer

There are three kinds of golf—golf, African golf and barnyard golf. It is of the latter we write. The factory boys of the American Industrial Athletic group have taken up the "hick" sport and like it. Maybe it is because so many country boys have deserted the law for the bench the last few years.

Golf is a great game, but for some it is too expensive, or it requires too much time. African golf is also a game of great favor with some, mostly those of brunette skin to whom the clicking of the bones are the jazziest of jazz music. But barnyard golf—oh, boy—it's a game that anyone can play. It doesn't cost anything at all—just a little space and some old equine footgear.

It has found much favor with the noon-hour crowds. Young and old take to it like ducks to water. It has been adopted by the city fellows as enthusiastically as hard cider supplanting old John Barleycorn in many sections since July 1.

Hughy Palmer, Ohio champion, is 73 years old. He is an employee of one of the big Akron rubber companies. Hughy started the game three years ago when he decided he was at the age when he might start taking on fat and becoming short of wind and stiff of joint without exercise.

Someone jokingly entered his name in a horseshoe pitching contest under the auspices of the Akron press. He liked it and became a star. He's so good that he has to leave the factory every now and then to match his prowess with other state champs and stars of the barnyard course.

Equipment—a little ground space, two stakes, a set of retired horseshoes and ten minutes' time.

The players—one on a side or two on a side.

The object—throwing the shoe around the stake, or nearest to it.

How—place the forefinger on outside edge with the first joint just over the end of right prong, and with thumb flat on top. The other fingers will grip the shoe naturally. Keep feet together alongside stake. Keep your eye on other stake and take step forward when you throw. As shoe leaves hand give it a little twist so it will revolve through air and "ring" opposite stake.

ENLISTED MEN IN THE REGULAR ARMY

CAMP DEVENS, Aug. 1.—Reports that pay of enlisted men in the regular army will revert after present emergency to pre-war scale are incorrect, announced Major General H. P. McCain in a bulletin issued from headquarters yesterday. The army appropriation bill for fiscal year 1920 provides that provisions of act approved May 18 1917 which increased the pay of enlisted men of the army are continued in force and in effect from and after the date of approval of this appropriation act of 1920.

The news was received with great rejoicing by the regulars here. The officers too on duty here were glad to hear the good news.

Recruiting for the regular army continues brisk at this cantonment and daily men continue to enlist at the recruiting station. The air service, motor transport corps, medical department ordnance corps the line continue to draw their quotas.

Lieut. Curtis Moffat, aviator, returned from Mineola, L. I., yesterday. Lieut. Moffat brought a new plane here from the flying field and a few hours after his arrival started his day's work of flying recruits around the cantonment. Occasionally Lieut. Moffat stunted for the entertainment of the camp.

While flying in Townsend last week Lieut. Moffat saved his life by his display of coolness. While 5000 feet in the air the motor of the engine stopped. Within a few seconds Lt. Moffat realized that the engine was dead. There he started his flight to earth. Fortunately there was a small vacant lot in the vicinity. The aviator made the field but the plane was slightly damaged when it came in contact with a tree. Aviator Moffat and Mechanic St. Germain were unharmed by the drop.

A minority is always a wicked and blasphemous iconoclast until it grows up to be a majority.

Will First Inaugurate Drastic Change in Policy—Trotzky to Head Reds

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 1.—(By the Associated Press)—The Svenska Dagbladet is informed by persons closely connected with the Russian soviet government that Nikolai Lenin, the premier, intends to begin a drastic change of policy and then retire. One condition of his retirement will be that Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik war minister, be left in command of the red army.

At recently held meetings of the soviet commissaries the newspaper informants say the question of giving power into the hands of other socialist parties was earnestly discussed, but Lenin declared that the best way to check reaction as represented by Admiral Kolchak, head of the All-Russian government at Omsk, would be to drop power for a time in order to prove that no other party was about to reorganize Russia. This, he contended, would strengthen the Bolshevik and enable them to resume power. His views were shared by George Tchitcherin the commissary for foreign affairs, M. Stouitchka, commissary of justice, and Prof. Podvolski, commissary of the interior.

NEW LAW FOR MINORS

According to a recent legislative act, minors between 11 and 15 who wish to work during the summer vacation must have reached at least the sixth grade in the elementary schools. Up to now, if they had passed the fourth grade they were eligible to employment. The act was approved, July 2 and Attendance Officer William F. Thornton has been notified of its provisions.

Lady Lookabout
Mildred, like many other persons, is out of patience with endless "investigations" that always seem to end up in a bill. What she says about women with yellow necks and painted faces we predict may make some squirm. She thinks men have designed all the ready-made dresses she sees in the stores. But for all her caustic comments, she ends her talk with a delightful bit of city natural history about the hermit thrush.

The joint congressional committee assigned to visit the Bay State and pass on the matter of helping Massachusetts honor the 50th anniversary of the Pilgrims' landing returns to Capital enthusiastic and without doubt the national government will liberally chip in towards the cost of making the improvements as planned for Plymouth. We are in for some unusual weather next December, according to the noted astronomer, professor A. F. Porter. Moreover between December 17 and December 20, the planets are going to quit minding their own business according to Porter, and will move themselves into danger zone. The earth will literally stagger from the carrying on of the planets.

GERMANS BEGIN TO PAY

Turn Over Products to France—Full Restoration for Damages Explained

PARIS, Thursday, July 31.—The conditions imposed on Germany to assure full restoration for damages to the persons and property of the allies and their associates were described to the peace treaty commission of the chamber of deputies today. Although the first payment of twenty billion marks in gold was not due until 1921, an important sum will be handed over in the nature of products, delivery of which have already begun, according to Louis Kloiz, minister of finance. These products include coal to Belgium and Italy up to forty million tons yearly; tar, benzol, cattle, coloring matters, tile and brick. They will be supplemented by the labor of German and Austrian workers. The coal is in addition to that from the Saar valley which goes to France.

At a meeting of the striking policemen today, Chairman Marston of the union read the following telegram from the Liverpool branch:

"Liverpool out solid; stripped docks at midnight, fire brigade as well. Union officials claim the undivided support of organized labor. The Star says that the electrical workers have threatened, in certain contingencies, to cut off London's lighting in support of the police and extreme action is also threatened by the officials of the Locomotive Engineers' union.

The Evening News says that all the strikers were suspended and will be dismissed.

Secretary Hayes of the union, addressing a meeting of the strikers, said that the authorities had sent a telegram to every police station, intimating that if the strikers would return by noon today they would be reinstated. Laughter greeted the announcement. Hayes made a strong appeal to the men to remain firm, asserting that their number would be increased ten fold by tomorrow. He said arrangements would be made this afternoon for picketing the police stations.

He gave assurances that Mexico would place no barriers against proper immigration, and in fact would extend all possible aid to such prospective colonists. Senor Carranza was asked whether the Mexican government had any policy concerning Latin America which might be construed as indicating that the solidarity of such countries was more to be desired by Mexico than alliances with any foreign nation. He replied that to date the Mexican government was considering no such project of union and until such a proposition presents itself, he refused to define a possible governmental policy.

Touching on the petroleum question, he asserted that the initiative he presented to congress last November, which was in effect an amendment to Article 27 of the constitution, probably would be considered by congress soon. He was emphatic in the declaration that the public press of the United States was being grossly influenced by the petroleum interests, who, he said, were distorting the facts. He continued:

"The petroleum companies have set out to engender all-feeling between Mexico and the United States. They are doing this through the medium of some sections of the American press, which are distorting facts to suit their own ends.

"Mexico is not opposed to the petroleum companies or to any other foreign investors. We merely require that if such companies are to operate in the republic, they abide by our laws. What the new oil law will be I cannot say. The passing of a new oil law is now in the hands of congress."

He refused to venture a prediction as to probable action on his initiative by congress. The attitude of the petroleum commission which will be a determining factor in the settlement of present difficulties, he also declared problematical. The special commission appointed by the Mexican senate to investigate conditions in the Tampico region had completed its work, he said, and would give its information to congress. This report is private and is for informative purposes for congress only.

In conclusion Carranza gave renewed assurances of his personal wishes and those of the government that cordial relations between Mexico and the
